INDEX TO VOLUME XLVII-1970

A

Abbotts Creek, land on, is acquired by John Miller, Sr., 185.

Abram J. Hallet v. Francis Lamotte, trial in New Bern, 1818, summarized, 68n.

Abrams, Richard M., his The Issues of the Populist and Progressive Eras, 1892-1912, reviewed, 427.

Absentee owners, percentage of, on rice plantations, noted, 396n.

"Accounts of Moravian Mountain Excursions of a Hundred Years Ago," 281-316.

Acre, Mr., Moravians camp at home of, 1880, 314.

Adams, Dora, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.

Adams, James, death of, noted, 236; serves as Anglican missionary in N.C., 236.

Adams, John, appoints William H. Hill to federal bench, 2; correspondence of, is censored before publication, 17; evolution of political views of, discussed, 161-175, passim.

Adams, John Quincy, appoints Henry Clay his secretary of state, 117; pictured, 116; receives minority of votes in Sampson County, 342n.

Advertisements, for runaway slaves, reproduced, 63.

Advertising, policy on use of, in North Carolina Historical Review and Carolina Comments, described, 278n.

Affair of Honor, An, reviewed, 222.

Agawam, Alexander C. Rhind is captain of, 31.

Agriculture, crops produced on Lake Mattamuskeet plantations, described, 77; productivity of Archibald Monk plantations, 1850, 1860, itemized, 343n; rice cultivation, in nineteenth century South, discussed, 388-415, passim; status of, in N.C. in 1830s, discussed, 121-122.

Ague, prevalence of, in eastern N.C. described, 71, 75, 77, 78.

Aiken, Governor, employs William Capers, as plantation overseer, 408.

Albemarle Sound, canal to, from Lake Mattamuskeet is planned, 64n.

Alden, John R., his A History of the American Revolution, briefly discussed, 147-148, wins Mayflower Cup, 148; pictured, 148.

Alexander, Edward P., reviews Patrick Henry: Practical Revolutionary, 220.

Alexander, James Mitchell, town is named for, 291n.

Alexander's, Moravian campers stop there, 1874, 291, 294; resort hotel, pictured, 292.

Alien and Sedition Acts, criticism of, by Jefferson and Madison, described, 173.

Alligator River, canal from, to Lake Mattamuskeet, is planned by Hugh Jones, 82.

Alligator Swamp, Hyde County, described, 1818, 71, 72.

Allston, Robert F. W., his study of rice planters, quoted, 396n, 399n; successful rice production of, noted, 398n.

Altamuskeet Indians. See Mattamuskeet Indians.

Alum's Springs, Va., Moravian campers stop at, 1875, 307-308.

American (Fayetteville), Archibald Monk's advertisement in, quoted, 340-341.

American Association of University Women Award, candidates for, discussed, 131-135; is presented to Mary Bledsoe Gillett, 134.

American Mercury, publishes articles by W. J. Cash, 40, 50.

American Printmaking: The First 150 Years, reviewed, 228.

American Reconstruction, 1865-1870, republication of, briefly reviewed, 232.

American Revolution, attitude of Dunkers and other religious pacifists toward, discussed, 179-181, 194; continuing significance of, in American history, discussed, 161-175, passim; effect of, on other nations, described, 163; pamphlet on North Carolina's role in, is available, 278n; treatment of pacifists in, by N.C. government, discussed, 179-181.

American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, planning of program for, in N.C., discussed, 138-144.

American System, is acceptable to N.C. Whigs after 1833, 127.

Ames, Fisher, Archibald MacLaine is compared to, 19.

Anabaptists, doctrines of, are challenged by Anglican church, 235, 240, 241.

Ancient Maritime Village of Murfreesborough: 1787-1825, The, reviewed, 215.

Anderson, Hugh George, his Lutheranism in the Southeastern States, 1860-1886: A Social History, reviewed, 327.

Anderson, William, marries Cora Worth, 311n.

Anglican church, establishment of, in N.C., described, 233; reception of ministers of, in colonial N.C., discussed, 233-243, passim.

Anglican clergy, behavior of, in colonial N.C., described, 233-243.

Ann Street Cemetery, Beaufort, is donated to town by Nathaniel Taylor, 376; scenes from, pictured, cover, autumn issue, 375.

Anti-Catholicism, is attributed to defeat of Al Smith, 40-50, passim.

Anti-Saloon League, role of, in Al Smith campaign, discussed, 48-49.

Appeal in Four Articles, is distributed by free Negroes, 1830, 344.

XUM

Aramuskeet Indians. See Mattamuskeet Indians.
"Archibald Monk: Public Servant of Sampson County," 339-369.
Archives and History-State Library Building, is culmination of dream of Christopher Crittenden, 152-153.
Argyle Island, Ga., map of Manigault plantations on, pictured, 404; plantations on, are acquired by Charles Manigault, 394n, 398.
Armfield, Mr., Moravian campers stop at home of, 1875, 304.
Armfield, Mrs., sells Moravian campers dairy products, 1875, 304.
Aromuskeet, Aromuskek Indians. See Mattamuskeet Indians.
Artillery and Ammunition of the Civil War, reviewed, 418.
Ashe, John, brother of, is criticized by Griffith J. McRee, 18; is grandfather of Mary McRee, 3.
Ashe, Samuel, is criticized by Griffith J. McRee, 18.
Ashe, Samuel A., omits Griffith J. McRee from his Biographical History of North Carolina, 1.
Ashe, William S., is correspondent of kinsman, Griffith J. McRee, 12.
Ashe County, Dunker settlement there, discussed, 184-204, passim; votes consistently Democratic in Whig era, 129.
Asheville, 1891 map of, reproduced, 295; is described by Moravian campers, 1874, 291, 294.
Asheville Register, discusses Republican-Populist fusion issue, 250.
Ashford, Street, is bondsman for Archibald Monk, 357.
Ashley River, proves suitable for rice cultivation, 388.
Atchison, Ray M., reviews A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Southern Literature, 104.
Atkins, Robert, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Atomic bomb, origins of, found in Civil War experiment, 24-39, passim.
Auer, J. Jeffery, his Oratory in the Old South, 1828-1860, reviewed, 417.
Austinville, Va., Moravian campers visit lead mines there, 1875, 305, 307.

B

Back to Beginnings: Adlai E. Stevenson and North Carolina, briefly reviewed, 230.
Badger, George E., is unappreciative of Griffith J. McRee's literary work, 8.
Bahnson, Catharina Elisabeth, brief sketch of, 302n; participates in Moravian excursion to Virginia, 1875, 302-309, passim.
Bailey, W. A., joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260.
Baker, Daniel B., is Whig elector, 353.
Baker, Richard, purchases Beaufort land, 377.
Baldensperger, Fernand, his American Reconstruction, 1865-1870, republication of, briefly reviewed, 232.
Baldwin, Agnes Leland, her First Settlers of South Carolina, 1670-1680, briefly reviewed, 231.
Bancroft, George, compliments Griffith J. McRee on Iredell volumes, 21.
Banks, policy of Andrew Jackson concerning, discussed, 118-119; reaction of N.C. to Jackson's policies concerning, discussed, 118-120.
Banks, James, participates in Whig party rally, 355n.
Banning, Margaret Culkin, her Mesabi, briefly discussed, 135.
Baptist Society, Pa., sends missionary to Lake Mattamuskeet church, 71.
Baptists, is name given to Dunkers by Salem Moravians, 176; prevalence of, in colonial N.C., noted, 235; prevent establishment of Anglican church in N.C., 233; views of southern newspapers of, in 1928, described, 46.
Barbour, Philip L., his The Jamestown Voyages under the First Charter, 1606-1609, Vols. I and II, reviewed, 218.
Bardolph, Richard, his "Review of North Carolina Nonfiction, 1968-1969," 145-151.
Barges, used to transport rice, pictured, 392.
Bartley, Numan V., his The Rise of Massive Resistance: Race and Politics in the South During the 1950's, reviewed, 329.
Bases of the Plantation Society, reviewed, 226.
Bath, building of town of, described by missionary, 233n; St. Thomas's Parish there, receives library from Thomas Bray, 234.
Battery Park Hotel, is shown on 1891 map of Asheville, 295.
Battle, Kemp P., his description of Episcopal School of N.C., quoted, 5n.
Battle, Richard H., his biographical sketch of William Gaston, quoted, 68n.
Bauer. See Bowers.
Baum, Mrs., of Roanoke Island, favorably impresses Samuel H. Perkins, 59.
Baum, Thomas B., home of, on Lake Mattamuskeet, pictured, 73.
Baum, Walter, home owned by, on Lake Mattamuskeet, pictured, 73.
Beam, Peter, is neighbor of John Ham, 192.
Bear Inlet, act provides for building of fort at, 381.
Bearcroft, Philip, dismisses Michael Smith as S.P.G. missionary, 241, 242.
Bears, presence of, in Dismal Swamp in 1817, described, 56.
Beastly Folklore, 151.
Beaucatcher Mountain, briefly described, 294.
Beaufort, Henry Somerset, Duke of, Beaufort is named for, 372; pictured, 372.

Beaufort, boundaries of, are enlarged, 374; colonial courthouses there, described, 373, 374n; description of, in 1810, quoted, 386n; 1882 map of, reproduced, 384; founding and development of, discussed, 370-387, passim; incorporation of, discussed, 373, 374n; is supply base for Union navy, 31, 32, 33; ordinances for regulation of, described, 385; railroad from, to Tennessee, is sought by Whigs, 356; scenes from Old Burying Ground there, pictured, cover, autumn issue, 375.
"Beaufort, North Carolina: Its Development as a Colonial Town," 370-387.
Beaufort Inlet, act provides for building of fort at, 381.
Beaver Creek, is described, by Moravian campers, 1874, 300.
Beckel, Eleanor, marries John Wesley Thomas, 309n.
Bedford, Thomas, purchases Beaufort land, 377.
Bell, Emma, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Bell, John L., Jr., reviews The French Tradition in America and Bases of the Plantation Society, 227.
Bell, Joseph, advertises for runaway slave, 63.
Bell, Joseph, is churchwarden for St. John's parish, 373; is named Carteret Precinct justice, 372; is to supervise building of fort at Beaufort Inlet, 381, 382; purchases Beaufort land for courthouse, 373.
Bell, Joseph, Jr., serves as Beaufort commissioner, 385.
Bell, Ross, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Benton, Alexander, home of, is used by Union army, 368.
Bentonville, battle of, mentioned, 368.
Bergdoll, Grover Cleveland, briefly discussed, 43.
Bergeron, Paul H., his Correspondence of James K. Polk, Volume I, 1817-1832, reviewed, 321.
Berkeley, Dorothy Smith, her Dr. Alexander Garden of Charles Town, reviewed, 216.
Berkeley, Edmund, his Dr. Alexander Garden of Charles Town, reviewed, 216.
Bernard, Claude M., joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260.
Best, William, his The Merit and Reward of a Good Intention: A Sermon Preached Before the Trustees of the Colony of Georgia on March 18, 1742, reviewed, 224.
Bethabara, diarist there, records purchase of land by Dunkers, 176.
Bethania, briefly described, 303n; Moravian campers stop at, 1878, 311, 1880, 315-316; Moravian campers travel through, 1875, 303; R. P. Lineback is Moravian minister there, 282n.
Betts, Doris, makes contribution to literature of N.C., 160.
Bevington, Helen, her A Book & A Love Affair, discussed, 145-146.
Bevington, Merle, discussed, 145-146.
"Beyond the Moon," 152-160.
Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Southern Literature, A, reviewed, 103.
Biddle, Nicholas, his controversy with Andrew Jackson, on Second Bank of U.S., discussed, 118-120; pictured, 119.
Big Laurel River, 292.
Big Lick, Va., briefly described, 310n.
Big Spring, Va., briefly described, 310n.
Big Steel and the Wilson Administration: A Study in Business-Government Relations, reviewed, 108.
Binding, of North Carolina Historical Review and Carolina Comments, arrangement for, described, 276n.
Bishop of London, receives reports on Anglican missionaries in N.C., 233-243, passim.
Bivins, John, Jr., his Longrifles of North Carolina, reviewed, 214.
Black Mountains, expedition to, by Moravian campers, 1874, described, 282-302, passim.
Blackburn, William Maxwell, literature classes of, briefly discussed, 158, 159; pictured, 158; students of, listed, 158, 159.
Blackman, Josiah, 343n.
Blackman, William, lawsuits against, by Monk brothers, described, 341n.
Blackstock, Walter, his Not as Leaves are Shaken, briefly discussed, 136-137.
Blackwater, Va., Dunker meeting there, mentioned, 197.
Bladen County, inhabitants of, fear slave insurrection, 344.
Blair, Hugh, lectures of, are used in U.S. universities, 54.
Blair, John, his unfavorable description of colonial N.C., quoted, 235; letter of, describes vestry act of 1701, 233n; refuses S.P.G. mission in N.C., 235.
Blair, Montgomery, brief sketch of, 25n; Union naval strategy meeting held at home of, 25-26.
Blassingame, John W., reviews New Orleans in the Gilded Age: Politics and Urban Progress, 1880-1896, 324.
Blease, Cole, campaigns in Cleveland County, 49; is ridiculed by W. J. Cash, 43, 49.
Bleser, Carol K. Rothrock, her The Promised Land: The History of the South Carolina Land Commission, 1869-1890, reviewed, 95.
Blockade, of N.C. coast, by Union navy, discussed, 24-39, passim.
Blockade-runners, prefer port at Wilmington, in Civil War, 24-39, passim.
Bloodworth, Timothy, comment about, by

XUM

Griffith J. McRee, quoted, 17.
Blount, John G., Hyde County land of, mentioned, 82.
Blue Ridge Mountains, beauty of, described by Moravian diarist, 1878, 309; expedition to, by Moravian campers, 1874, described, 282-302, passim.
Blue Ridge Parkway, The, briefly discussed, 151; receives Thomas Wolfe Literary Award, 151; reviewed, 96.
Blum, Anna May, becomes wife of Charles Ebert, 311n.
Blythe, LeGette, is student of Frederick H. Koch, 157, 158.
Board of Trade, receives report from Arthur Dobbs on Cape Lookout, 382-383; refers Dobbs's recommendations to Lords of Admiralty, 383.
Bogue Inlet, Spanish privateers capture schooner near, 379.
Bogue Sound, is made part of Carteret Precinct, 372.
Boiling Springs, is home of W. J. Cash, 40.
Bollinger, George F., persuades N.C. Dunkers to move to Missouri, 200.
Bonnet, Stede, visits Beaufort harbor, 1718, 371.
Bontemps, Arna, his Great Slave Narratives, briefly reviewed, 112.
Book & A Love Affair, A, discussed, 145-146.
Boone, Daniel, father of, acquires land from Earl of Granville, 202; religious background of, discussed, 202n.
Bourbon Democratic hegemony, wins elections of 1892, 244.
Bowen, Michael L., reviews Records of the Moravians in North Carolina. Vol. XI. 1852-1879, 88.
Bowers (Bauer), is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 201.
Bowers, Adam, purchases land in Rowan and Wilkes counties, 201.
Bowers, Douglas, his A List of References for the History of Agriculture in the United States, 1790-1840, briefly reviewed, 433.
Bowers, John, descendants of, reside in Flat Rock Dunker community, 202; is a leader of Flat Rock Dunker congregation, 203; is a leader of Wilkes County Dunkers, 201; may have been Dunker minister, 203.
Bowman, Charles H., Jr., his "Archibald Monk: Public Servant of Sampson County," 339-369.
Boyd, John, serves as Anglican missionary in N.C., 237; unfavorable reports on, quoted, 237.
Boyd, Julian P., his "A People Divided," 161-175.
Boyd, William K., his assessment of Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, quoted, 1.
Braden, Waldo W., his Oratory in the Old South, 1828-1860, reviewed, 417.
Bradley, Bert E., his Oratory in the Old South, 1828-1860, reviewed, 417.
Brady, Archibald, his arguments against Republican-Populist fusion, quoted, 251-252.
Bragg, Braxton, withdraws troops from Wilmington area, 31.
Bragg, Thomas, defeats Alfred Dockery, for governorship, 356n.
Branch, John, followers of, unite with National Republicans, to form Whig party, 120; is ousted from cabinet by Andrew Jackson, 117; leads Old Republicans against Jackson, 117.
Bray, Thomas, obtains charter to organize S.P.G., 234; pictured, 234; sends parish libraries to North Carolina, 234.
Breeze, K. Randolph, is skeptical about powder-boat scheme, 28.
Brendel, George Samuel, a former Dunker, is baptized by Moravians, 188.
Brewer, James H., his The Confederate Negro: Virginia's Craftsmen and Military Laborers, 1861-1865, reviewed, 92.
Brewster, Lawrence F., reviews Thomas Jefferson and the New Nation: A Biography, 427.
Brickell, John, his description of Beaufort, quoted, 378.
"Bricky Jack." See Ferguson, "Bricky Jack."
"Bridge Road," to connect Newport and White Oak rivers, is completed, 374.
Bridges, Roger D., reviews The United States and France: Civil War Diplomacy, 425.
Bridgewater, Moravian campers pass through, 300.
Briefe and True Report of the New Found Land of Virginia, A, briefly described, 155; republication of, briefly noted, 109.
Brietz, Mary Catherine, is first wife of Samuel Timothy Mickey, 312n.
Brocker, Mrs. William E., owns travel diaries of Cynthia Thomas, 281n.
"Brookfield," is Pennsylvania home of John Jones, 80, 81.
Brooks, Philip C., his Research in Archives: The Use of Unpublished Primary Sources, reviewed, 230.
Brooks, William Ithiel, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Brown, Alexander Crosby, his The Dismal Swamp Canal, briefly reviewed, 111.
Brown, Bedford, credits Whig gains to distribution question, 126n; opposes Jackson's nationalistic policies, 117; remains loyal to Jackson in banking crisis, 120.
Brown, Bob, his Science Treasures, briefly discussed, 133.
Brown Marsh Presbyterian Church, briefly reviewed, 110.
Brown, Minnie (Noel), joins Moravian campers, for tour of Burkes Garden, Va., 1875, 307-308.

Brown, Noel, joins Moravian campers, for tour of Burkes Garden, Va., 1875, 307-308.
Browne, Rose Butler, her Love My Children: The Education of a Teacher, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
Brower, John M., supports antifusionist stance of John B. Eaves, 257n.
Brunswick County, has a majority of Whig voters, 129; rice production in, described, 391n.
Brunswick Town, decline of, is described by Griffith J. McRee, 19.
Brushy Mountains, are crossed by Moravian campers, 1874, 287; briefly described, 287n.
Brushy Mountains, Va., Moravian campers cross, 1875, 307, 308.
Bryan, Harry, resolution of, for Sampson County Whigs, quoted, 352.
Bryan, William H., is overseer, on Manigault rice plantation, 408.
Buffalo, from Lawson's A New Voyage to Carolina, pictured, 156.
Buffalo Creek, land on, is acquired by Jacob Faw, John Carver, Gasper Rowland, 201.
Buffalo Presbyterian Church, Guilford County, is pastored by Eli W. Caruthers, 14.
Buffalo Presbyterian Church, Moore County, is served by William D. Paisley, 340.
Buchanan, Va., Moravians camp near, 1878, 310.
Bugles at the Border, briefly discussed, 132; receives AAUW Juvenile Literature Award, 134.
Buncombe County, Moravian campers travel through, 1874, 290-298, passim; Republican rally there, is criticized by W. J. Cash, 47.
Burch, Viola, her While the Mock Orange Waits, briefly discussed, 136.
Burgert, John, brings news of preaching of Universalist doctrines in N.C., 194.
Burke, Thomas, poetry of, briefly discussed, 156.
Burke County, Moravian campers travel through, 1874, 300.
Burkes Garden, Va., Moravian campers visit, 1875, 307-308.
Burkett. See also Burkhart.
Burkett, Jehu, Jr., sells land on Sparks Creek, 186.
Burkhart. See also Burkett, Burkit.
Burkhart, Abraham, buys land from Jehu Burkhart, 186; marries Catherine Hire, 186.
Burkhart, Christian, acquires land in Wilkes County, 187.
Burkhart, Henry, emigrates to Ohio, 186; purchases Reedy Creek land from father, 186.
Burkhart, Jehu, activities of, are reported in Records of Moravians, 187-188; buys land in Rowan County, 178; confusion in spelling of name of, described, 178; daughter of, marries Isaac Faw, 183; emigrates from N.C. to Ohio, 183, 186, 188; is Dunker elder in N.C., 177; land transactions of, on Sparks Creek, discussed, 177, 185, 186; marries Magdalene Croll, 178; saves Fraternity Church of the Brethren from Universalist heresy, 200.
Burkhart, Jehu, Jr., emigrates to Indiana, 187.
Burkhart, Jonathan, emigrates from Switzerland to Pennsylvania, 178.
Burkhart, Magdalene, marries Isaac Faw, 183, 187.
Burkhart, Mary, marries Jacob Huntsinger, 187.
Burkhart, Nathaniel, emigrates to Ohio and Indiana, 187; marries Elizabeth Kessler, 187.
Burkit (Burkhart), is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 200.
Burlington, briefly described, 311n.
Burrington, George, his description of Beaufort, quoted, 377; reports on state of religion in N.C., 1732, 236.
Burrus, Allen, home of, on Lake Mattamuskeet, pictured, 73.
Butler, Benjamin F., introduces powder-boat scheme, for assault on Fort Fisher, 27-30; pictured, 29; powder-boat scheme of, is ridiculed, 39; takes personal command of army units in powder-boat operation, 32; troops of, land on Fort Fisher following powder-boat explosion, 37; withdraws Union troops from Fort Fisher, following powder-boat fiasco, 38.
Butler, Marion, addresses Farmers' Alliance at Greensboro, 256; admonishes Thomas Settle on silver issue, 257; advice of, to Thomas Settle, quoted, 26n; attempts to advise Richmond Pearson on political issues, 257; brief biographical sketch of, 255, 256; criticizes proposed Populist concession to Republicans, 262-263; dominates 1894 Populist party convention, 260; is national chairman of Farmers' Alliance, 255; is state chairman of Populist party, 255; pictured, 256; Republican fusionists support U.S. senatorial candidacy of, 259; seeks nomination of Hiram L. Grant, 266n; suggests withdrawal of George H. White and Henry P. Cheatham from Republican candidacies, 266n; supports Populist-Republican fusion ticket, 255; wins senatorial election in 1894, 269.
Butler, Pierce, information from, is sought by Griffith J. McRee, 15.
Butner, Antoinette, brief sketch of, 282n; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-309, passim; visits Mocksville, 302.
Butner, John, joins Moravian campers, on visit to Natural Bridge, Va., 1878, 309-311.
Butner, Mollie, brief sketch of, 282n; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-316, passim.

Butner, Sophie, falls from horse on Mount Mitchell, 299; joins Moravian campers in Asheville, 291; returns to Asheville, 299.
Butner, Thaddeus, antics of, on Black Mountain excursion, described, 301; brief sketch of, 282n; marries Emily Worth, 311n; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-311, passim; visits Mocksville, 302.

C

Cage, The, is candidate for Sir Walter Raleigh Award, 135.
Cain, Charles Manly, marries Emma Fisher, 311n.
Caldwell, Mamie, joins Moravian campers, for tour of Burkes Garden, Va., 1875, 307-308.
Caldwell and Company: A Southern Financial Empire, reviewed, 331.
Caldwell County, Moravian excursionists camp there, 1874, 286-287.
Calhoun, John C., followers of, unite with National Republicans, to form Whig party, 120; is presidential candidate in 1824, 116; is supported by John Branch faction, 117; pictured, 121; proslavery arguments of, are eschewed by Griffith J. McRee, 7.
Callahan, J. Nelson, is on staff of Cleveland Press (Shelby), 44-45.
Camden County, Pasquotank River originates there, 58n.
Cameron, Duncan, purchases Episcopal school property in Raleigh, 5n.
"Camp," Savannah River, Ga., is destroyed by Sherman's army, 411; is summer home for Manigault slaves, 402, 406, 408.
Camp-fire and Cotton-field . . . Life with the Union Armies, and Residence on a Louisiana Plantation, briefly noted, 113.
Camp Landing, Hyde County, is landmark on eighteenth century maps, 71n; North Lake Church there, is visited by Baptist missionary, 71n.
Canals, building of, to Lake Mattamuskeet, described, 82; use of, in rice cultivation, discussed, 388-414, passim.
Caneday, Richard, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Cannon, James, Jr., is anti-Smith Democrat, 50; is author of anti-Catholic pamphlet, 48.
Canoe Voyage Up the Minnay Sotor, A, republication of, noted, 432.
Cape Fear, act provides for building of fort at, 381; area of, is originally part of Carteret Precinct, 372n; is northern extremity for growth of rice, 388, 391n.
Cape Fear Bank, elects H. R. Savage as its cashier, 13.
Cape Fear Navigation Company, advertises for runaway slave, 63.
Cape Fear Recorder (Wilmington), is edited by Archibald MacLaine Hooper, 3.
Cape Fear region, votes for William H. Crawford, 116.
Cape Fear River, activities in area of, during Civil War, discussed, 24-39, passim; influence of Griffith J. McRee on historians in area of, suggested, 23; map of prerevolutionary plantations on, reproduced, 4; rice plantation on, is owned by Griffith J. McRee, 3.
Cape Girardeau Co., Mo., Dunkers are first settlers there, 177, 200.
Cape Lookout, Arthur Dobbs recommends location of naval base there, 382-383; ferry service to, from Beaufort, is established, 383, 385; provides base for privateers, 379, 382.
Cape Lookout Bay, whalers' camps are located on, 385n.
Capers, William, is overseer on Manigault rice plantation, 401n, 408-411; receives high praise from Manigault, 408.
Carolina Comments, evolution of format of, pictured, 277; opinion of readers concerning, discussed, 270-280, passim.
Carolina Israelite, The, briefly discussed, 146.
Carolina Pirate, briefly discussed, 133.
Carpenter, Margaret, marries Jonathan Miller, 203.
Carpenter, Matthias, is listed in Surry County, on 1790 census, 203; lives at Warrensville, Ashe County, 203.
Carraway, Gertrude S., her The Stanly (Stanley) Family and the Historic John Wright Stanly House, briefly reviewed, 231.
Carrowan, Joseph, Hugh Jones buys Hyde County land from, 82.
Carrowan, William, is pastor at Mattamuskeet Baptist church, 71n.
Carter, Landon, opposes liberalism of Thomas Jefferson, 165.
Carteret, John Lord, Earl of Granville, Carteret Precinct is named in honor of, 372; pictured, 372.
Carteret Precinct, court of, meets in private homes, 373; courthouse for, is established at Beaufort, 372, 373; establishment of, described, 371-372; first jurymen of, listed, 373; first justices of, named, 372.
Carthage Male and Female Institute, Angus Currie McNeill is principal of, 366n.
Cartwright, Ezekiel, gives land on Lake Mattamuskeet to Baptist church, 71n; headstone of, pictured, 72; home of, on Lake Mattamuskeet, pictured, 72.
Cartwright, Samuel, land of, in Hyde County, adjoins Hugh Jones plantation, 82.
Caruthers, Eli Washington, brief sketch of, 14n; is supplied historical data by Griffith J. McRee, 14; is antebellum historian, 1; praises writing of Griffith J. McRee, 18; seeks subscribers for Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 21.

Carver (Garver), is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 201.
Carver, John, buys Buffalo Creek tract from Jiles Parmely, 201; sells land to Gasper Rowland, 201.
Cascade Falls, Moravians camp near, 1880, 315.
Case, Lynn M., his The United States and France: Civil War Diplomacy, reviewed, 423.
Cash, W. J., Guggenheim Fellowship application of, quoted, 40; his editorship of Cleveland Press (Shelby), discussed, 40-50; his The Mind of the South, briefly discussed, 159; illnesses of, discussed, 40-50, passim; is christened Joseph Wilbur, 49n; is state editor for Charlotte News, 42-43; newspaper background of, described, 159; pictured, 41.
Cass, Lewis, wins Sampson County vote, 354n.
Caswell County, votes consistently Democratic in Whig era, 129.
Catawba River, Dunker congregation on, is led by Samuel Sanders, 203; is forded by Moravian campers, 1874, 288, 291, 301.
Catching Saradove, briefly discussed, 136.
Catholic Diocese of Raleigh, acquires William Gaston house, New Bern, 70.
Cattle, are permitted to roam in Dismal Swamp, 56.
Catton, Bruce, his Prefaces to History, reviewed, 135.
Caucasian (Goldsboro), is edited by Marion Butler, 255.
Cavallieri, Fernando, his portrait of Charles Manigault and family, reproduced, 397.
Cedar Creek, is crossed by Moravian campers, 301.
Census of 1790, lists numerous Dunker families in N.C., 183, 192, 200-201.
Centurion, attacking Nuestra Senora de Cavadonga, pictured, 380.
Central Railroad Company, 356n.
Chadwick, John, is driver for Moravian mountain excursion, 302-311, passim.
Chaffin, Mrs., Moravian campers visit with, near Austinville, Va., 1875, 308.
Chamberlain, Dick, brother of, is visited by Moravian campers, 1880, 315.
Chapman, Giles, spreads Universalist doctrines among Dunkers, 199.
Chapman, Samuel, signs marriage bond for Hugh Jones and Ann Marie Guion, 53n.
Chappell, Fred, his Dagon, briefly discussed, 136; is student of William N. Blackburn, 158, 159; makes contribution to literature of N.C., 159, 160.
Charleston, S.C., is compared with Wilmington, 3; is chief rice market, 398n; Manigault dynasty there, discussed, 391-415, passim.
Charlotte, former mayor of, heads Anti-Smith Democratic Committee, 44.
Charlotte News, provides writing experience for Burke Davis, W. J. Cash, 159; W. J. Cash serves as state editor for, 42-43, 50.
Chatham County, is divided on 1835 constitutional reforms, 123; votes for William H. Crawford, 116.
Cheatham, Henry P., brief sketch of, 265; leads Negro antifusion faction, 254n; obtains Republican congressional nomination, 254n; opposes Republican-Populist fusion, 266; pictured, 265; withdrawal of, from Republican candidacy, recommended by Marion Butler, 266n.
Chidsey, Donald Barr, his The War in the South: The Carolinas and Georgia in the American Revolution, briefly reviewed, 112.
Chimney Rocks, are visited by Moravian travelers, 1874, 293.
Chisholm v. Georgia, dissenting opinion of James Iredell in, discussed, 12.
Chitty, Emma, adventures of, on Mount Mitchell, described, 298; joins Moravian campers at Morganton, 288; participates in Moravian camping excursion to Virginia, 302-309, passim; returns to Salem by rail, 299.
Cholera, decimates Manigault's slave population, 402.
Chowan Indians, capture Giles Rainsford, 235, 236.
Chowan Precinct, is served by S.P.G. missionary William Gordon, 236; Thomas Lovick serves as juryman for, 377n.
Christ Church, Raleigh, Griffith J. McRee marries Penelope J. Iredell in, 3n.
Christianburg, Va., Moravians camp near, 1878, 310.
Christian values, are integral part of common school system, 366.
Church of England, discriminates against N.C. in favor of S.C., 235.
Church of the Brethren. See Dunkers.
Circuit Rider Dismounts: A Social History of Southern Methodism, 1865-1900, The, republication of, briefly reviewed, 232.
Civil war, aspects of, in American Revolution, discussed, 163, 165.
Civil War, effect of, on Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 21, 23; effect of, on Manigault rice plantations, discussed, 409-415, passim; effect of, on Sampson County schools, described, 365-366, 369; first battle of Fort Fisher, discussed, 24-39, passim; pamphlet on North Carolina's role in, is available, 278n.
Clark, Hugh M., serves Whig party in Sampson County, 351.
Clark, John, is vestryman in Bath, 370n; purchases Beaufort land, 370n.
Clark, Joseph D., his Beastly Folklore is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.

XUM

Clark, Madeline, her Brown Marsh Presbyterian Church, briefly reviewed, 110.
Clark, Stephen F., is overseer on Manigault rice plantation, 402, 405, 407.
Clark, Walter, is nominated for state justiceship by Populists, 261; is pleased with nomination on Populist ticket, 262; opinion of, in Harris v. Scarborough, noted, 254; opposition to nomination of, at Republican state convention, noted, 264.
Clarke, Charlotte E., letters to, from Samuel H. Perkins, published, 55-79, passim; marries Samuel H. Perkins, 81.
Clarke, Haswell C., is emissary between General Butler and Admiral Porter, 33.
Clay, Henry, Andrews portrait of, pictured, 126; becomes idol of N.C. Whigs, 127-128; becomes secretary of state in cabinet of John Quincy Adams, 117; distribution bill of, is important plank in Whig platform, 126-127; his American System, is acceptable to N.C. Whigs after 1833, 127; is bypassed by Whigs in 1840 as presidential candidate, 125n; is presidential candidate of National Republican party in 1832, 117; is supported by Raleigh Register, 120; is supported by Sampson County Whigs, 354; Land Bill of, described, 350n; loses Sampson County vote, 354n; nullification views of, are supported by Griffith J. McRee, 10; wins Whig vote in N.C., in 1844, 128.
Clayton, James, transfers land to John Jones, 52n.
Cleaver, Bill, his Lady Ellen Grae, briefly discussed, 133.
Cleaver, Vera, her Lady Ellen Grae, briefly discussed, 133.
Clemenceau, Georges, his American Reconstruction, 1865-1870, republication of, briefly reviewed, 232.
Clemens, E., builds new hotel in Asheville, 294; is owner of Eagle Hotel, Asheville, 291.
Clemens, Mrs. E., welcomes Moravian travelers, 291.
Clement, John, purchases Beaufort land, 377.
Cleveland, Grover, policies of, alienate voters, 246; wins 1892 presidential electoral vote in N.C., 244.
Cleveland County, gives majority vote to Al Smith, 49; is called anti-Catholic by W. J. Cash, 42; is home of W. J. Cash, 40-50, passim.
Cleveland Press (Shelby), editorship of, by W. J. Cash, discussed, 40-50, passim; history of, 40-50, passim.
Cleveland Star (Shelby), is competitor of Cleveland Press, 45; refuses to join anti-Smith faction, 45.
Clifton, James M., his "A Half-Century of a Georgia Rice Plantation," 388-415.
Clifton, John L., is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Clinard, Frank, is visited by Moravian campers at Hickory, 1874, 300.
Clingman, Thomas L., brief sketch of, 296n; his controversy with Charles Phillips, briefly described, 291n; is native of Huntsville, 283n.
Clingman's Dome, visit on, by Moravian campers, 1874, described, 296, 299.
Clingman's Peak. See Clingman's Dome.
Clinton, class antagonism there, is shown in criticism of schools, 363-364; is home of Charles Owen Augustus Monk, 366n; Whig party meetings there, described, 353, 354.
Clinton-Smithfield road, Archibald Monk owns plantations on, 343.
Clitherell, John, is to supervise building of fort at Beaufort Inlet, 381, 382.
Coates, Albert, What the University of North Carolina Meant to Me . . . , reviewed, 318.
Cogdell, George, is named to operate Core Creek ferry, 374.
Cogswell, Joseph Green, brief biographical sketch of, 5n; is friend and adviser to Griffith J. McRee, 5, 10, 18; is principal of Episcopal School of North Carolina, Raleigh, 5; pictured, 6.
Coker, C. F. W., reviews Research in Archives: The Use of Unpublished Primary Sources, 230.
Cole, participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 283.
Cole, William, serves as Beaufort commissioner, 385.
College of New Jersey, is attended by Griffith J. McRee, 6-7.
Colonial Forts of South Carolina, 1670-1775, briefly noted, 336.
Colton, Joel, his The Twentieth Century, briefly noted, 151.
Commissioners of public works, are subject of legislation, to account for use of funds, 346.
Common school system, curriculum of, in Sampson County, described, 359-360; establishment of, is sought by Archibald Monk, 347-349; legislation to establish, is passed, 349; problems of, in antebellum period, discussed, 358-364, passim.
Company Shops. See Burlington.
Compromise Tariff of 1833, does not satisfy nullifiers, 118; establishes more equitable tariff rates, 127.
Confederate Army, is supplied through port of Wilmington, 24.
Confederate Navy Department, employs Griffith J. McRee as clerk, 23.
Confederate Negro: Virginia's Craftsmen and Military Laborers, 1861-1865, The, reviewed, 92.

Confederate Propaganda in Europe, 1861-1865, reviewed, 98.
Confederate Supply, reviewed, 97.
Connecticut, native of, serves as tutor in N.C., 1817-1818, 51-58, passim; virtues of, extolled by Samuel H. Perkins, 78.
Connor, Henry Groves, is nominated for state justiceship by Populists, 261; opposition to nomination of, at Republican state convention, noted, 264; refuses to accept Populist party nomination, 262.
Constitution (U. S.), significance of, in world history, discussed, 170-175, passim.
Constitution of 1776, provisions of, for representation in General Assembly, described, 122.
Constitutional convention (N.C.), calling of, is opposed by Archibald Monk, 347, by Sampson County voters, 347n.
Constitutional Convention of 1835, accomplishments of, discussed, 123-124.
Constitutional convention (U.S.), is sought by Archibald Monk, 1832, 346-347.
Continental Line, James Monk serves in, 339.
Cook, Mr., Moravian campers stop near home of, at Cool Spring, 301.
Cool Spring, Moravian campers stop near, 1874, 301.
Cooper, I. F., is overseer of Manigault rice plantation, 405.
Cooper, J. T., is overseer on Manigault rice plantation, 407.
Cooper, John, lives in Della Plains, 285.
Cooper River, proves suitable for rice cultivation, 388; "Silk Hope" plantation, is situated on, 393.
Coor, James, home of, New Bern, is acquired by Catholic Diocese of Raleigh, 70; pictured, 70.
Copeland, J. Isaac, his Democracy in the Old South and Other Essays by Fletcher Melvin Green, reviewed, 101.
Copeland, Helen, her This Snake is Good, briefly discussed, 132.
Core Creek, colonial road on, described, 374; ferry across, is to be operated by George Cogdell, 374.
Core Sound, area of, is made Carteret Precinct, 371-372; residents of, petition for precinct status, 371.
Corey, Jane, her Exploring the Seacoast of North Carolina, 133.
Corlew, Robert E., reviews Night Riders of Reelfoot Lake, 224; his Tennessee: A Short History, reviewed, 318.
Correspondence of James K. Polk, Volume I, 1817-1832, reviewed, 321.
"Corrupt bargain," of Adams and Clay, briefly described, 117.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, Sampson County, names committee to establish common school districts, 356-357.
Courthouses, in colonial Beaufort, described, 372, 373.
Cowles, Andrew D., letter of, criticizing Republican-Populist fusion, quoted, 268.
Cox, Moses, is named presidential elector in Sampson County, 342; is ordered to appoint slave patrols, 345n.
Coxdell, Charles, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Coxdell, George, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Cranford, Fred B., his The Waldenses of Burke County, briefly reviewed, 110.
Craven County, portion of, becomes Johnston County, 241n; Superior Court sessions, 1818, described, 68-69, 74.
Craven Precinct, Richard Rustull is resident of, 371.
Crawford, Portia Naomi, her A Study of Negro Folksongs . . ., is a candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
Crawford, William Harris, is presidential nominee of N.C. Republicans, 116; pictured, 116; receives minority of votes in Sampson County, 342n; voting of North Carolinians for, discussed, 116.
Creation of the American Republic, 1776-1787, The, reviewed, 106.
Cressey, Levi, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Crist, Carrie, participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 1875, 302-309, passim.
Crist, William Carey, joins Moravian campers, on visit to Natural Bridge, Va., 1878, 309-311.
Crittenden, Christopher, accomplishments of, discussed, 152-153; his North Carolina Newspapers Before 1790, mentioned, 152; memorial award fund is established for, 130; originates American Revolution Bicentennial Commission, 138; supports N.C. Literary and Historical Association, 138.
Crockett, Va., is inhospitable to Moravian campers, 1875, 307.
Croll, Magdalene, is wife of Jehu Burkhart, 178.
Crooked Run Creek, Moravians camp on banks of, 1878, 309.
Croom, Hardy Bryan, collaborates with James Fergus McRee, 2.
Cross, Charles, his It Happened Here and From the Archives, briefly noted, 337.
Cross, Eleanor, her It Happened Here and From the Archives, briefly noted, 337.
Cross Creek Road, residence of James Monk is near, 339.
Crossties Through Carolina, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
Cullop, Charles P., his Confederate Propaganda in Europe, 1861-1865, reviewed, 98.
Culture Week, papers read during, published, 131-175.
Cumberland County, Archibald Monk set-

XUM

tles there, 1771, 339; is divided on 1835 constitutional reforms, 123; Whigs from, meet at Newton Grove, 355, seek railroad trunk line, 356.
Current, Richard N., his Reconstruction in Retrospect: Views from the Turn of the Century, reviewed, 100.
Currituck, district of, is served by S.P.G. missionary James Adams, 236.
Curry, Richard O., his Radicalism, Racism, and Party Realignment: The Border States During Reconstruction, reviewed, 419.
Curtis, Moses Ashley, collaborates with James Fergus McRee, 2.

D

Dagon, briefly described, 159; briefly discussed, 136.
Daily Herald (Wilmington), comments favorably on address by Griffith J. McRee, 19.
Daily Journal (Wilmington), memoriam in, on death of Griffith J. McRee, reproduced, 22; ridicules Union powder-boat operation at Fort Fisher, 37-38.
Dalton, N., Moravian campers pass home of, 1875, 304, 1878, 309.
Dan River, Moravian campers cross, 1880, 315.
Danbury, Moravians camp there, 1880, 315.
Dancy, John C., nominates Dockery for Republican state chairman, 263.
Daniel, W. Harrison, reviews Lutheranism in the Southeastern States, 1860-1886: A Social History, 328.
Daniels, Jonathan, his Washington Quadrille: The Dance Beside the Documents, briefly discussed, 147; is student of Frederick H. Koch, 157, 158; newspaper background of, described, 159.
Daniels, Josephus, campaigns for Al Smith, 49.
Danner. See also Tanner.
Danner, George, acquires Rowan County land, 202; sells Stokes County land to Jonathan Miller, 202.
Danville Pike Road, Va., is traveled over by Moravian campers, 1880, 313.
Dare County, history of, is recently published, 278n.
Dartmouth, Lord, agrees to representation of Beaufort in colonial assembly, 386.
Dave (slave), plans insurrection, 1831, 345; punishment of, described, 345.
Davenport Female College, Lenoir, briefly described, 287, 287n.
Davie County, career of John Alexander Lillington there, briefly described, 8; Moravian campers travel through, 1874, 302.
Davis, Burke, newspaper background of, briefly described, 159.
Davis, Caleb, operates ordinary on Cape Lookout Bay, 385n.
Davis, George, is antebellum historian, 1; is director of Wilmington Library Association, 5.
Davis, James, publishes Michael Smith's 1755 sermon at New Bern, 239.
Davis, Mr., Moravian campers stop at store of, near Mt. Airy, 1875, 309.
Davis, Richard Beale, reviews The Golden Age of Piracy, 105.
Davis, William, builds second Beaufort courthouse, 373.
Deaton, Jackie, his The Waldenses of Burke County, briefly reviewed, 110.
DeBow's Review, ignores publication of Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 21.
Declaration of Independence, initiates a revolutionary form of government, 161-175, passim.
Delafield, Richard, criticizes powder-boat scheme, 30.
Dellaplane, brief description of, 285n; Moravian campers visit, 285.
Democracy in the Old South and Other Essays by Fletcher Melvin Green, reviewed, 101.
Democratic party, in N.C., is split by factionalism, in 1890s, 247; is denounced in 1894 Populist platform, 261; Jacksonian policies alienate members of, 346, 349, 350; members of, assist in adoption of history for N.C. Negro schools, 266, 267; newspapers of, exploit dissension among Republicans in 1894 elections, 265-268; policies of, during Jacksonian era, lead to formation of Whig party, 115-129, passim; seeks Negro vote in 1894 state elections, 265; takes full slate of offices in 1892 election, 244.
Democrats, limited government policies of, alienate N.C. voters, 127.
"De Mowbray Smith," by Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 9.
Detweiler, Philip F., reviews Jefferson the President: First Term, 1801-1805, 426.
Devil's Den, Va., Moravian campers visit, 1875, 305, 1880, 313.
Dictionary of American Biography . . ., contributions to, made by Griffith J. McRee, 23.
Directory: Historical Societies and Agencies in the United States and Canada, availability of, described, 276n.
Dishong, Lewis, loses Sampson County election, 351n.
Dismal Swamp, is haven for runaway Negroes, 56, 62; journey through in 1817, by Samuel H. Perkins, described, 56, 58; produces juniper water, 58.
Dismal Swamp Canal, description of, by A. C. Brown, cited, 56n; description of, by Samuel H. Perkins, quoted, 56; is part of Intracoastal Waterway, 58n; proves inadequate during War of 1812, 56n.

Dismal Swamp Canal, The, briefly reviewed, 111.
Dissent, enduring role of, in America, discussed, 161-175, passim.
Disslin, Catherine, is first wife of Jacob Pfau, 181.
Distribution, of treasury surplus, is advocated by Whig party, 126-127, 350, 356; is opposed by Democratic party, 126n.
Divine right, principle of, is rejected through American Revolution, 163.
Dobbs, Arthur, changes site for fortification of Beaufort, 381-382; describes Cape Lookout as haven for privateers, 379, 382; meets with Beaufort fortification commissioners, 382; report of, on Cape Lookout, quoted, 382-383; report of, to S.P.G., 1762, quoted, 243; reports on state of religion in N.C., 1764, 238.
Dobbs County, creation of, noted, 241n.
Dockery, Alfred, is Whig gubernatorial candidate, 356n.
Dockery, Oliver H., is nominated for Republican state chairmanship, 263; joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260.
Dr. Alexander Garden of Charles Town, reviewed, 216.
Dod, Albert Baldwin, influence of, on character of Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 6-7.
Doherty, Herbert J., Jr., reviews Correspondence of James K. Polk. Volume I, 1817-1832, 322.
Donnell, Mary F., becomes second wife of Samuel H. Perkins, 81.
Douglas, Mary Peacock, reviews PTA Impact: 50 Years in North Carolina, 1919-1969, 91.
Douglas, Robert M., makes appeal for straight Republican ticket in 1894, 264.
Dragon Tree, The, briefly discussed, 133.
Drake, Francis S., contributions to his Dictionary of American Biography . . . , made by Griffith J. McRee, 23.
Drake, Sir Francis, visits Roanoke Island, 60n.
Drake, W. Magruder, reviews Confederate Propaganda in Europe, 1861-1865, 99.
Draughon, James R., is active in Sampson County Whig party, 353; is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Draughon, William C., is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Dudley, Edward B., gubernatorial candidacy of, is supported by Sampson County Whigs, 352; is elected Whig governor, 1836, 127.
Dudley, Thomas, superintends building of Beaufort prison, 379.
Duke University, creative writing classes there, of William Blackburn, briefly discussed, 158, 159; faculty member of, attacks antiprohibition newspapers, 48.
Duncan, Amos C., anti-Al Smith tactics of, are exposed, 47-48; is grand dragon of KKK, in 1928, 47.
Dunham's Creek, Archibald Monk is born near, 339.
Dunkard. See Dunkers.
Dunkers, Annual Meetings of, discussed, 180-200, passim; are accused of proselytizing among Salem Moravians, 188; artifacts of, pictured, 185, 189; beliefs of, as opposed to Universalism, quoted, 194-199; beliefs of, concerning oath-taking, described, 178-179, 194; comparison of beliefs of, with those of Moravians, 179-180; history of two eighteenth century congregations, 176-204, passim; pacifistic stance of, during American Revolution, described, 179, 194; rules from 1893 Church Manual of, reproduced, 179; service cups of, pictured, 185, 199; six settlements of, in N.C., listed, 203.
"Dunn Brown, Esq.," by Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 9-10.
Duplin County, inhabitants of, fear slave insurrection, 344; leader in slave insurrection is incarcerated there, 345; Whigs from, meet at Newton Grove, 355, seek railroad trunk line, 356.
Dutch Meeting House, is mentioned by Moravian diarist, 1880, 315.
Dutchman's Creek, Dunker congregation on, is led by Gasper Rowland, 203; is crossed by Moravian campers, 301.

E

Eagle Hotel, Asheville, Moravian campers stop at, 291, 294; pictured, 292.
Ear in Bartram's Tree, An, briefly discussed, 137.
Earl of Granville, makes land grant to John Miller, Sr., 184, 202, to Squire Boone, 202.
Early, Mrs. Jim, Moravian campers pass home of, near Hillsville, Va., 1875, 309.
Early, John, Moravian campers stop at home of, at Hillsville, Va., 1875, 305, 308, 1878, 309-310, 1880, 313.
Early Rising, briefly discussed, 136-137.
"East Hermitage," Savannah River, Ga., described, 398-399; is acquired by Charles Manigault, 398; is destroyed by Sherman's army, 411.
Easting, John, serves as Beaufort commissioner, 385.
Eastern counties, control N.C. politics into 1830s, 122-123.
Eaves, John Baxter, agrees to local accommodation with fusionists, 250; brief sketch of, 244; his feud with John James Mott, splits Republican party, 252, 254; indirectly influences Populist party nominations, 1894, 262; letter of, to Schuyler S. Olds, quoted, 250; loses chairmanship of Republican State Executive Committee, 263; opposes premature call of Republican state convention, 257; opposition of, to Republican-Populist fusion, discussed, 244-269, passim; removal of, as state Republican chairman, is sought by fusionists, 254; supports establishment of Agricultural and Mechanical College, Raleigh, 244.

XUM

Ebert, Charles, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.

Economics, of crop production on Lake Mattamuskeet plantation, described, 77; of rice cultivation, in nineteenth century South, discussed, 388-415, passim; productivity of Archibald Monk plantation, 1850, 1860, itemized, 343n.

Economy, status of, in N.C. in 1830s, discussed, 121-122.

Eden, Charles, report of, on state of religion in N.C., described, 236.

Edentor [illegible]idents of, show little interest in Li[illegible] [illegible]orrespondence of James Iredell, 21.

Eddy, Richard, is quoted, concerning Universalist beliefs of John Ham, 192.

Education, establishment of common school system, is sought by Archibald Monk, 347-349; improvement of, in N.C., is key to Whig popularity, 127; status of, in N.C. in 1830s, discussed, 122.

Edwards, Morgan, writings of, concerning Dunkers, cited, 177, 185, 193, 203.

Election law of 1889, allows Democrats to manipulate elections, 248.

Elizabeth City, description of, by Samuel H. Perkins, quoted, 55, 58.

Elkins, Bertie Cash, is sister of W. J. Cash, 49n.

Ella and Annie, blockade-runner, is captured by U.S.S. Niphon, 36.

Elliot, John G., teaches in Sampson County, 363.

Ellis, John W., wins gubernatorial election, 352n.

Ellison, Judith DuPree, her Index and Abtracts of Deeds of Record of Pitt County (vol. 3), briefly reviewed, 111.

Empire and Interest: The American Colonies and the Politics of Mercantilism, reviewed, 332.

English, use of, in Dunker religious services, mentioned, 200.

English, James W., his Love My Children: The Education of a Teacher, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.

Ennitt, Edmund, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.

Ens Creek. See also South Fork, Muddy Creek.

Ens Creek, land on, purchased by Dunkers, 176.

Ephrata, Pa., Dunker settlement there, described, 191.

Episcopal School of N.C., Raleigh, brief history of, 5n; is attended by Griffith J. McRee, 5.

"Era of Good Feeling," evidence of, in N.C., 1817-1818, described by Yankee tutor, 51-85, passim.

Everard, Richard, reports on state of religion in N.C., 1726, 236.

Everlasting Hills, 290.

Ewalds, Mr., is hospitable to Moravian campers at Wytheville, Va., 1875, 308.

Ewarrie (Uwharrie) River, Dunker congregation on, is led by Jacob Stutzman, 203.

Ewart, Hamilton G., is Republican candidate for U. S. Senate, 1894, 263n; joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260; presides over Republican party caucus, 263; withdraws nomination of Virgil S. Lusk, on 1894 Populist ticket, 261-262.

Exploring the Seacoast of North Carolina, briefly discussed, 133.

F

Facts of Reconstruction, The, reviewed, 325.

Faircloth, W. T., is nominated for state chief justice by Populists, 261, by Republicans, 261.

Fairfield, Hyde County, North Lake Church there, is visited by Baptist missionary, 71n.

Fairfield Primitive Baptist Church, Hyde County, pictured, 72.

Faison, William, is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.

Fancy Gap, Va., is described by Moravian diarist, 1875, 304, 1878, 309.

Farish, Hunter Dickinson, his The Circuit Rider Dismounts: A Social History of Southern Methodism, 1865-1900, republication of, briefly reviewed, 232.

Farmers' Alliance, Business Agency of, is restricted by Democratic party legislation, 255; hears address of Marion Butler at Greensboro, 256; Marion Butler is national chairman of, 255.

Farragut, David G., prepares papers for Union naval attack on Fort Fisher, 26; refuses to accept command of North Atlantic Squadron, 25.

Fauna, of eastern N.C., 1817-1818, described, 55-85, passim.

Faw. See also Pfau.

Faw, Abraham, is son of Isaac Faw, Sr., 183.

Faw, Amos, pictured, 184; tuning fork of, pictured, 189.

Faw, David, is son of Isaac Faw, Sr., 183.

Faw, Elizabeth, is daughter of Isaac and Magdalene Faw, 183.

Faw, Henry, is son of Isaac Faw, Sr., 183.

Faw, Isaac, Jr., is son of Isaac and Magdalene Faw, 183.

Faw, Isaac, Sr., assumes leadership of Fraternity Church of the Brethren, 183; land of, is shown on 1779 Moravian map, 182; leases Moravian lands, 182-183; marries Magdalene Burkhart, 183, 187; name of, is found on 1779 Moravian map, 182; names of eight children of, listed, 183; saves Fraternity Church of the Brethren from Universalist heresy, 200.

Faw, Jacob, buys land on Buffalo Creek, 201; death of, 183; family of, is listed on 1790 census, 183; is son of Isaac and Magdalene Faw, 183; land of, is shown on 1779 Moravian map, 182; name of, is found in a 1780 Moravian tax list, 182.

Faw, Jacob, Jr., takes over father's lease on Moravian lands, 182-183.

Faw, Maria, marries Thomas Hanes, 188.

Faw, Mary, is daughter of Isaac Faw, Sr., 183.

Faw, Nancy, is daughter of Isaac Faw, Sr., 183.

Faw, Rufus C., pictured, 184.

Faw family, early home of, near Winston-Salem, pictured, 184.

Fawcett, Mr., is principal of Lenoir male academy, 1874, 287.

Fayetteville, Archibald Monk makes residence there, 340-341; location of capital there, is sought by easterners, 347.

Fayetteville Academy, curriculum of, described, 340; is attended by Archibald Monk, 340.

Fayetteville Observer, attacks Andrew Jackson over closing of Second Bank of U.S., 119; letter in, supporting Hugh L. White candidacy, quoted, 351n.

Fayetteville Presbytery, ordains Angus Currie McNeill, 366n.

Fayetteville Woman's Club, restores Second Bank of U. S. building, 119.

Feast of Fat Things, A, briefly discussed, 136.

Featherstonhaugh, George, republication of his A Canoe Voyage Up the Minnay Sotor, noted, 432.

Federal government, burden of, on southern states, is recognized by Griffith J. McRee, 17.

Federalist party, reasons for decline of, noted, 115-116.

Federalists, support candidacy of Andrew Jackson in 1824, 116; support Jackson's nationalistic policies, 117-118.

Fellowship Forum, official organ of KKK, is criticized by W. J. Cash, 46, 47.

Ferguson, "Bricky Jack," gives lodging to Moravian campers, 1874, 285-286.

Fever, prevalence of, in eastern N.C., described, 71, 75, 77, 78; on rice plantations, discussed, 401-402.

Fike, Cecil W., serves as pastor of Fraternity Church of the Brethren, Winston-Salem, 199, 204.

Fillmore, Millard, Sampson County Whigs endorse, 355n.

Finger, S. M., assists Edward A. Johnson in editing Negro school history, 266, 267.

Fisher, Emma, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.

Fisher, Fleda. See Fisher, Harriet Elfleda.

Fisher, Frances, literary career of, briefly described, 157.

Fisher, Harriet Elfleda, participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 1874, 282-302.

First Settlers of South Carolina, 1670-1680, briefly reviewed, 231.

First Voyage and Settlement at Charles Town, 1670-1680, The, briefly noted, 336.

Fitzhugh, George, proslavery arguments of, are eschewed by Griffith J. McRee, 7.

Flagstone Walk, A, briefly discussed, 136.

Flaherty, David H., his For the Colony in Virginea Britannia Laws Divine, Morall and Martiall, etc., reviewed, 91.

Flat Rock, Va., Annual Meeting of Dunkers, 1794, held there, 194, 198.

Flat Rock Church of the Brethren, history of, discussed, 184-204, passim.

Fleming, Alexander, land of, is acquired by Archibald Monk, 342.

Flora, of eastern N.C., 1817-1818, described, 55-85, passim; of Virginia, 1875-1880, 302-316, passim; of western N.C., 1874-1880, 282-316, passim.

Floral College, Robeson County, is attended by Jane Katherine Monk, 366n.

Fogle, Adelaide, brief sketch of, 282n; falls from horse on Mount Mitchell, 298; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-311, passim.

Fogle, Augustus Gottlieb, brief sketch of, 282n; is father of Mary Ann Fogle, 282n; leads Moravian mountain excursions, 282-316, passim; pictured, 283, 284.

Fogle, Charles A., marries Antoinette Butner, 282n; operates mill, 282n, 311n.

Fogle, John Daniel, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.

Fogle, Mary Ann, arrives at Natural Bridge, Va., 310; becomes ill on camping trip, 288; brief sketch of, 282n; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-309, passim; returns from Hope, Indiana, 1878, 309, 310.

Folmsbee, Stanley J., his Tennessee: A Short History, reviewed, 318.

For the Colony in Virginea Britannia Laws Divine, Morall and Martiall, etc., reviewed, 91.

Forsyth County, nineteenth century residents of, participate in mountain excursions, 281-316, passim.

Forest City, KKK grand dragon resides there, in 1928, 47.

XUM

Fort Fisher, described, 25; first battle of, discussed, 24-39, passim.
"Found: The Missing Editorship of W. J. Cash," 40-50.
"Foundations of the Whig Party in North Carolina: A Synthesis and a Modest Proposal, The," 115-129.
Fourth Congressional District, Edward A. Johnson leads Republicans in, 267.
Fouts, is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 201.
Fox, Gustavus V., gives enthusiastic support for powder-boat scheme, 28, 30; makes excuses for support of powder-boat scheme, 39; seeks army support, for Union naval attack on Wilmington, 25-26, 31.
Frank, Martin, daughter of, is wife of John Stanly, 69n.
Franklin, Benjamin, supports local autonomy in government, 162, 166.
Franklin Co., Va., Dunker meeting there, mentioned, 197.
Franklin Scientific and Military Institute, Duplin County, is attended by Archibald Monk's children, 366n.
Fraser, John, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Fraternity Church of the Brethren, Winston-Salem, is led by Jehu Burkhart, 203; is oldest continuing N.C. Dunker congregation, 176-204; passim; members of, pictured, 191; pictured, 196; service cups of, pictured, 185, 199; survives under leadership of Faw and Burkhart families, 183, 200.
Freasure, Andrew, purchases Beaufort land, 377; sells Beaufort lot to John Harris, 376.
Frederickstown, Va., is temporary home of Jacob Pfau family, 182.
Free labor, use of, on Manigault rice plantations, following Civil War, described, 412-414.
Free society, necessity of divisiveness in, discussed, 161-175, passim.
French and Indian War, effect of, on Beaufort, discussed, 382-383; Moravians participate in, 179.
French Broad River, at Hot Springs, pictured, 293; is described by Moravian diarist, 1874, 291, 292.
French Revolution, leads to governmental repression in U.S., 172.
French Tradition in America, The, reviewed, 226.
Frenchman, describes colonial Beaufort, 1765, 378.
Frey, Christian, attends Dunker meeting, 178.
Friedberg, diarist there, records activities of Dunkers, 178; Francis Jacob Shore is farmer there, 281.
Fries, F. H., marries Anna Pauline de Schweinitz, 302n.
Fries, Henry E., brief sketch of, 282n; participates in Moravian mountain excursion 282-299, passim; returns to Salem by rail, 299.
From the Archives, briefly noted, 337.
Furches, David M., favors straight Republican ticket in 1894, 262; is nominated for state justiceship by Populists, 261, by Republicans, 261.
Fusionists, seek coalition of Republicans and Populists, in 1890s, 244-269, passim.

G

Gale, Christopher, builds houses on Beaufort lots, 370n; is resident of Bath, 370n; sells Beaufort lots to Thomas Lovick, 377.
Gambold, John, mission of, to Cherokees, mentioned, 188.
Gammon, Samuel R., Jr., his The Presidential Campaign of 1832, republication of, briefly noted, 232.
Garber, Paul, attacks anti-prohibition newspapers, 48; is criticized by W. J. Cash, 48.
Garden, Alexander, report of, on activities of John Boyd, quoted, 237.
Garden Mountain, Va., Moravian campers cross, 1875, 307.
Gardner, Jim, his A Time to Speak, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
Gardner, O. Max, gubernatorial candidacy of, is supported by W. J. Cash, 44-45; is brother-in-law of Clyde R. Hoey, 45; wins governorship race in 1928, 49.
Garner, Edward Dixon, his When Men and Mountains Meet, briefly discussed, 137.
Garzia, John, plight of widow of, described by Clement Hall, 237-238, serves as Anglican missionary in N.C., 237.
Gaston, Alexander F., marries Eliza Jones, 83n.
Gaston, Eliza W., hospitality of, described, 69-70.
Gaston, Paul M., his The New South Creed: A Study in Southern Mythmaking, reviewed, 422.
Gaston, William, courtroom manner of, described by Samuel H. Perkins, 68-69; description of, by John Stanly, quoted, 69n, by Richard H. Battle, quoted, 68n; dinner party of, 1818, described by Samuel H. Perkins, 69; home of, New Bern, is acquired by Catholic Diocese of Raleigh, 70, pictured, 70; is quoted, concerning influence of political parties in gubernatorial elections, 124; predicts creation of a southern confederacy, 118n.
Gaston, Mrs. William, description of, 1818, 69-70.
Gaybird, Mr., Moravians camp near home of, 1874, 284.
General Assembly, Alexander McRae is 1844 Whig candidate for, 16; Archibald Monk represents Sampson County in, 344-351; biennial meetings of, established by Convention of 1835, 123; Griffith J. McRee is 1844 Whig candidate for, 16; passes act to regulate and improve Beaufort, 385; reform in representation in, discussed, 122-123.

Generous Man, The, briefly described, 159.

George (slave), is suspected of leading insurrection, 62n; is willed to Eliza Jones, 52, 83.

George W. Cable: The Life and Times of a Southern Heretic, reviewed. 227.

Georgetown, S.C., is important rice-growing area, 389n.

Georgetown County, S.C., activities there, of Michael Smith, described, 238-239.

Georgia, development of rice plantations there, described, 394; increase of rice production in, noted, 389n; Manigault rice plantation shown on map of, 404; rice plantation of, on Manigaults' Savannah River plantations, discussed, 394-415, passim.

Gerber, John, brings news of preaching of Universalist doctrines in N.C., 194.

German, is language of eighteenth century Dunkers, 186, 200.

German Baptist Brethren. See Dunkers.

Germans, various settlements of, in N.C., discussed, 176-204, passim.

Gerrymandering, in N.C., accomplished by Whigs and Democrats, 128.

Ghost Tales of the Uwharries, 151.

Gibbany, Mr., welcomes Moravian campers at Wytheville, Va., 1875, 307.

Gibbs, Richard F., his "In Quest of a Spiritual Renaissance," 138-144.

Gibson, Edmund, receives reports on state of religion in N.C., 1726, 236.

Giersch, George, visits Jehu Burkhart, 187.

Gilbert, John, his Crossties Through Carolina, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.

Gillett, Mary, her Bugles at the Border, briefly discussed, 132; pictured, 134; wins AAUW Juvenile Literature Award, 134.

Gillikin, Thomas, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.

Glass, Mr., serves as Black Mountain guide, for Moravian campers, 1874, 294-299, passim.

Glenda, briefly discussed, 133.

God Reigns: Expository Studies in the Prophecy of Isaiah, 151.

Godfrey, James, his review of nonfiction, 1967-1968, briefly discussed, 145.

Goff, Richard D., his Confederate Supply, reviewed, 97.

Golden, Harry, life and career of, discussed, 146-147; makes contribution to literature of N.C., 159.

Golden Age of Piracy, The, reviewed, 104.

Golden Enemy, The, briefly discussed, 132.

Goldsboro, Griffith J. McRee serves in Confederate army depot there, 23.

Good Marriages Grow: A Book for Wives, 151.

Gordon, William, letter of, describing Bath, 1709, quoted, 233n; serves briefly as Anglican missionary in N.C., 236.

Goshen Methodist Church, Sampson County, Archibald Monk's children are members of, 366n.

Governor, popular election of, for two-year term, provided by Convention of 1835, 123.

"Gowrie," Savannah River, Ga., described, 396, 398; detail of, shown on map, 404; is acquired by Charles Manigault, 396; is destroyed by Sherman's army, 411; is part of wildlife refuge, 415n; map of, reproduced, 404; pictured, 403; rice cultivation on, discussed, 396-415, passim.

Grace (slave), is willed to Eliza Jones, 52, 83.

Graham, James, advises Whig candidates on campaign tactics, 125n; his description of 1840 Whig convention in Baltimore, quoted, 125.

Graham, William A., is antebellum historian, 1; is assisted by Joseph Green Cogswell in acquisition of books, 6; is elected Whig governor, 1845, 127; is supported by Sampson County Whigs, 355; record of votes for, in Sampson County, noted, 354n, 355.

Grant, Hiram L., campaigns for Republican congressional seat, 254n; joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260; leads fusionists at Republican state convention, 1894, 263; letter of, to state Republicans, 1894, quoted, 258-259; nomination of, in congressional race, is sought by Marion Butler, 266n; pressures Eaves to call Republican strategy meeting, 258.

Grant, Ulysses S., agrees to give army support for Union naval attack on Wilmington, 25, 31; anticipates capitulation of Fort Fisher, 26; is skeptical of powder-boat scheme, 30; procrastinates in supplying army support for Union naval attack on Fort Fisher, 27.

Grantham, Dewey W., reviews Walter Hines Page: Ambassador to the Court St. James's, 429.

Granville, Beville, serves as Anglican missionary in N.C., 237.

Granville County, has a majority of Whig voters, 129; votes for ratification of Constitution of 1835, 123.

Great Friendship: Soviet Historians of the Non-Russian Nationalities, The, briefly discussed, 148.

Great Slave Narratives, briefly reviewed, 112.

Green, Fletcher Melvin, his Democracy in the Old South and Other Essays . . . , reviewed, 101.

Green, James Leo, his God Reigns: Expository Studies in the Prophecy of Isaiah, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.

Green, Paul, contribution of, to literary arts, briefly described, 157-158; his Texas, briefly discussed, 135; his Words and Ways . . . , briefly noted, 150; is student of Frederick H. Koch, 157; pictured, 158.
Greene, Elton, his The Tuscarora Language, briefly noted, 109.
Greene, Nathanael, his encounter with Griffith John McRee, described, 20.
Greene County, has a majority of Whig voters, 129.
Greensboro, is represented by Robert M. Douglas at Republican state convention, 264; Marion Butler addresses Farmers' Alliance there, 256; residents of, refuse subscription to Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 21.
Greensboro Daily News, 159.
Greenville, is home of Harry Skinner, 261.
Gregory, Ross, his Walter Hines Page: Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, reviewed, 428.
Grenville, Sir Richard, discovers Lake Mattamuskeet, 60n.
"Griffith John McRee: An Unromantic Historian of the Old South," 1-23.
Griffith, Lucille, her Letters from Alabama, 1817-1822, reviewed, 417.
Grove (Groff), is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 200.
Grubbs, Frank L., Jr., reviews Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States: Lyndon B. Johnson . . . . January 1 to June 30, 1968 . . . . July 1, 1968, to January 20, 1969, 429.
Grunert, Adelaide Louise Brietz, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Grunert, Franz, antics of, on Black Mountain excursion, described, 301; brief sketch of, 282n; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282.
Grunert, Maximilian E., brief sketch of, 282n, 311n.
Grunert, William, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Guggenheim Fellowship, applications for, by W. J. Cash, discussed, 40-44, passim.
Guide Book: Colonial Edenton and Countryside, Edenton, North Carolina, briefly reviewed, 431.
Guide to the Study and Reading of North Carolina History, A, briefly reviewed, 335.
Guilford County, is home of Eli W. Caruthers, 14; votes for William H. Crawford, 116.
Guion, Ann Marie, is wife of Hugh Jones, 53.
Guion, Ferebee Pugh Lee, daughter of, marries Hugh Jones, 53.
Guion, Isaac Lee, daughter of, marries Hugh Jones, 53; represents New Bern at convention of Episcopal church, 1794, 53n; signs marriage bond for Hugh Jones and Ann Marie Guion, 53n.
Guion, John W., is appointed guardian of Hugh Jones's children, 83; is legatee of Hugh Jones, 83; is named an executor of will of Hugh Jones, 83.
Guthry, Samuel, operates ferry between Beaufort and Cape Lookout, 383, 385.

H

Habersham, Fannie, is wife of Louis Manigault, 413n.
Habersham and Son, Savannah, Ga., are factors for Manigaults, 400, 401, 410.
Hale, Edward J., letter to, concerning presidential candidacy of Hugh L. White, quoted, 351n.
"Half-Century of a Georgia Rice Plantation, A," 388-415.
Halifax County, has a majority of Whig voters, 129; is divided on 1835 constitutional reforms, 123.
Hall, Clement, reports on plight of John Garzia's widow, 237-238.
Hall, Neal, Moravian campers stop at farm of, 1874, 302.
Ham, Daniel, is named in will of Joseph Ham, 191.
Ham, Ezekiel, is named in will of Joseph Ham, 191; sells lands to Thomas Ham, 191.
Ham, F. Gerald, his Records of the Socialist Labor Party of America: Guide to a Microfilm Edition, briefly noted, 432.
Ham, Jacob, is named in will of Joseph Ham, 191.
Ham, John, discussion of beliefs of, by Richard Eddy, quoted, 192; espouses Universalist doctrines, 190-199, passim; is put out of Dunker fellowship, 192-199, passim; land purchases of, in Dunker settlements, described, 191-192; will of, probated, 192.
Ham, John, Jr., receives land under father's will, 192.
Ham, Joseph, estate of, described, 191.
Ham, Seth, is named in will of Joseph Ham, 191.
Ham, Thomas, is named in will of Joseph Ham, 191.
Ham, William, receives land under will of John Ham, 192.
Hamilton, Alexander, conservative ideas of, discussed, 170-173.
Hamilton, Horatio, purchases Sparks Creek acreage from Jonathan Miller, 184.
Hamilton, Kenneth G., his Records of the Moravians in North Carolina. Vol. XI. 1852-1879, reviewed, 86.
Hampton, Frank, is strategist for Anti-Smith faction, 44.
Hampton Roads, Va., Union fleet assembles

there, preparatory to assault on Fort Fisher, 26-27, 31.
Hamptonville, brief description of, 284n; Moravian campers visit, 1874, 284.
Han, Adam, is member of Ephrata, Pa., Dunker settlement, 191.
Han, George, death of, at Ephrata, Pa., 191.
Hancock, M. A., his Menace on the Mountain, briefly discussed, 132.
Hanes, Thomas, marries Maria Faw, 190; religious beliefs of, described, 190.
Happy Valley, Moravian campers pass through, 1874, 286.
Hardin, W. H., conducts academy in Pittsboro, 5.
Harding, Thomas, is vestryman in Bath, 370n; purchases Beaufort land, 370n.
Hargrove, Aaron, is father of Harriet Hargrove Monk, 341.
Hargrove, Carr, is bondsman for Archibald Monk, 357.
Hargrove, Harriet, becomes wife of Archibald Monk, 341.
Hargrove, Jane (Carr), is mother of Harriet Hargrove Monk, 341.
Hariot, Thomas, his A Briefe and True Report of the New Found Land of Virginia, briefly described, 155, republication of, noted, 109.
Harnett, Cornelius, James Fergus McRee lives on estate of, 14.
Harper, Josephine L., her Records of the Socialist Labor Party of America: Guide to a Microfilm Edition, briefly noted, 432.
Harrell, Irene, her Good Marriages Grow: A Book for Wives, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
Harris, Bernice Kelly, is student of Frederick H. Koch, 157, 158.
Harris, Bertha, her Catching Saradove, briefly discussed, 136; makes contribution to literature of N.C., 160.
Harris, J. C. L., joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260.
Harris, John, purchases Beaufort lot from Andrew Freasure, 377.
Harris v. Scarborough, 1893, state supreme court decision in, upholds partisan election law, 254.
Harris, William C., his The Facts of Reconstruction, reviewed, 325.
Harrison, Benjamin, loses 1892 presidential electoral vote in N.C., 244.
Harrison, George P., his management of Manigault rice plantation, described, 412; leases Manigault rice plantation, 412-413.
Harrison, William Henry, defamatory circular about, described, 353n; is selected over Clay for presidential candidacy, 125n; presidential candidacy of, is supported by N.C. Whigs, 353-354; wins Whig vote in N.C., 1840, 128.
Harvey, Richard, Jr., is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Hassler, William W., reviews Prefaces to History, 335.
Hatch, Edmund, advertises for runaway slave, 63.
Hatch, Joseph, advertises for runaway slave, 63.
Hatch, Mr., mistreats slaves, 64.
Hatten, John, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Haunton, Richard H., reviews Oratory in the Old South, 1828-1860, 418.
Hauser, Agnes, brief sketch of, 282n; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-302, 311-316, passim.
Hausertown, is nickname for Bethania, 316.
Havener, Vance, his It is Toward Evening, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
Hawkins, Joshua, sells land on Yadkin River to John Ham, 192.
Hawkins, M. T., publishes circular critical of William Henry Harrison, 353n.
Hawks, Cicero, marries Ann Jones, 85n.
Hawks, Francis Lister, is antebellum historian, 1.
Haynes, James, is overseer on Manigault rice plantation, 401, 405.
Hege, Susan Pauline, is second wife of Samuel Timothy Mickey, 312n.
Heisler, Elizabeth, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Helper, Hinton Rowan, his The Impending Crisis in the South . . . , briefly described, 157.
Hemphill, W. Edwin, his The Papers of John C. Calhoun. Vol. IV, 1819-1820, reviewed, 216.
Hendersonville Times, discusses Republican-Populist fusion issue, 250.
Hendricks, John, emigrates to Missouri and Ohio, 204.
Henry, Joseph, lectures of, are briefly denied Griffith J. McRee, 7.
Hentz, Caroline Lee, republication of her The Planter's Northern Bride, briefly noted, 431.
Herman, John Gottlieb, identified, 313n.
Herndon, G. Melvin, his William Tatham and the Culture of Tobacco, reviewed, 220.
Heron, Benjamin, brief sketch of, 242n; defends Michael Smith against charges by S.P.G., 242; may have employed Michael Smith as chaplain, 243.
Heuer. See Heyer.
Heyer. See also Hire.
Heyer, Elizabeth, death of, 186.
Heyer, Leonard, buys land from Jehu Burkhart, 186, 190; emigrates to Ohio, 186.
Heyer, Rudy, assists Jacob Pfau family, in move to Va., 182; daughter of, marries Abraham Burkhart, 186; Dunker baptizing near home of, mentioned, 190.

XUM

Heyward, Daniel, leases "Gowrie," 413.
Heyward, Elizabeth, becomes wife of Charles Manigault, 394.
Heyward, James B., Jr., is employed as agent at "Gowrie," by Louis Manigault, 413-414; leases "Gowrie," 415.
Heyward, Nathaniel, brief sketch of, 393n; gives "Marshlands" to Elizabeth and Charles Manigault, 394; gives "Silk Hope" to Elizabeth and Charles Manigault, 394; is South's most successful rice planter, 389n; purchases "Silk Hope," 393.
Hickory, is described by Moravian campers, 1874, 300.
Higginbotham, Don, reviews The Creation of the American Republic, 1776-1787, 107.
Hill, Joe, is driver for Moravian mountain excursion, 302-311, passim.
Hill, Joseph Alston, trains Griffith J. McRee in law, 3.
Hill, Mr., of Kinston, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Hill, Mrs., of Kinston, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Hill, William, brief sketch of, 2; death of, is attributed to quackery, 19; letter book of, inspires Griffith J. McRee, 14.
Hill, William H., brief sketch of, 2.
Hillsborough Recorder, attacks Andrew Johnson on closing of Second Bank of U.S., 119.
Hillsville, Va., is described by Moravian diarist, 1875, 305, 309; mentioned, 1878, 311.
Hinckle, Mr., visits Moravian campers, near Island Ford, 1874, 301.
Hire. See also Heyer.
Hire, Barbara, is mother of eleven children, 186.
Hire, Catherine, marries Abraham Burkhart, 186.
Hire, Isaac, buys land from Jehu Burkhart, 186; emigrates to Ohio, 186.
Historical organizations, directory of state, county, and local, is published by Department of Archives and History, 276n.
Historical Society of Pennsylvania, owns journal of Samuel H. Perkins, 54, 66.
Historical writing, in antebellum N.C., discussed, 1-23, passim.
History of Pleasant Hill Methodist Church, briefly reviewed, 336.
History of the American Revolution, A, briefly discussed, 147-148.
History of the North Carolina Supreme Court Library, briefly reviewed, 335.
Hoey, Clyde R., campaigns for Al Smith, 45; is brother-in-law of O. Max Gardner, 45; is founder of Cleveland Star (Shelby), 45n.
Hoffmann, William S., attributes Democratic party downfall to distribution question, 126n; reviews The People in Power: Courthouse and Statehouse in the Lower South, 1850-1860, 100.
Hoke, Michael, wins over William A. Graham in Sampson County, 354n.
Holbrook, Milly, is named in will of Joseph Ham, 191.
Holden, William W., recommends presidential pardon for Archibald Monk, 369.
Holland, Mary, is granddaughter of R. P. Lineback, 286.
Holman, Widow, Moravian campers stop at home of, in Davie County, 1874, 301.
Holton, Alfred Eugene, is elected to Republican State Executive Committee chairmanship, 263; is given control of 1894 Republican judiciary nominations, 264.
Hooper, Archibald MacLaine, is editor of Cape Fear Recorder, 3; is father of Johnson Jones Hooper, 5; is friend and mentor of Griffith J. McRee, 3; memoir of, by Griffith J. McRee, quoted, 8.
Hooper, Ernest, reviews Caldwell and Company: A Southern Financial Empire, 332.
Hooper, Johnson Jones, is creator of literary character, Simon Suggs, 5.
Hooper, William, description of, by Griffith J. McRee, quoted, 18; information from, is sought by Griffith J. McRee, 15.
Hoover, Herbert, opposes Al Smith in 1928 presidential campaign, 44, 49; wins majority vote in N.C., 49.
Hope, baptisms of Moravian converts there, described, 188.
Hope, Indiana, Mary Ann Fogle returns from, 309, 310.
Hope Church, Moravian campers stop at, 1874, 302.
Hope of Liberty, The, is first book by Negro published in South, 156.
Horne, Hardy, is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Horton, George Moses, literary career of, briefly described, 156.
Hoskins, Dora, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Hot Springs, brief description of, 292n; is destination of 1874 Moravian camping excursion, 282; Moravian travelers camp near, 292, 293.
House of Commons, Archibald Monk represents Sampson County in, 344-351; reappointment of, by Convention of 1835, described, 122-123.
Howard University: The First Hundred Years, 1867-1967, reviewed, 328.
Hubert Walter, Lord of Canterbury and Lord of England, briefly discussed, 149.
Hubbell, Jay, his assessment of literature in Old South, described, 20.
Huhta, James K., reviews More Landmarks of Tennessee History, 321.
Hulford, Joseph, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.

Hunt, Charles, charters Huntsville, 1792, 283n.
Hunter, C. L., his Sketches of Western North Carolina . . . , briefly reviewed, 336.
Hunting, in Hyde County, 1817, 1818, described, 66, 74.
Hunting Creek, is crossed by Moravian campers, 301; land on, is purchased by John Ham, 191, 192.
Huntsinger, Jacob, is husband of Mary Burkhart, 187; moves from Ashe County to Ohio, 187.
Huntsville, described by Moravian excursionists, 1874, 283.
Hutton, James, sells Moravian land to Jacob Schott (Schutz), 176.
Huwaren. See Uwharrie.
Hyde County, experiences of Yankee tutor there, 1817-1818, described, discussed, 51-85, passim; fertility of soil of, described, 64, 65n.
Hygeia Hotel, Va., advertises Dismal Swamp juniper water, 58n.
Hyman, Mac, is student of William M. Blackburn, 158, 159.
Hymnals, used by Dunkers, pictured, 189.

I

Illnesses, among slaves, on Manigault rice plantations, discussed, 401-402, 411.
Illustrations: Adams, John Quincy, 116; advertisements for runaway slaves, 63; Alden, John R., 148; Alexander's, resort spa, 292; Ann Street Cemetery, Beaufort, cover, autumn issue, 375; Asheville, 1891 map of, 295; Baum, Thomas B., home of, on Lake Mattamuskeet, 73; Beaufort, 1882 map of, 384; Biddle, Nicholas, 119; Blackburn, William Maxwell, 158; Bray, Thomas, 234; "Buffelo," by John Lawson, 156; Burrus, Allen, home of, on Lake Mattamuskeet, 73; Butler, Benjamin F., 29; Butler, Marion, 256; Calhoun, John C., 121; Cape Fear River, plantations on, 1725 to 1760, shown on map, 4; Carolina Comments, examples of, 273; Carteret, John, Earl of Granville, 372; "Gowrie," 403; Cartwright, Ezekiel, headstone of, 72; Cash, W. J., 41; Cheatham, Henry P., 265; Clay, Henry, Andrews portrait of, 126; Cogswell, Joseph Green, 6; Coor, James, house of, New Bern, 70; Crawford, William H., 116; Dunker communion cup, 199; Dunker foot washing tub, hand basin, communion cup, 185; Dunker hymnals, 189; Dunker tuning fork, 189; Eagle Hotel, Asheville, 292; Ella and Annie, 36; Fairfield Primitive Baptist Church, 72; Faw, Amos, 184, tuning fork of, 189; Faw, Rufus C., 184; Faw family home, Winston-Salem, 184; Fogle, Augustus Gottlieb, 283; Fraternity Church of the Brethren, Winston-Salem, 196, members of, 191; French Broad River, 293; Gaston, William, house of, New Bern, 70; Gillett, Mary Bledsoe, 134; Green, Paul, 158; Jackson, Andrew, 116, depicted in cartoon, 121, silhouette of, cover, spring issue; Jeffers, William N., 34; Jefferson, Thomas, 164; Johnson, Edward A., title page of textbook of, 266; Jolley, Harley E., 151; Jones, Hugh, notice of executors' sale of estate, 84; Koch, Frederick H., 158; Lake Mattamuskeet, scene on, cover, winter issue; Leak, R. H. W., 268; Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, portion of subscription list for, 20; Lineback (Leinback), R. P., 286; McRae, Alexander, broadside of, for legislature, 16; McRee, Griffith J., broadside of, for legislature, 16, memoriam for, 22; Manigault, Charles, and family, 397; Manigault, Charles, Charleston town house of, 403, Georgia plantation of, shown on map, 404; Manigault, Gabriel, 397; Manigault, Gabriel, II, 397; map, Argyle Island, Georgia, 404; map, from Alfred Moore Waddell's A History of New Hanover County, reproduced, 4; Market House, Raleigh, 261; "Marshlands," 403; Metropolitan Hall, Raleigh, 261; Mitchell, Elisha, 298, grave marker of, 298; Mitchell's Falls, 299; Monk, Archibald, fence to cemetery of, 368, general store of, Sampson County, 342, legislative resolution of, 348, school questionnaire answered by, 361, title page of his Family Prayer Book, 365; Monk, Catherine, headstone of, Union Church cemetery, 368; Monk, James, headstone of, Union Church cemetery, 368; Moravian campers, ca. 1874, 284; Mott, John James, 262; Mount Mitchell, 290, observation tower on, 299; North Carolina, 1888 map of western portion of, 306; North Carolina Historical Review, covers of, 273; North Lake Church of Mattamuskeet, 72; Nuestra Senora de Cavadonga under attack by Centurion, 380; O. Henry, 158; Old Burying Ground, Beaufort, cover, autumn issue, 375; Owen, Guy, 134; Park Hotel, Raleigh, 260; Pilot Mountain, 303, 312; "Plantations on the Lower Caper Fear, 1725 to 1760," map of, 4; Porter, David D., 29; Porter, William Sydney, 158; Preston, Samuel W., 34; Price-Strother 1808 map, eastern portion of, 57; Pritchard, Jeter C., 262; Prometheus (steamboat), 11; Ransom, Matt Whitaker, 246; Rehder, Jesse, 158; Rhind, Alexander C., 34; rice, processing for seed, 400; rice barges, 392; rice fields, being cleared, and flooded, 390; rice mill, cross section of, 393; rice mill, on Savannah River, 395; rice plantation, 392; Round Knob Hotel, 289; "Schawfields," location of, is shown on map, 4; Salem, 1882, 314; Sandford, John William, house of, Fayetteville, 119; Shaw, Bynum, 134; Second Bank of the U. S., Fayetteville branch, 119; slave quarters, 409; slaves, advertisements for runaways, 63; Smith, Michael, title page of sermon of, 239; Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, seal of, cover, summer issue; Somerset, Henry, Duke of Beaufort, 372; "Squibs," by Griffith J. McRee, first page of, reproduced, 11; swamp scene, Tidewater, N.C., 65; U.S.S. Malvern, 36; Van Buren, Martin, depicted in cartoon, 121; Vance, Zebulon B., 246; Western North Carolina Railroad, 289; White, George H., 265; Wolfe, Thomas, 158; Yarborough House, Raleigh, 260; Young, James H., 268.

Impending Crisis in the South . . . , The, briefly described, 157.

In Pursuit of American History: Research and Training in the United States, reviewed, 333.

"In Quest of a Spiritual Renaissance," 138-144.

Index and Abstracts of Deeds of Record of Pitt County, North Carolina (vol. 3), briefly reviewed, 111.

Indian Grave Gap, Moravian campers pass through, 1874, 287.

Indiana, N.C. Dunkers migrate to, 186, 187.

Indians, are ministered to by S.P.G. missionaries, 235; conversion of, is sought by Giles Rainsford, 235; legend of, concerning origin of Lake Mattamuskeet, described, 67.

Ingle, H. Larry, reviews The Issues of the Populist and Progressive Eras, 1892-1912, 428.

Ingram, John, performs marriage ceremony for Harriet Hargrove and Archibald Monk, 341.

Inkling, The, briefly described, 159.

Intermittent(s), is form of malaria, 75n.

Internal improvements, are advocated by Whig party, 121-129, passim.

Internal Improvements Convention, 1833, establishes county committees, 349-350.

Intracoastal Waterway, enters Pasquotank River via Dismal Swamp Canal, 58n.

Iredell, James, discussion of McRee's Life and Correspondence of . . . , 1-23, passim, dissenting opinion of, in Chisholm v. Georgia, discussed, 12.

Iredell, James, Jr., daughter of, marries Griffith J. McRee, 3.

Iredell, Penelope Johnston, marries Griffith J. McRee, 3.

Iredell County, Andrew D. Cowles speaks for straight ticket Republican faction there, 268; Moravian campers travel through, 301.

Irish labor, use of, on rice plantations, described by Louis Manigault, 414.

Irrigation, use of, in cultivation of rice, discussed, 388-415, passim.

Island Ford, Moravian campers cross Catawba River at, in 1874, 301.

Is Southern Protestantism More Intolerant than Romanism?, distribution of, during Al Smith campaign, described, 48.

Issues of the Populist and Progressive Eras, 1892-1912, The, reviewed, 427.

It Happened Here, briefly noted, 337.

It Is Time, Lord, briefly described, 159.

It Is Toward Evening, 151.

Ivers, Larry E., his Colonial Forts of South Carolina, 1670-1775, briefly noted, 336.

Ives, Elizabeth S., her Back to Beginnings: Adlai E. Stevenson and North Carolina, briefly reviewed, 230.

J

Jack (slave), property of Hugh Jones estate, is suspected of leading insurrection, 62n.

Jackson, Andrew, banking policies of, brings strong protest from N.C. newspapers, 118-119; carries N.C. in 1824 presidential election, 116; is subject of cartoon on Van Buren appointment, 121; pictured, 116; policies of, alienate southern states, 346; becomes unpopular in N.C., 349; receives landslide N.C. vote in 1828, 1832, 117; silhouette of, cover, spring issue; wins majority vote in Sampson County, 1824, 1828, 342n, 1832, 349n.

Jackson, Joy J., her New Orleans in the Gilded Age: Politics and Urban Progress, 1880-1896, reviewed, 323.

Jacksonian Democrats, rise and fall of in N.C., discussed, 115-129, passim.

Jackson's Ferry, Va., Moravian campers visit, 1878, 310.

Jacobs, James Ripley, his The War of 1812: A Compact History, reviewed, 107.

James River, Va., Moravians camp on banks of, 1878, 310.

Jamestown Voyages under the First Charter, 1606-1609, The, reviewed, 218.

Jasper, George B., is clerk of court, Hyde County, 1826, 85.

Jarrell, Randall, makes contribution to literature of N.C., 159.

Jarret, John, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.

Jeffers, William N., defends fusing system used in powder-boat operation, 38; devises fusing system, 34; pictured, 34.

Jefferson the President: First Term, 1801-1805, reviewed, 425.

Jefferson, Thomas, Rembrandt Peale's portrait of, reproduced, 164; revolutionary ideas of, discussed, 161-175, passim.

Jefferys, Grady, his Crossties Through Carolina, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
"Jehovah of the Tar Heels," attack on F. M. Simmons by W. J. Cash, is published in American Mercury, 40, 49-50.
Jim (slave), punishment of, for role in insurrection, described, 345n.
Jingoes, are criticized by W. J. Cash, 43.
Jones County, has a majority of Whig voters, 129.
Joe, participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 283.
John's River, is crossed by Moravian campers, 288.
Johnson, Andrew, application for pardon of, from Archibald Monk, quoted, 369.
Johnson, Charles, his description of Beaufort, 1718, quoted, 371.
Johnson, Charles Earl, letter to, from Griffith J. McRee, quoted, 9.
Johnson, Edward A., his A School History of the Negro Race in the United States . . . , is adopted for use in N.C. Negro schools, 266, 267, title page of, reproduced, 266.
Johnson, F. Roy, his Witches and Demons in History and Folklore, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151, reviewed, 89.
Johnson, Frances Iredell, letter of, concerning Griffith J. McRee, quoted, 14.
Johnson, Nathaniel, plantation of, is acquired by Gabriel Manigault, 393.
Johnson, Richard M., vice-presidential candidacy of, is opposed by Whig party, 351.
Johnson, William, is resident of Beaufort area, 374; road near home of, described, 374.
Johnston County, creation of, noted, 241n; is served by missionary Michael Smith, 240-241; Whigs from, meet at Newton Grove, 355.
Johnston, Gabriel, is to supervise building of fort at Beaufort Inlet, 381; makes plea for coastal fortifications, 381.
Jolley, Harley E., his The Blue Ridge Parkway, briefly discussed, 151, receives Thomas Wolfe Literary Award, 151, reviewed, 96; pictured, 151.
Jones, Ann, guardians of, are named in will, 83; inherits Rose-Bay Turnpike plantation from Hugh Jones, 82; marries Cicero Hawks, 85n.
Jones, Ann Marie Guion, death of, noted, 81; piety of, described, 79; resides at home of John Jones, Pennsylvania, 80, 81.
Jones, Ed, home of, near Patterson, passed by Moravian campers, 287.
Jones, Eliza W., death of, noted, 83n; files inventories for father's estate, 85n; is appointed a guardian of sisters, 83; is daughter of Hugh Jones, 75; is named executrix of will of Hugh Jones, 83; her enjoyment of Scriptures, described, 79; illness of, described, 77; is legatee of Hugh Jones, 81, 82, 83; marries Alexander F. Gaston, 83; signs notice of sale of Hugh Jones's personal property, 84.
Jones, Frances, guardians of, are named in will, 83; is legatee of Hugh Jones, 81, 82, 83; marries Daniel S. McCauley, 85n.
Jones, H. G., The Records of a Nation: Their Management, Preservation, and Use, briefly discussed, 149-150; reviews In Pursuit of American History: Research and Training in the United States, 334.
Jones, Harriet, guardians of, are named in will, 83; is daughter of Hugh Jones, 75; is legatee of Hugh Jones, 82, 83.
Jones, Hugh, acquires Hyde County tracts from John Jones, 53; adventures of, in crossing Lake Mattamuskeet, described, 71-72; death of, 81; employs Yankee tutor, 1817-1818, 51-85, passim; his treatment of slaves, discussed, 52, 61-64; is involved in numerous Hyde County land transactions, 53; marries Ann Marie Guion, 53; notice of sale of personal property of, reproduced, 84; plantations of, in Hyde County, described, 52; settlement of estate of, described, 85n; will of, discussed, 52, published 81-84.
Jones, John, acquires land from James Clayton, 52n; acquisition of land in Hyde County, described, 52; bequeaths watch to Hugh Jones, 83; is associate justice, Montgomery Co., Pa., 52, 80, 81; is father of Hugh Jones, 52; is resident of New Bern during American Revolution, 52; transfers Hyde County tracts to Hugh Jones, 53; teaches law to Samuel H. Perkins, 80.
Jones, Joseph Seawell "Shocco," is antebellum historian, 1, 15.
Jones, Julia, guardians of, are named in will, 83; is legatee of Hugh Jones, 82, 83; marries Edward Stanly, 69n, 83n.
Jones, Richard B., is appointed a guardian of Hugh Jones's children, 83; is executor of will of Hugh Jones, 83; is legatee of Hugh Jones, 83; signs notice of sale of Hugh Jones's personal belongings, 84; teaches law to Samuel H. Perkins, 80.
Jones, Willie, impartiality of treatment of, by Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 17.
Jordan, Margaret, is named as mistress of Michael Smith, 240.
Jordan Alum Springs, Va., briefly described, 307n.
Journalism, of W. J. Cash, discussed, 40-50.
Joyner, Robert, Joseph Parker is guardian for, 342.
Juniper water, is produced in Dismal Swamp, 58; medicinal properties of, described, 58n.
Justices of the peace, enlargement of jurisdiction of, is sought by Archibald Monk, 346.

XUM

K

Kammen, Michael, his Empire and Interest: The American Colonies and the Politics of Mercantilism, reviewed, 332.
Kastner, a Moravian, marries Dunker girl, 188.
Keehler, Tenie, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Keller, Johannes, testifies against John Ham, at 1798 Dunker meeting, 198.
Kenansville, Whig party meeting there 1854, described, 356.
Kendrick, W. B., assists Edward A. Johnson in editing Negro school history, 266, 267.
Kentucky, Dunker settlements established there, 177, 200, 201.
Kern, Conrad, is a leader of Yadkin River Dunker congregation, 203.
Kern, John, is a leader of Yadkin River Dunker congregation, 203.
Kern, Mrs., Moravian campers visit with, near Austinville, Va., 1875, 308.
Kerr, John, wins Sampson County vote, 355.
Kesler, is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 200.
Kessler, Elizabeth, is wife of Nathaniel Burkhart, 187.
Key, Alexander, his The Golden Enemy, briefly discussed, 132.
Kidder, Frederic, Boston antiquarian, is friend of Griffith J. McRee, 10, 23; reads paper on Regulators, 23.
Kill Peacock Swamp, Sampson County, Archibald Monk owns plantation on, 343, 357.
Kilpatrick, Anna Gritts, her Notebook of a Cherokee Shaman, briefly noted, 432.
Kilpatrick, Jack Frederick, his Notebook of a Cherokee Shaman, briefly reviewed, 432.
Kimel, Emma Cornelia, brief sketch of, 283; falls from horse on Clingman's Dome, 299; participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 283.
Kincheloe, Henderson, reviews George W. Cable: The Life and Times of a Southern Heretic, 228.
King, John, is named presidential elector in Sampson County, 342.
King, William R., candidacy of, is opposed by Sampson County Whigs, 355; wins Sampson County vote, 356.
King George's War, effect of, on N.C., described, 379-381.
King Mile Swamp, Sampson County, land on, is given for school use, by Archibald Monk, 357.
Kirsch, Mr., rents Manigault rice plantation, 411.
Knights of Columbus, oath of, is proven spurious, 47, 49n.
Knowles, John, makes contribution to literature of N.C., 159.
Know-Nothings, are joined by Whigs, 352n.
Knox, Thomas W., his Camp-fire and Cotton-field . . . Life with the Union Armies, and Residence on a Louisiana Plantation, briefly noted, 113.
Koch, Frederick H., pictured, 158; playwriting classes of, briefly described, 157; students of, listed, 157, 158.
Ku Klux Klan, is attacked by W. J. Cash, 46, 47; role of, in Al Smith campaign, discussed, 42-49, passim.

L

Ladies (southern), described by Yankee tutor, in 1818, 66, 76, 78.
Lady Ellen Grae, briefly discussed, 133.
Lake Landing, Hyde County, experiences there, of Yankee tutor, 1817-1818, described, discussed, 51-85, passim; plantation there is willed to Eliza W. Jones, 81.
Lake Mattamuskeet, attempts to drain and cultivate, described, 67n; crossing of, 1818, described, 71; described by Yankee tutor, 1818, 67; fertility of soil in area of, described, 64, 65n; houses on northeast shore of, pictured, 72, 73; is discovered by Sir Richard Grenville, 60n; is part of National Wildlife Refuge, 67n; origin of name of, described, 52n; plantation on, is served by Yankee tutor, 1817-1818, 51-85, passim; scene on, pictured, cover, winter issue; theories on origin of, discussed, 67n.
Lamb, William, cooperates in protection of blockade-runner, 35; reports on effects of powder-boat explosion on Fort Fisher, 37.
Land, Aubrey C., his Bases of the Plantation Society, reviewed, 226.
Lander, Ernest McPherson, his The Textile Industry in Antebellum South Carolina, reviewed, 93.
Landers, is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 201.
Lane, I. W., represents Sampson County in legislature, 357.
Lane, Ralph, constructs fortifications on Roanoke Island, 60n.
Langhorne, William, makes unfavorable report to S.P.G. on Michael Smith, 242-243.
Larkin, Thomas Oliver, reports on hospitality of North Carolinians, 59n.
Last One Home Sleeps in the Yellow Bed, briefly discussed, 135-136.
Lawson, John, his A New Voyage to Carolina, briefly described, 156, buffalo from, pictured, 156.
Leak, R. H. W., is Raleigh Methodist minister, 268; letter of, to Thomas Settle, supporting Republican-Populist fusion, quoted, 267; pictured, 268.
Leatherman, Christian, is son of Nicholas Leatherman, 190; is witness to land transactions of Jacob Stutzman, 190.

Leatherman, John, is son of Nicholas Leatherman, 190.
Leatherman, Jonas, is son of Nicholas Leatherman, 190.
Leatherman, Nicholas, settles in Rowan County, 190.
Lee, Samuel P., is replaced as commander of North Atlantic Squadron, 25, 27; prepares papers for Union naval attack on Fort Fisher, 26; recommends purchase of Ella and Annie for Union fleet, 36.
Lefler, Hugh Talmage, his A Guide to the Study and Reading of North Carolina History, briefly reviewed, 335.
Lehman, Emma, joins Moravian campers at Morganton, 288; returns to Salem by rail, 299.
Leinbach, Leinback. See Lineback.
Lemly, W. A., marries Emily Louisa de Schweinitz, 302n.
Lemmon, Sarah McCulloh, reviews The War of 1812: A Compact History, 108.
Lenoir, Moravian campers stop there, 1874, 287.
Letter from Christopher Columbus to Rafael Sanchez . . . , briefly noted, 337.
Letters from Alabama, 1817-1822, reviewed, 417.
Letters of the British Spy, The, republication of, briefly noted, 431.
Lexington, is home of Zebulon Vance Walser, 259.
Libby, Captain, of Little Hattie, seeks protection for blockade-runner, 35.
Library, is sent to Bath by Thomas Bray, 234; of Archibald Monk, described, 366-367.
Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, discussed, 1-23, passim; portion of subscription list for, reproduced, 20.
Lightwood Creek Bridge, canal from, to Lake Mattamuskeet, is planned by Hugh Jones, 82.
Lillington, John Alexander, extant papers of, described, 8n; memoir on death of, is written by Griffith J. McRee, 8.
Lincoln, Abraham, cabinet of, seeks military victories to secure election of 1864, 24-26; is unenthusiastic about powder-boat scheme, 28; reluctantly approves Union naval attack on Wilmington, 25.
Lincoln County, votes consistently Democratic in Whig era, 129.
Lineback, Emma, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Lineback, Henry, takes photograph of Moravian campers, 1878, 311.
Lineback, Robert Parmenio, brief sketch of, 282n; Moravian campers meet, near Hillsville, Va., 1875, 309; participates in Moravian excursion to Black Mountain, 282-302, passim; pictured, 284, 286; performs marriage of Emma C. Kimel and Francis J. Shore, 283n.
Linney, Romulus Z., wins congressional election in 1894, 269.
Liquors, use of, in 1818, described by Yankee tutor, 66.
List of References for the History of Agriculture in the United States, A, briefly reviewed, 433.
Literary Board, administers Literary Fund, 348n; makes final appropriation to Sampson schools, 366; receives annual school superintendents' reports, 358.
Literary Fund, purpose of, described, 347n; use of, for establishment of common school system, is sought by Archibald Monk, 347-349.
Literature, in antebellum N.C., discussed, 1-23, passim.
Little Conewago, Pa., Dunker Annual Meeting, 1798, held there, 197; Dunkers from, emigrate to N.C., 177.
Little Hattie, runs blockade ahead of Union powder-boat, 35.
Little Yadkin River, Moravians camp on banks of, 1878, 309.
Litz, Col., Moravian campers visit with, near Crockett, Va., 1875, 307-308.
Litz, John, guides Moravian campers through Burkes Garden, Va., 1875, 307-308.
Livingston, Luther S., his A Briefe and True Report of the New Found Land of Virginia, briefly noted, 109.
Lyell, Sir Charles, visits James Fergus McRee, 2.
Logan, Rayford W., Howard University: The First Hundred Years, 1867-1967, reviewed, 328.
Long and Happy Life, A, briefly described, 159.
Longrifles of North Carolina, reviewed, 214.
Look Homeward, Angel, 157.
Lords of Admiralty, obtains feasibility report on Arthur Dobbs's recommendation concerning Cape Lookout, 383.
Lords Proprietors, discriminate against N.C. in favor of S. C., 235; grant Beaufort status of port, 371; seek to establish Anglican church in North Carolina, 233.
Losing the Peace: Georgia Republicans and Reconstruction, 1865-1871, briefly discussed, 149.
Lost Colony, The, is first modern outdoor drama, 157.
Louisiana, use of, by Union navy, in powder-boat operation, described, 30-38, passim.
Love feast, basins for, used by Dunkers, pictured, 185; is part of Dunker religious services, 183, 185.
Love My Children: The Education of a Teacher, 151.
Lovell's Creek, Moravian campers stop at, 1875, 309.

XUM

Lovick, Thomas, becomes collector of customs for Beaufort, 377; is commandant of Beaufort militia, 380; is to supervise building of fort at Beaufort Inlet, 381, 382; purchases Beaufort lots from Christopher Gale, 377; serves as juryman in Chowan Precinct, 377n; serves on committee to provide coastal fortifications, 381.

Lowery, John Robert, his Memoirs of a Country Doctor, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.

Loyal Order of United Protestants, president of, opposes Al Smith candidacy, 46.

Lumber, method of securing from Dismal Swamp, in 1817, described, 56; types of, produced in Dismal Swamp, described, 56, 58.

Lupton, Mrs. John, has Mattamuskeet church minutes, 71n.

Lusk, Virgil S., joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260; name of, is withdawn from 1894 Populist ticket, 261-262; pressures Eaves to call Republican strategy meeting, 258.

Lutheranism in the Southeastern States, 1860-1886: A Social History, reviewed, 327.

Lynch, John R., his The Facts of Reconstruction, reviewed, 325.

Mc

McBride, Robert M., his More Landmarks of Tennessee History, reviewed, 319.

McCants, Dorothea Olga, her They Came to Louisiana: Letters of a Catholic Mission, 1854-1882, reviewed, 322.

McCauley, Daniel S., is husband of Ann Jones, 85n.

McCuiston, Lecetta, becomes wife of Charles Ebert, 311n.

McCune, Marjorie Bennett, her Toni's Tale, briefly discussed, 132.

McDowell County, Moravian campers travel through, 1874, 288, 299-300.

McFarland, Daniel M., reviews The Promised Land: The History of the South Carolina Land Commission, 1869-1890, 96.

McFerrin, John Berry, his Caldwell and Company: A Southern Financial Empire, reviewed, 331.

McKay, James J., wins Sampson County election, 351n.

McKiever, Charles Fitzgerald, his Slavery and the Emigration of North Carolina Friends, reviewed, 416.

McKinley Tariff Act, is denounced in 1894 Populist party platform, 261.

MacLaine, Archibald, information from, is sought by Griffith J. McRee, 15; letters of, prove useful to McRee, 19; personality of, described, 19.

McLamb's Crossroads, Sampson County, Whig party meeting there, described, 354.

McLean, Robert C., his "A Yankee Tutor in the Old South," 51-85.

McNeill, Angus Currie, brief sketch of, 366n.

McNinch, Frank R., heads Anti-Smith Democratic Committee, 44.

McPherson, Holt, his "Beyond the Moon," 152-160.

McRae, Alexander, broadside of, as Whig General Assembly candidate, reproduced, 16.

McRee, Griffith J., broadside of, as Whig General Assembly candidate, reproduced, 16; extant papers of, described, 2n; life and career of, discussed, 1-23, passim; memoriam on death of, reproduced, 22.

McRee, Griffith John (major), biography of, by Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 19-20; fights in Revolutionary campaigns, 2; his encounter with Nathanael Greene, described, 20; is grandfather of Griffith J. McRee, 2.

McRee, James Fergus, brief sketch of, 2; collaborates with Moses Ashley Curtis, 2; entertains French sailors, 5; is reputable Wilmington physician, 2; is host to Sir Charles Lyell, 2; lives on estate of Cornelius Harnett, 14.

McRee, James Iredell, brief sketch of, 23n.

McRee, Mary Ashe Hill, ancestry of, is traced, 2-3.

McRee, Penelope Iredell, death of, noted, 21; is wife of Griffith J. McRee, 3, 14.

Mac Veagh, Margaret, her American Reconstruction, 1865-1870, republication of, briefly reviewed, 232.

M

Mabry, C. J., is publisher of Cleveland Press (Shelby), 44.

Mabry, Mrs. C. J., owns complete file of Cleveland Press (Shelby), 40n.

Mabson, Arthur, is to supervise building of fort at Beaufort Inlet, 381, 382; provides ammunition for Beaufort magazine, 380; purchases Beaufort property, 377.

Mack, Alexander, is advised of preaching of Universalist doctrines in N.C., 194.

Mack, Mary, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.

Mack, Sander, sends opinion on Universalism, to Dunker meeting, 198.

Mackdaniel, Daniel, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.

Maclay, William, sees rise of monarchism in U. S. Senate, 172.

Macon, Nathaniel, denies constitutionality of banks, 118; is spokesman for conservative easterners, 115; opposes Jackson's nationalistic policies, 117.

Madison, James, constitutional arguments of, discussed, 161-175, passim; seeks public ratification of democratic ideals, 169.

Madison County, is visited by Moravian travelers, 1874, 292-293.

Malaria, prevalence of, on rice plantations, discussed, 396n, 401-402.
Mallord, Mr., welcomes Moravians at Walton House, 1874, 288.
Malone, Dumas, his Jefferson the President: First Term, 1801-1805, reviewed, 425.
Manigault, Charles, acquires "East Hermitage," Savannah River plantation, 398; acquires "Silk Hope" and "Marshlands," 394; and family, portrait of, reproduced, 397; brief sketch of, 394n, 405n; Charleston town house of, pictured, 403; death of, noted, 413; detailed records of, for "Gowrie" rice plantation, discussed, quoted, 396-415, passim; his method of disciplining slaves, described, 405; marries Elizabeth Heyward, 394; purchases "Gowrie," Savannah River plantation, 394; rice plantations of, are destroyed by Sherman's army, 411.
Manigault, Charles Heyward, portrait of, as a child, reproduced, 397.
Manigault, Edward, rice plantation of, North Santee River, S.C., pictured, 390.
Manigault, Emma, makes loan to Louis Manigault, 413.
Manigault, Gabriel, develops major Charleston commercial enterprise, 391-392; philanthropy of, described, 393n; portrait of, reproduced, 397; wills properties to grandchildren, 393.
Manigault, Gabriel, II, brief sketch of, 393n; is legatee of "Silk Hope," 393; moves to Philadelphia, 393; portrait of, reproduced, 397.
Manigault, Harriet, makes loan to Louis Manigault, 413.
Manigault, Henrietta, is wife of Nathaniel Heyward, 393n.
Manigault, Louis, his management of "Gowrie," 1875-1876, discussed, 413-415; his method of disciplining slaves, described, 406; leases "Gowrie" to James B. Heyward, Jr., 415; manages "Gowrie" and "East Hermitage," Savannah River rice plantations, 398; portrait of, as a child, reproduced, 397; portrait of, reproduced, 397.
Manigault, Peter, untimely death of, breaks dynasty chain, 393.
Manigault, Pierre, is founder of S.C. dynasty, 391.
Mangum, Willie P., splits with Jackson in banking crisis, 120.
Manly, Charles, is defeated by David S. Reid in Sampson County vote, 354n; is elected Whig governor, 1849, 127; letter to, from Archibald Monk, quoted, 357.
Manners, of men and women of N.C., 1818, described by Yankee tutor, 66, 76, 78.
Man's Responsibility: An Ecumenical Study, briefly noted, 151.
Map, eastern portion of Price-Strother 1808, reproduced, 57; of Manigault rice plantation, Argyle Island, Ga., reproduced, 404.
Marion, Moravian campers pass through, 288, 299.
Market House, Raleigh, pictured, 261.
Marsden, Richard, serves as Anglican missionary in N.C., 237.
Marshall, is described by Moravian travelers, 1874, 292, 294; is home of Jeter C. Pritchard, 258.
Marshall, Frederick William, agreements negotiated by, with Faw family, discussed, 182, 183.
Marshall, John, views 1780s as crucial in American history, 169.
"Marshlands," Cooper River estate, is given to Elizabeth and Charles Manigault, 394; is within Charleston naval base, 415n; pictured, 403.
Martin, Charles H., wins congressional election in 1894, 269.
Martin, David, spreads Universalist doctrine among Dunkers, 194, 199.
Martin, Josiah, blocks representation of Beaufort in colonial assembly, 386.
Martin, Thomas, buys and sells Beaufort property, 378.
Maryland, Dunker settlements there, mentioned, 177-204, passim.
Masonic Lodge, Archibald Monk is member of, 367, 368n.
Masons, New Bern, hear sermon by Michael Smith, 1755, 239.
Masters, Thomas C., advertises for runaway slaves, 63.
Mathiessen and Company, Charleston, S.C., are factors for Manigaults, 400.
Mattamuskeet Charge, Primitive Baptist Church, minutes of, are in possession of Mrs. John Lupton, 71n.
Mattamuskeet, Lake. See Lake Mattamuskeet.
Mattamuskeet Indians, give name to Lake Mattamuskeet, 52n.
Maxton Blade, is edited by R. B. Russell, 267; urges Negroes to vote straight Republican ticket, 267.
Mayflower award, candidates for, discussed, 145-151.
Mayflower Cup, is awarded to John R. Alden, for A History of the American Revolution, 148.
Mayo River, Va., is crossed by Moravian campers, 1880, 315.
Meade, Robert Douthat, his Patrick Henry: Practical Revolutionary, reviewed, 219.
Meares, William B., declines to become Whig candidate, 353; letter of, setting forth Whig policies, published, 353.
Mecklenburg County, votes consistently Democratic in Whig era, 129.
Medicine, property of Hugh Jones, is sold at auction, 84; types of, used on Manigault rice plantations, described, 401-402.
Memoirs of a Country Doctor, 151.

XUM

Memory is a Star, briefly discussed, 137.
Men (southern), described by Yankee tutor, in 1818, 66.
Menace on the Mountain, briefly discussed, 132.
Mencken, H. L., is mentor and friend of W. J. Cash, 40-50, passim; opinion of, concerning southern Protestant newspapers, described, 46; publishes articles by W. J. Cash, 40.
Mennonites, are susceptible to Dunker beliefs, 188; beliefs of, are similar to those of Dunkers, 180, 181.
Merit and Reward of a Good Intention: A Sermon Preached Before the Trustees of the Colony of Georgia on March 18, 1742, The, reviewed, 224.
Mesabi, briefly discussed, 135.
Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1928 conference of, hears attack on anti-prohibition newspapers, 48.
Methodists, Ohio conference of, hears anti-Smith speaker, 46; publication of, issues anti-Catholic article, 45; seek converts among Salem Moravians, 188; views of southern newspapers of, 1928, described, 45-46.
Metropolitan Hall, Raleigh, 1894 Populist state convention held there, 260-263; pictured, 261.
Mexican War, pamphlet on North Carolina's role in, is available, 278n.
Mickey, Rosa, marries Henry E. Fries, 282n.
Mickey, Samuel Timothy, is visited by Moravian campers, 1880, 312.
Middendorf, J. William, his American Printmaking: The First 150 Years, reviewed, 228.
Middleton and Company, Charleston, S.C., are factors for Manigault, 400.
Miles, Edwin A., reviews Letters from Alabama, 1817-1822, 417.
Militia, 1806 law concerning, quoted, 74n; is used to suppress slave insurrection, Sampson County, 345n; musters of, at Lake Landing, described by Yankee tutor, 74; service in, in American Revolution, is refused by Quakers, Dunkers, Moravians, Mennonites, 181; use of, in slave patrol system, is sought, 344.
Millard, Richard W., reports of, to Calvin H. Wiley, quoted, 363.
Mill Creek, is described by Moravian campers, 1874, 290.
Miller, is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 201.
Miller, Clayton B., his history of Flat Rock Church of the Brethren, quoted, 202.
Miller, George, gives Abbotts Creek land to John Miller, Sr., 185.
Miller, Heather Ross, makes contribution to literature of N.C., 160.
Miller, Henry, acquires large state land grants, 185; is executor for John Miller, 185; sells Rowan County lands, 202.
Miller, Henry, Sr., purchases Sparks Creek acreage from John Miller, Sr., 184.
Miller, Jacob, is New Bern settler, 370n; purchases Beaufort land, 370n.
Miller, Jonathan, gives roots to Flat Rock Dunker congregation, 202-203; is leader of Wilkes County Dunkers, 201; is neighbor of Henry Miller, 185; is reared in Fraternity Dunker community, 202; land transactions of, in Stokes, Rowan, and Ashe counties, described, 202; marries Margaret Carpenter, 203; moves from Salem to Ashe County, 184, 202.
Miller, John, Sr., acquires land on Abbotts Creek from father, 185; estate lands of, described, 184-185; is father of Jonathan Miller, 184.
Miller, Joseph, purchases Wilkes County tract, 202; sells Rowan County lands, 202.
Miller, Margaret Carpenter, owns slaves, 203.
Miller, Michael, is neighbor of Jonathan Miller, 185.
Miller, Robert Moats, reviews The Rise of Massive Resistance: Race and Politics in the South During the 1950's, 330.
Miller, Valentine, is neighbor of Jonathan Miller, 185.
Mind of the South, The, briefly discussed, 159; origins of idea for, discussed, 40-50, passim.
Missionaries, sent to North Carolina by Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, discussed, 233-243.
Missouri, N.C. Dunkers emigrate to, 177, 200.
Mitchell, Elisha, brief sketch of, 297n; grave of, is visited by Moravian campers, 1874, 297, 298; pictured, 298; tablet at grave of, pictured, 298.
Mitchell, Enoch L., his Tennessee: A Short History, reviewed, 318.
Mitchell, Memory F., her "Report to the Readers," 270-280.
Mitchell, Mr., Moravian campers stop at home of, near Hillsville, Va., 1875, 304, 305, 309, 1878, 309, 311, 1880, 313.
Mitchell's Falls, pictured, 299.
Mitchell's Peak. See Mount Mitchell.
Moch (Mack), is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 201.
Mocksville, 302.
Money, types of, used in colonial N.C., described, 378n.
Monk, Archibald, arrives in Cumberland County, 1771, 339.
Monk, Archibald (1789-1869), career of, discussed, 339-369; Family Prayer Book of, pictured, 365; fence at family cemetery of, pictured, 368; general store of, pictured, 342; home of, Sampson County, pictured,

344; pictured, 350; report of, filed with Calvin H. Wiley, reproduced, 361.
Monk, Catherine, headstone of, pictured, 368; is mother of Archibald Monk, 339.
Monk, Charles Owen Augustus, becomes schoolteacher, 366n; is son of Archibald Monk, 358n; resides in Clinton, 366n.
Monk, Claudius Buchanan, is killed at Spotsylvania Courthouse, Va., 1864, 368n; is son of Archibald Monk, 358n.
Monk, Cornelius H., death of, noted, 341n; is partner of Archibald Monk, in operation of general store, 341.
Monk, Harriet Hargrove, death of, noted, 341n.
Monk, Henry Clay, 358n.
Monk, James, brief sketch of, 339; headstone of, pictured, 368; obituary of, quoted, 339n; serves as first presentor of Union Presbyterian Church, Moore County, 340.
Monk, James D., moves to Alabama, 341n.
Monk, James Monroe, becomes schoolteacher, 366n; is son of Archibald Monk, 358n.
Monk, Jane Katherine, is daughter of Archibald Monk, 358n; participates in Whig party rally, 355n.
Monk, John Carr, becomes schoolteacher, 366n; is active in Sampson County Whig party, 355n, 356; is son of Archibald Monk, 358n.
Monk, Julius Alexander, 358n.
Monk, Margaret Adeline, 358n.
Monk, Rufus Benjamin Aaron, becomes schoolteacher, 366n; is son of Archibald Monk, 358n.
Monk, William Hargrove, becomes schoolteacher, 366n; is son of Archibald Monk, 358n.
Monks Crossroads. See Monk's Store.
Monk's Store, Sampson County, Archibald Monk is postmaster there, 1848-1869, 368, 369; described, 355n; political activity there, described, 351-356, passim; postal route for, described, 355n.
Monroe, James, is chastised by Thomas Jefferson, 168; visit of, to Wilmington, described, 13.
Montgomery, Walter A., is nominated for state justiceship by Populists, 262.
Montgomery, William, publishes circular critical of William Henry Harrison, 353n.
Moody, Dwight Lyman, hymns of, are sung by Moravian campers, 311.
Moody, James M., attacks Populist-Republican fusionist strategy, 263; reluctantly accepts Republican-Populist fusion, 264.
Moore, J. H., gives reasons for migration of Dunkers to Missouri, 200; opinion of, concerning impact of Universalism on Dunkers, discussed, 193.
Moore, James, purchases Beaufort lots, 370.
Moore, John Hebron, reviews The South, Old and New Frontiers: Selected Essays of Frank Lawrence Owsley, 422.
Moore, Marie D., reviews The Textile Industry in Antebellum South Carolina, 95.
Moore, Maurice, is resident of Chowan Precinct, 370n; purchases Beaufort land, 370n; represents Carteret Precinct in assembly, 372n.
Moore, William P., advertises for runaway slave, 63.
Moore County, Archibald Monk is large landowner there, 342; first known school there, described, 340; James Monk settles there, 339.
Moore County Academy, founding of, described, 340.
Moores Knob, is visited by Moravian campers, 1880, 315.
Moravian camping expedition, pictured, 284.
Moravian Falls, brief description of, 285, 285n.
Moravians, accept Dunkers at Hope, 188; comparison of beliefs of, with those of Dunkers, 179-180; concern of, over intermarriage with Dunkers, described, 188-190; nineteenth century mountain excursions of, described in diary, 281-316; participate in French and Indian War, 179; sell land to Dunkers, 176-204, passim; treat medical needs of Dunkers, 187-188.
More Landmarks of Tennessee History, reviewed, 319.
Morehead, John Motley, is elected Whig governor, 1841, 127.
Morgan, David T., Jr., his "Scandal in Carolina: The Story of a Capricious Missionary," 233-243; reviews The Merit and Reward of a Good Intention: A Sermon Preached Before the Trustees of the Colony of Georgia on March 18, 1742, 226.
Morgan, Fred T., his Ghost Tales of the Uwharries, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151.
Morganton, is described by Moravian diarist, 1874, 288, 300.
Morisey, Thomas Kenan, is active in Sampson County Whig party, 353; is sheriff of Sampson County, 345; slave of, plans insurrection, 345.
Morning Star (Wilmington), its obituary for Griffith J. McRee, quoted, 23.
Morrill, James R., his The Practice and Politics of Fiat Finance: North Carolina in the Confederation, 1783-1789, reviewed, 86.
Morrison, Joseph L., his "Found: The Missing Editorship of W. J. Cash," 40-50.
Morris's Lookout, Va., is visited by Moravian campers, 1880, 313.
"Most Important Epocha, A": The Coming of the Revolution in South Carolina, briefly noted, 336.
Mott, John James, brief sketch of, 252n; joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260; leads anti-Eaves faction of Republican party, 252, 254; pictured, 262.

Mound Battery, Fort Fisher, light burns on, for blockade-runners, 32n.
Mount Airy, is described by Moravian diarist, 1875, 304, 309, 1880, 311; mentioned, 1878, 311.
Mount Mitchell, Moravian campers reach summit of, 1874, 297; pictured, 290.
Mount Mitchell State Park, observation tower there, pictured, 299.
Mountain Feud, briefly discussed, 133.
Mouzon, Edwin D., anti-Catholic polemic of, is published, 45; is attacked by W. J. Cash, 45, 48.
"Moving Row," column by W. J. Cash, discussed, 42-50, passim.
Murray, Paul, reviews The Papers of Thomas Jordan Jarvis. Vol. I. 1869-1882, 89.
Muddy Creek, Dunkers settle on, 176-204, passim.
Mull, Odus M., describes bigotry in state, during Al Smith campaign, 48.
Murphey, Archibald D., internal development program of, is curtailed, 116.
Murphy, David, is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts, briefly reviewed, 430.
Museum of History, development of, briefly discussed, 152-153.

N

Naked Creek, land on, is purchased by Adam Bowers, 201.
Nathans, Elizabeth Studley, her Losing the Peace: Georgia Republicans and Reconstruction, 1865-1871, briefly discussed, 149.
National Register of Historic Places, 1969, The, briefly noted, 338.
National Republican party, joins with Branch-Clay faction to form Whig party, 120; opposes Jackson in election of 1832, 117; sponsors presidential candidacy of Henry Clay, 117.
Native Americans, are joined by Whigs, 352n.
Natural Bridge, Va., beauty of, is described by Moravian diarist, 1878, 310; Moravian campers begin trip to, 1878, 309.
Naval strategy, at Fort Fisher, discussed, 24-39, passim.
Nazi Hunter, The, briefly discussed, 135; receives Sir Walter Raleigh Award, 134.
Negro Republicans, disfranchise of, by Democrats, is claimed, 248; role of, in 1894 elections, discussed, 254n, 265-267.
Negro schools, A School History of the Negro Race in the United States . . . , is adopted for use in, 266, 267.
Negroes. See also slaves.
Negroes, are disfranchised by Convention of 1835, 123; are pawns in 1928 presidential campaign, 49; discrimination against, by Populists, is claimed, 248; vote of, sought by Democrats in 1894 elections, 265-267; working conditions of, on Manigault rice plantations, described, 405-413.
Negurs, Isaac, acquires Beaufort property, 377; becomes Beaufort blacksmith, 377.
Nelson, John, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373, justice, 372.
New Bern, Coor-Gaston house there, pictured, 70; court sessions there, are described by Yankee tutor, 53; Gabriel Johnston addresses assembly there, 381; Hugh Jones owns house there, 52; is home of Isaac Guion family, 53; is residence of John Jones, during American Revolution, 52; is visited by Samuel H. Perkins, 1818, 68, 74; Isaac H. Smith speaks for Negro Republicans in, 267; Michael Smith preaches sermons there, 239, 240; property there, owned by Hugh Jones, is described in will, 83; superior court sessions there, 1818, described, 68-69; unfavorable report on, 1818, mentioned, 75.
New Castle, brief description of, 285n; is visited by Moravian campers, 1874, 285.
New England, experiences of native of, in N.C., 1817-1818, described, discussed, 51-85, passim.
New-England Historical and Genealogical Society, notes death of Griffith J. McRee, 23.
New Hanover County, 1844 Whig broadside distributed in, reproduced, 16; history of, is in preparation, 278n; inhabitants of, fear slave insurrection, 344; is home of Griffith J. McRee, 3-23, passim; map of plantations in, reproduced, 4; Michael Smith serves in parish there, 241; rice production in, described, 391n; superior court of, adjourns on death of Griffith J. McRee, 23.
New Hanover Precinct, is created, 372n.
New Orleans in the Gilded Age: Politics and Urban Progress, 1880-1896, reviewed, 323.
New River, Dunker settlements on, discussed, 200-204.
New River, Va., Moravian campers cross, 1878, 310; Moravian campers stop on banks of, 1875, 305.
New South Creed: A Study in Southern Mythmaking, The, reviewed, 422.
New York Times, report of, on powder-boat explosion, quoted, 35-36.
New Voyage to Carolina, A, briefly described, 156; illustration from, reproduced, 156.
Newbern, Va., briefly described, 310n.
Newman, Mr., Moravian campers stop at store of, 1875, 304.
Newport River, ferry service is obtained for,

383; road to connect with White Oak River, is completed, 374.
News and Observer (Raleigh), is edited by James Iredell McRee, 23n; provides writing experience for Jonathan Daniels, 159.
Newspapers, career of W. J. Cash on, discussed, 40-50; play important role in rise of N.C. Whig party, 124.
Newton Grove, is home of John Carr Monk, 368; meeting of Whig party there, 1852, described, 355.
Night Riders of Reelfoot Lake, reviewed, 223.
Noble, William, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Nonresistance, policy of, followed by Dunkers, discussed, 179-181.
Nonresistant military groups, treatment of, in N.C., during American Revolution, discussed, 180-181.
Norfolk, Va., description of, in 1817, by Samuel H. Perkins, quoted, 58; Samuel H. Perkins begins voyage to, 55.
North American Review, its review of Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, described, 12, 18.
North Carolina, customs of, 1817-1818, described by Yankee tutor, 58-85, passim; economic status of, 1817-1818, described, 51; its treatment of dissenters in American Revolution, described, 180-181; portion of 1888 map of, reproduced, 306; rice production in, described, 388n, 389n, 391n; traveling conditions in, following Reconstruction era, described, 281-316, passim; unfavorable description of, by Anglican missionaries, quoted, 235.
North Carolina Adventure, The, briefly reviewed, 110.
"North Carolina Bibliography, 1968-1969," 205-213.
North Carolina Christian Advocate, publishes anti-Catholic article, 45.
North Carolina Colony, The, briefly discussed, 133.
North Carolina Education Association, organization of, noted, 364n.
North Carolina Gazetteer, The, briefly discussed, 150.
North Carolina Historical Review, evolution of covers of, pictured, 273; opinion of readers concerning, discussed, 270-280, passim.
North Carolina Historical Society, collections of, are useful to Griffith J. McRee, 15.
North Carolina Literary and Historical Association, is supported by Christopher Crittenden, 138; papers from annual session of, published, 131-175.
North Carolina Newspapers Before 1790, 152.
North Carolina Supreme Court, upholds partisan election law, 1893, 254.
North Carolinian (Elizabeth City), discusses Republican-Populist fusion issue, 250.
North Lake Church, Hyde County, is visited by Baptist missionary, 71n; pictured, 72.
North River, ferry service is obtained for, 383; William Johnson owns home on, 374.
Northern capitalists, subservience of Wilmingtonians to, is criticized by Griffith J. McRee, 12-13.
Northampton County, has a majority of Whig voters, 129.
Northwest Ordinance of 1787, is opposed by Thomas Jefferson, 168.
Not As Leaves are Shaken, briefly discussed, 136-137.
Notebook of a Cherokee Shaman, briefly reviewed, 432.
Nuestra Senora de Cavadonga, under attack by Centurion, pictured, 380.
Nullification, will lead to a southern confederacy, predicts William Gaston, 118n.
Nullification convention, is opposed in N.C., 117.

O

O. Henry, literary career of, briefly described, 157; pictured, 158.
Oates, James, is ordered to appoint slave patrols, Sampson County, 345n.
Oath, belief of Dunkers toward taking of, discussed, 179-181.
Oberhams Church, Va., Moravians camp near, 1878, 310.
Ocracoke Inlet, act provides for building of fort at, 381.
Oertel, Johannes Adam Simon, brief sketch of, 287n; paintings of, are viewed by Moravian campers, 1874, 287.
O'Hara, James E., denounces Republican-Populist fusion as betrayal of Negro, 266.
Ohio, Dunkers emigrate to, from N.C., 183, 186, 187.
Old Burying Ground, Beaufort, is donated to town by Nathaniel Taylor, 376; scene from, pictured, cover, autumn issue, 375.
Old Fort, is visited by Moravian campers, 1874, 288, 289, 299; Round Knob Hotel, near, pictured, 289.
Old North State, The, is sung by Moravian campers, 1880, 313.
Old Point Comfort, Va., hotel there, advertises juniper water, 58n.
Old South, characteristics of, are seen in life of Griffith J. McRee, 1-23, passim; cultivation of rice in, discussed, 388-415, passim; experiences of Yankee tutor in, 1817-1818, described, discussed, 51-85, passim; manners of men and ladies of, in 1818, described by Yankee tutor, 66.
Old Town, briefly described, 303n; Moravian campers travel through, 1875, 303, 1878, 311.

XUM

Old-Topsail Inlet, act provides for building of fort at, 381.
Old Republicanism, is opposed in western N.C., 116.
Olds, Schuyler S., assistance of, is sought by Republicans, to avoid fusion, 249; letter to, from John B. Eaves, quoted, 250; Republican background of, described, 249; seeks opinions of N.C. Republicans, 249, 250.
Olsen, Otto, his contribution to reprint of American Reconstruction, 1865-1870, briefly reviewed, 232.
Onslow County, Whigs from, seek railroad trunk line, 356.
Orange County, history of, is in preparation, 278n.
Orange Presbytery, sends William D. Paisley to Moore County, 340.
Oratory in the Old South, 1828-1860, reviewed, 417.
Ordinance of 1784, democratic ideals embodied in, described, 168.
Ormsby, William P., marries Harriet Elfleda Fisher, 282n.
Osborn, Robert, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Osborne, William, his Man's Responsibility: An Ecumenical Study, briefly noted, 151.
Osgood, Samuel Stillman, his portrait of Louis Manigault, reproduced, 397.
Outer Banks, closing of inlets on, described, 60; provide haven for privateers, 379.
Overseers, on rice plantations, discussed, 401-415, passim.
Owen, Guy, his The White Stallion, briefly discussed, 136-137; receives Roanoke-Chowan Poetry Award, 134; pictured, 134.
Owen, John, discusses possibility of slave insurrection with General Assembly, 344; is supported by Sampson County Whigs, 351n.
Owens, William, purchases Beaufort land, 377.
Owsley, Harriet Chappell, her The South, Old and New Frontiers: Selected Essays of Frank Lawrence Owsley, reviewed, 421.

P

Pacifists, attitude of N.C. government toward, during American Revolution, described, 180-181.
Packquenel, Michael, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Paint Rock, is visited by Moravian travelers, 1874, 293.
Paint Rock Creek, is described by Moravian diarist, 1874, 294.
Paisley, Samuel, is minister at Union Presbyterian Church, Moore County, 366n.
Paisley, William D., is father of Samuel Paisley, 366n; serves Presbyterian congregations in Moore County, 340; teaches at Moore County Academy, 340.
"Palmyra," Patterson, described by Moravian diarist, 1874, 286-287.
Pamlico River, building of town of Bath on, described in letter, 233n; Robert Turner moves near, 371.
Pamlico Sound, is reached by Wysocking Canal, 64n.
Panic of 1819, creates local factionalism, 115.
Panic of 1893, embarrasses Cleveland administration, 246.
Papers of John C. Calhoun, The. Vol. IV. 1819-1820, reviewed, 216.
Papers of Thomas Jordan Jarvis, The. Vol. I. 1869-1882, reviewed, 88.
Park Hotel, Raleigh, is headquarters for 1894 Populist state convention, 260-262; pictured, 260.
Parker, Joseph, is guardian of Robert Joyner, 342; accounts of, are audited by Archibald Monk, 342.
Parker, Joseph D., is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Parker, Mattie Erma E., reviews The Jamestown Voyages under the First Charter, 1606-1609, Vols. I and II, 219.
Parmely, Jiles, sells Buffalo Creek tract to John Carver, 201.
Parramore, Thomas C., his The Ancient Maritime Village of Murfreesborough: 1787-1825, reviewed, 215; reviews Dr. Alexander Garden of Charles Town, 216.
Partisan War: The South Carolina Campaign of 1780-1782, The, briefly noted, 336.
Pasquotank, district of, is served by S.P.G. missionary James Adams, 236.
Pasquotank River, navigability of, in 1817, described in journal, 58.
Paterson, William, comments of, on South's understanding of democracy, 165.
Patrick Courthouse, Va., visit there, 1880, is described by Moravian diarist, 315.
Patrick Henry: Practical Revolutionary, reviewed, 219.
Patterson, brief history of, 286n.
Patterson, A. M., reviews An Affair of Honor, 223.
Patterson, Rufus L., is Winston-Salem druggist, 286n.
Patterson, Samuel Finley, brief sketch of, 286n; Moravians camp at home of, 1874, 286-287.
Patton, Frances Gray, is student of Frederick H. Koch, 157, 158.
Patton, James, is founder of Eagle Hotel, Asheville, 291n.
Patton, James W., builds summerhouse on Beaucatcher Mountain, 294n.
Patton, James W., reviews Tennessee: A Short History, 319.

Patton, William, brief sketch of, 296n; builds house in Black Mountains, 296.
Paul, Charles L., his "Beaufort, North Carolina: Its Development as a Colonial Town," 370-387; reviews The Ancient Maritime Village of Murfreesborough: 1787-1825, 215.
Peale, Charles Willson, paints portrait of Major Griffith John McRce, 2.
Pearson, Richmond, joins Populists on Metropolitan Hall platform, 260; receives support of Jeter C. Pritchard in congressional acre, 258n; receives political advice from Marion Butler, 257; wins congressional election in 1894, 269.
Peasley, William. See Paisley, William D.
Pender, John, acquires Beaufort property, 378n.
Pennsylvania, Baptist missionary from, visits Lake Mattamuskeet church, 71; Dunker settlements there, mentioned, 177-204, passim; John Jones is associate justice there, 52.
"People Divided, A," 161-175.
People in Power: Courthouse and Statehouse in the Lower South, 1850-1860, The, reviewed, 99.
"People's Ticket," 1824, sponsors presidential candidacy of Andrew Jackson, 116.
Perkins, Ann H., letters to, from North Carolina, published, 71, 75.
Perkins, Samuel Huntington, biographical sketch of, 51-54, passim; journals of, as tutor in Hyde County, 1817-1818, quoted, discussed, 51-85, passim; marries Charlotte E. Clarke, Mary F. Donnell, 81; travels of, in N.C., shown on map, 57.
Perquimans, precinct of, is served by S.P.G. missionary William Gordon, 236.
Perry, William, advertises for runaway slave, 63.
Person County, votes consistently Democratic in Whig era, 129.
Peterson, Merrill D., his Thomas Jefferson and the New Nation: A Biography, reviewed, 426.
Pettigrew, Charles, is elected first Episcopal bishop of N.C., 53n; viewpoint of, concerning treatment of slaves, quoted, 61n.
Pfaff, Peter, Dunkers purchase land near, 176.
Pfau. See also, Faw.
Pfau, Abraham, is son of Jacob Pfau, 181, 182.
Pfau, Adam, is son of Jacob Pfau, 182, 183.
Pfau, Anna Catherine, is daughter of Jacob Pfau, 181.
Pfau, Catherine, death of, 182.
Pfau, Elizabeth, is daughter of Jacob Pfau, 181.
Pfau, Isaac, is son of Jacob Pfau, 182.
Pfau, Jacob, emigration of, to N.C., discussed, 181-182; purchases lands from Moravians, 182; takes Anna Magdalena Yount as second wife, 182.
Pfau, Jacob, Jr., is son of Jacob Pfau, 182.
Pfau, Magdalane, daughter of Jacob Pfau, dies in England, 181.
Pfautz, Michael, reports on preaching of Universalist doctrine in N.C., 194.
Pfohl, Constance, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Phelps, John, purchases Beaufort property, 377; serves as deputy marshal of Carteret Precinct, 377.
Phenix Mountain, Dunkers settle near, 201.
Phifer, Edward W., reviews The Blue Ridge Parkway, 97.
Philadelphia, Samuel H. Perkins establishes legal practice there, 81.
Phillips, Charles, his controversy with Thomas L. Clingman, briefly described, 291n.
Philpot, John, copies of letter of, against Anabaptists, are sent to Carolinas by S.P.G., 235n.
Piedmont Springs, identified, 315n.
Pierce, Franklin, is opposed by Sampson County Whigs, 355; wins Sampson County vote, 356.
Pilot Mountain, ascent of, by Moravian campers, 1880, described, 312; is geographical landmark for Indians and early settlers, 304n; Moravian campers pass, en route to Virginia, 1875, 304, 1878, 309; pictured, 303, 312.
Piney Grove District, Sampson County, Archibald Monk operates general store there, 341.
Pinnacles of the Dan, Va., ascent of, by Moravian campers, described, 313; Moravians journey to, in 1880, 311-316.
Pitt County, has a majority of Whig voters, 129.
Pittsboro, academy there, is attended by Griffith J. McRee, 5.
Plantations on the Lower Cape Fear, 1725 to 1760, map of, reproduced, 4.
Planter's Northern Bride, The, briefly noted, 431.
Platts, Thomas, acquires Beaufort property, 377; serves as Beaufort constable, 377.
Pleasant Gardens, Moravian campers pass through, 1874, 300.
Politics, foundations of Whig party in N.C., 115-129; fusion of N.C. Republicans and Populists, discussed, 244-269, passim.
Polk, James K., wins Sampson County vote, 354n.
Polk, Leonidas L., leads Populist crusade against congressional legislation, 255n.
Polk, William, newspaper background of, described, 159.
Pool, John, loses gubernatorial election, 352n.
Poole, Herbert, reviews Slavery and the Emigration of North Carolina Friends, 416.

XUM

Poor white class, origin of, briefly discussed, 61.
Poplar Camp Mountain, Va., Moravian campers cross, 1875, 305.
Populist party, 1894 platform of, described, 245, discussed, 261-263; fusion of, with Republicans, 1893-1896, discussed, 244-269, passim; goes outside party for judiciary nominations, 260n; is led by Marion Butler, 255; meeting of state convention, Raleigh, 1894, discussed, 260-263.
Porter, David D., agrees to undertake assault on Fort Fisher, 25-26; approves Rhind's revised powder-boat scheme, 33; gives enthusiastic support to powder-boat scheme, 28-30; is appointed commander of North Atlantic Squadron, 25-27; lauds bravery of Rhind and Preston in powder-boat operation, 36-37; makes excuses for support of powder-boat scheme, 39; pictured, 29; undertakes powder-boat operation without army's knowledge, 33.
Porter, George Washington, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316; Moravian campers stop at home of, 1880, 316.
Porter, William Sydney, literary career of, briefly described, 157; pictured, 158.
Post office, Archibald Monk is employee of, 1848-1869, 368, 369.
Powder-boat scheme, failure of, described, 35-39; is devised for assault on Fort Fisher, 24-39, passim; reasons for failure of, analyzed, 38-39.
Powell, Eleanor Bizzell, her "Review of North Carolina Fiction, 1968-1969," 131-137.
Powell, Talmadge, his The Cage, is candidate for Sir Walter Raleigh Award, 135.
Powell, William S., his "North Carolina Bibliography, 1968-1969," 205-213; his The North Carolina Colony, briefly discussed, 133; his The North Carolina Gazetteer, briefly discussed, 150; reviews For the Colony in Virginea Britannia Laws Divine, Morall and Martiall, etc., 92.
Practice and Politics of Fiat Finance: North Carolina in the Confederation, 1783-1789, The, reviewed, 86.
Prefaces to History, reviewed, 334.
Presbyterian Church of Fayetteville, David D. Salmon is member of, 341; James D. Monk is member of, 341.
Presentor, Union Presbyterian Church, duties of, described, 340n.
Presidential Campaign of 1832, The, republication of, briefly noted, 232.
Presidential elections, of 1824, 1832, significance of, in N.C., discussed, 116, 117.
Preston, Samuel W., activities of, in exploding powder-boat, described, 34-35; is chosen by A. C. Rhind to assist in powder-boat operation, 31; is killed at second battle of Fort Fisher, 34; is praised by Admiral Porter, 36-37; pictured, 34.
Price, Charles L., his "Shock and Assault in the First Battle of Fort Fisher," 24-29.
Price, Reynolds, is student of William M. Blackburn, 158, 159; makes contribution to literature of N.C., 159, 160.
Price-Strother 1808 map, eastern portion of, reproduced, 57.
Prince, William Meade, republication of his The Southern Part of Heaven, briefly noted, 111.
Prince Frederick's Parish, S.C., Michael Smith is assigned to, by S.P.G., 238-240; vestry of, describes misconduct of Michael Smith, 240, locks out Michael Smith, 239.
Princeton University, is attended by Griffith J. McRee, 6-7.
Prisons, in colonial Beaufort, described, 378n, 379, 386.
Pritchard, Jeter C., is elected to U.S. Senate, 1894, 269; is identified with Republican Tariff League, Buncombe County, 248; is pleased with work of 1894 Republican state convention, 264; pictured, 262; pressures Eaves to call Republican strategy meeting, 258; Republican fusionists support U. S. senatorial candidacy of, 259; supports Richmond Pearson in congressional race, 258n; urges Republican-Populist coalition in 1894 campaigns, 257-258.
Prohibition, is major issue in 1928 presidential campaign, 42-50, passim; issue of, masks anti-Catholicism in Al Smith defeat, 42.
Prometheus, James Monroe is passenger in, 13; pictured, 11.
"Prometheus, The," by Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 12-13.
Promised Land: The History of the South Carolina Land Commission, 1869-1890, The, reviewed, 95.
Protestants, churches of, support prohibition, 40-50, passim.
PTA Impact: 50 Years in North Carolina, 1919-1969, mentioned, 151; reviewed, 90.
Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States: Lyndon B. Johnson . . . , January 1, to June 30, 1968 . . . , July 1, 1968, to January 20, 1969, reviewed, 429.
Pugh, Daniel S., is administrator of estate of Annanias Sadler, 85n.
Pullman Strike, repression of strikers during, divides Democratic party, 246.

Q

Quakers, beliefs of, are similar to those of Dunkers, 180, 181, influence Anglicans, 236; oppose missionary efforts of James Adams, 236; prevent establishment of Anglican church in North Carolina, 233; vote for William H. Crawford, 116.

Questionnaire, concerning North Carolina Historical Review and Carolina Comments, discussed, 270-280, passim.
Quincy, Josiah, his description of William Hill, quoted, 2.
Quinter, James, is quoted, concerning Dunker hymnals, 189.
Quithell, Benjamin, purchases Beaufort land, 377.

R

Racing River. See French Broad River.
Radical Republicans, refuse approval of John Baxter Eaves appointment, 244.
Radicalism, Racism, and Party Realignment: The Border States During Reconstruction, reviewed, 419.
Rainsford, Giles, is captured by Chowan Indians, 235, 236.
Ralan. See Rowland.
Raleigh, Episcopal School of N.C., 1830s, located there, 5; rebuilding of Capitol there, is opposed by Archibald Monk, 347; residents of, subscribe for Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 21; unfavorable report on, 1818, mentioned, 75.
Raleigh, Mr., Moravian campers stop at home of, 1880, 313.
Raleigh, Sir Walter, expeditions to N.C., financed by, described, 60n.
Raleigh Register, attacks Andrew Jackson over closing of Second Bank of U. S., 119; is quoted, concerning backwardness of N.C. in 1834, 122; supports Henry Clay, 120.
Randolph County, votes for William H. Crawford, 116.
Rankin, Hugh F., his The Golden Age of Piracy, reviewed, 104.
Ransom, Matt Whitaker, his feud with Zebulon B. Vance is publicized, 247; loses senatorial election in 1894, 269; pictured, 246.
Raper, Col., is mentioned in Moravian diary, 1875, 308.
Raper, Horace W., his "Accounts of Moravian Mountain Excursions of a Hundred Years Ago," 281-316; reviews Radicalism, Racism, and Party Realignment: The Border States During Reconstruction, 421.
Ray Stannard Baker . . . , briefly discussed, 147.
Reconstruction, management of Manigault rice plantations during, described, 412-413.
Reconstruction in Retrospect: Views from the Turn of the Century, reviewed, 100.
Records of a Nation: Their Management, Preservation, and Use, The, briefly discussed, 149-150.
Records of the Moravians in North Carolina, describe relationship with Dunkers, 176-204, passim; map in, showing Dunker settlements, described, 182; 1780 tax list in, includes Faw family, 182.
Records of the Moravians in North Carolina. Vol. XI. 1852-1879, reviewed, 86.
Records of the Socialist Labor Party of America: Guide to a Microfilm Edition, briefly reviewed, 432.
Ree Creek, Va., 307.
Reedy Creek, land on, is purchased by Dunkers, 178, 186, 190.
Rees, Daniel, builds Beaufort courthouse, 379.
Regulators, paper on, is read by Frederic Kidder, 23.
Rehder, Jessie, creative writing classes of, briefly discussed, 158, 159; pictured, 158.
Reich, Augusta, participates in Moravian camping excursion, 302-309, passim.
Reid, Christian, novels of, briefly described, 157.
Reid, David S., is first Democrat to defeat Whigs in gubernatorial election, 127; record of votes for, in Sampson County, noted, 354n, 355.
Religion, defeat of Al Smith is attributed to anti-Catholicism by W. J. Cash, 40, 42; importance of, in life of Archibald Monk, discussed, 340, 366-367; interest in, in Hugh Jones family, described, 71, 79; status of in N.C., in eighteenth century, discussed, 233-243, passim; "Two Eighteenth Century Dunker Congregations in North Carolina," 176-204.
Religious dissenters, attitude of N.C. government toward, during American Revolution, described, 180-181; prevent establishment of Anglican church in North Carolina, 233.
Renshaw, Abraham, is neighbor of John Ham, 192.
"Report to the Readers," 270-280.
Republican Congressional Committee, refuses to dictate state policies, 249n.
Republican party, captures state control following War of 1812, 115; decline of, from 1886, in N.C., described, 245; effect of 1860 victory on Wilmington residents, described, 21; 1894 platform of, described, 245; fusion of, with Populists, discussed, 244-269, passim; is denounced in 1894 Populist platform, 261; meeting of fusionist faction of, in Raleigh, 1894, described, 259-260; Rutherford County, is rejuvenated by John Baxter Eaves, 244; state losses of, in 1892 election charged to John Baxter Eaves, 244-269, passim.
"Republican Party Strategists and the Issue of Fusion with Populists in North Carolina, 1893-1894," 244-269.
Republican-Populist fusion, outcome of elections in 1894, described, 269.
Republican Tariff League, Buncombe County, is called lily white organization, 248.

XUM

Republicans, are attacked by Cleveland Star (Shelby), 45; seek military victories, to secure election of 1864, 24-26.
Research in Archives: The Use of Unpublished Primary Sources, reviewed, 230.
Reuter, Brother, surveys land for Dunkers, 176; witnesses deed to Jacob Schott, 177.
"Review of North Carolina Fiction, 1968-1969," 131-137.
"Review of North Carolina Nonfiction, 1968-1969," 145-151.
Rhind, Alexander C., activities of, in exploding powder-boat, described, 34-36; is chosen to command powder-boat operation, 31; is praised by Admiral Porter, 36-37; pictured, 34; reports to Admiral Porter on powder-boat scheme, 36-37; revises powder-boat scheme, 32-33.
Rice, barges used to transport, pictured, 392; clearing field for, pictured, 390; cultivation of, in Georgia, nineteenth century, 388-415, passim; flooded field of, pictured, 390; plantation scene, pictured, 392; processing for seed, pictured, 400; winnowing house for, pictured, 400.
Rice mill, converted to tavern, pictured, 395; cross section of, pictured, 395.
Rice planters, living conditions of, discussed, 391-415, passim.
Richmond, hears of impending Union naval attack on Wilmington, 26.
Right Time, The, briefly discussed, 146.
Ripley, Warren, his Artillery and Ammunition of the Civil War, reviewed, 418.
"Rip Van Winkle State," is appellation given to N.C., 51; reasons for nickname, discussed, 121-122.
Rise of Massive Resistance: Race and Politics in the South During the 1950's, The, reviewed, 329.
Roads, in area of colonial Beaufort, described, 374, 383.
Roanoke-Chowan award, candidates for, discussed, 131, 136-137.
Roanoke Island, is described by Samuel H. Perkins, 1817, 58-61; is subject of book by Thomas Hariot, 155; mistreatment of slave there, 1817, 1818, described, 59, 75.
Roberson, Walter, his portrait of Gabriel Manigault II, reproduced, 397.
Robinson, Blackwell P., his The North Carolina Adventure, briefly reviewed, 110; reads paper in behalf of Richard Bardolph, 145n.
Robinson, Joseph T., is vice-presidential candidate in 1928, 44.
Robinson, William, serves as Beaufort commissioner, 385.
Rockingham County, votes consistently Democratic in Whig era, 129.
Rockridge Alum Springs, Va., briefly described, 307n.
Rocky Ford, Moravian campers cross the Catawba at, 288.
Rooke, Leon, his Last One Home Sleeps in the Yellow Bed, briefly discussed, 135-136; makes contribution to literature of N.C., 160.
Roper, Thomas, lives near Bath, 370n; purchases Beaufort land, 370n.
Rose-Bay Turnpike, Hyde County, plantation on, is willed to Ann Jones, 82.
Rothrock, Ed., is driver for Moravian mountain excursion, 302-311, passim.
"Rough & Ready" Mountain Club, Salem, excursion of, described, 281-316.
Round Knob Hotel, pictured, 289.
Rounds, Glen, his Wild Horses of the Red Desert, briefly discussed, 131.
Rover, Mr. Lineback's dog, is lost in Black Mountains, 299; returns to Salem home, 302.
Rowan County, land transactions in, by Dunkers, described, 178-204, passim.
Rowland, Gasper, buys Buffalo Creek tract from John Carver, 201; is leader of Dutchman's Creek and Flat Rock Dunker congregations, 203; moves to Kentucky, 201.
Rowland, Joseph, witnesses deed to John Ham, 192.
Royal, John, purchases Beaufort lots, 371.
Royall, Anne Newport, her Letters from Alabama, 1817-1822, reviewed, 417.
Rubin, Louis D., Jr., his A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Southern Literature, reviewed, 103; his George W. Cable: The Life and Times of a Southern Heretic, reviewed, 227.
Rundell, Walter, Jr., his In Pursuit of American History: Research and Training, reviewed, 333.
Russell, R. B., edits Maxton Blade, 267; urges Negroes to vote straight Republican ticket, 267.
Russell's Magazine, ignores publication of Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 21.
Rustull, Richard, Beaufort court meets at home of, 373; increases area of Beaufort, 374; is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373, justice, 372; purchases Beaufort land from Robert Turner, 371; sells Beaufort land for courthouse, 373; sells portion of Beaufort lands, 374, 376.
Rutherford, Mr., of Bridgewater, mentioned in Moravian journal, 1874, 300.
Rutherford County, Republican party there, is rejuvenated by John Baxter Eaves, 244.

S

Sadler, Annanias, is trustee for property of Frances Jones McCauley, 85n.
St. James Episcopal Church, Lenoir, owns art work of J. A. S. Oertel, 287n.

St. James's Parish, New Hanover County, is served by missionary Michael Smith, 241.
St. Johns River, is southern extremity for growth of rice, 388.
St. John's Parish, churchwardens of, named, 373; is made official church organization for Carteret Precinct, 373; John Shackleford is vestryman for, 373n.
St. Patrick's Parish, Johnston County, creation of, noted, 241n; is served by missionary Michael Smith, 241.
St. Stephen's Parish, Johnston County, creation of, noted, 241n.
St. Thomas, Bath, parish of, receives library from Thomas Bray, 234.
Salem, briefly described, 303n; Dunker settlements near, discussed, 176-204, passim; home of R. P. Lineback is located there, 302; Moravian campers return to, 1874, 302, 1875, 309, 1878, 311, 1880, 316; pictured, 1882, 314.
Salem, Va., Moravian campers stop at, 1878, 310.
Salem Academy, faculty and students of, join mountain excursions, 281-316.
Salmon, David D., brief sketch of, 341; is partner with Archibald Monk in mercantile business, 340-341.
Salmon & Monk, Fayetteville, advertisement of, quoted, 340-341.
Salter, James, superintends building of Beaufort prison, 379.
Salter, John, purchases Beaufort property, 377.
Sampson County, activities of Whigs there, described, 350-356; career of Archibald Monk in, discussed, 341-369, passim; Civil War activities there, briefly described, 368; common school system there, 1840-1869, discussed, 356-369, passim; is represented in House of Commons by Archibald Monk, 344-351; passes resolutions against abolitionists, 345; residents of, fear slave insurrection, 344, vote for public school system, 349; slave insurrection in, 1831, described, 345; taxes levied in, for use of common schools, discussed, 359-366, passim.
Sampson County Agricultural Society, Archibald Monk is member of, 367, 368n.
Sandburg, Carl, makes contributions to literature of N.C., 159.
Sanders, Samuel, leads Catawba River Dunker settlement, 203.
Sandford, John William, home of, in Fayetteville, pictured, 119; is cashier of Second Bank of U. S., Fayetteville, 119.
Sankey, Ira David, hymns of, are sung by Moravian campers, 311.
Sapio, Victor, reviews The Practice and Politics of Fiat Finance: North Carolina in the Confederation, 1783-1789, 86.
Sappington, Roger E., his "Two Eighteenth Century Dunker Congregations in North Carolina," 176-204.
Saunders, Mrs., Moravian campers visit with, near Austinville, Va., 1875, 308.
Saunders, Romulus M., is antebellum historian, 1.
Sauthier, C. J., his map of Beaufort, described, 374n, 382.
Savage, H. R., becomes cashier of Cape Fear Bank, 13.
Savage, Jackson, is employed on Manigault plantation by George P. Harrison, 413; Manigault slave, is sold, 406.
Savage and Co., failure of, mentioned, 13.
Savannah River, rice cultivation on, by Manigaults, discussed, 394-415, passim; rice mill on, pictured, 395.
"Scandal in Carolina: The Story of a Capricious Missionary," 233-243.
Schaw, Janet, diary of, mentioned, 3n.
Schaw, Robert, is prerevolutionary owner of "Schawfields," 3n.
"Schawfields," is owned by Griffith J. McRee, 3, 7; location of, is shown on map, 4.
Schlegel, Marvin W., reviews The Confederate Negro: Virginia's Craftsmen and Military Laborers, 1861-1865, 93.
School funds, difficulties in distribution of, in antebellum period, discussed, 360-364, passim.
School History of the Negro Race in the United States . . . , A, is adopted for use in N.C. Negro schools, 266, 267, title page of, reproduced, 266.
Schoolhouse, is given to Sampson County, by Archibald Monk, 357; type built in Sampson County, 1859, described, 363.
Schott. See also Schutz, Sheet, Shutz.
Schott, name appears on 1780 Moravian map, 177.
Schott, Jacob, purchases Moravian land, 176.
Schutz, Jacob, Moravians survey land for, 176.
Schweinitz, Anna Pauline de, brief sketch of, 302n; participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 1875, 302-309, passim.
Schweinitz, Emily Louisa de, brief sketch of, 302n; participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 1875, 302-309, passim.
Science Treasures, briefly discussed, 133.
Scott, Andrew, property of, in New Bern, is purchased by Hugh Jones, 83.
Scott, Winfield, is supported by Sampson County Whigs, 355; wins Sampson County vote, 356.
Second Bank of the United States, closing of, by Andrew Jackson, discussed, 118-119; Fayetteville branch, pictured, 119; is popular in N.C., 118-120.
Second Congressional District, Henry P.

XUM

Cheatham wins Republican nomination in, 266.
Sectionalism, as a factor in formation of Whig party in N.C., discussed, 115-129, passim; evidence of, in voting on constitutional reforms, 123n; leads to Constitutional Convention of 1835, 122-123.
Secularization and the University, briefly noted, 150.
Seidel, Nathaniel, sells land to John Miller, Sr., 185.
Selby, T. H., proves will of Hugh Jones in court, 85.
Semonche, John E., his Ray Stannard Baker . . . , briefly discussed, 147.
Senate, reapportionment of, by Convention of 1835, described, 122-123.
Senseman, William, marries Jessie Winkler, 311n.
Serman, Peter, Hugh Jones buys Hyde County land from, 82.
Settle, Thomas, formulates strategy for Republican party, 1890s, 249; is named as Republican party conciliator, 252; letter to, from R. H. W. Leak, supporting fusion, quoted, 267; receives advice from Marion Butler, 257, 264n; supports repeal of Sherman Silver Purchase Act, 257; wins congressional election in 1894, 269.
Shackleford, John, is early settler in Beaufort area, 373n.
Shadwell, Wendy J., her American Printmaking: The First 150 Years, reviewed, 228.
Shallow Ford, brief history of, 283n; is crossed by Moravian excursionists, 1874, 283.
Sharon, Va., Moravian campers stop at, 1875, 307-308.
Sharpe, J. Sam, edits Wilmington Herald, 267; predicts Negroes will vote straight Republican ticket, 267.
Shaw, Bynum, his The Nazi Hunter, briefly discussed, 135, receives Sir Walter Raleigh Award, 134; pictured, 134.
Shaw, John, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Sheet. See also Schott, Schutz.
Sheet, John Jacob, owns land adjoining George Tanner, 177.
Shelby, is home of O. Max Gardner, 44-45; W. J. Cash edits newspaper there, 40-50, passim.
Shenandoah County, Va., Annual Meeting of Dunkers, 1794, held there, 194, 198.
Shepert, David, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Sherman Silver Purchase Act, repeal of, disillusions small income voters, 246, is supported by Thomas Settle, 257.
Sherman, William T., army of, crosses Sampson County, 368, destroys Manigault rice plantations, 411.
Shiloh Presbyterian Church, Clinton, Charles Owen Augustus Monk is member of, 366n.
"Shock and Assault in the First Battle of Fort Fisher," 24-39.
Shoemaker, Sally, 203.
Shore, Francis Jacob, is husband of Cynthia Thomas, 281; marries Emma Cornelia Kimel, 283.
Shore, Jinas (Jonas), participates in Moravian camping trips to Virginia, 1878, 1880, 309-316, passim.
Shubridge, William, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Shuford, Alonzo C., wins congressional election in 1894, 269.
Shumway, George, his Longrifles of North Carolina, reviewed, 214.
Signal (Raleigh), is edited by James H. Young, 267; supports Republican-Populist fusion, 267.
"Silk Hope," furnishes seed rice for other Manigault plantations, 400; is acquired by Gabriel Manigault, 393; is given to Elizabeth and Charles Manigault, 394; is part of Francis Marion National Forest, 415n; is purchased by Nathaniel Heyward, 393; Manigault transfers slaves there, during Civil War, 410, 411; rice cultivation there, discussed, 394-415, passim; slaves from, are transferred to "Gowrie," 402.
Silver, James W., reviews Democracy in the Old South and Other Essays by Fletcher Melvin Green, 103.
Simmons, Furnifold M., article on, by W. J. Cash, is published in American Mercury, 40, 41, 49-50; joins Anti-Smith faction, 44.
Simmons, R. L., rejects Al Smith candidacy on religious grounds, 45-46.
Simpson, John, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Sir Walter Raleigh Award, candidates for, discussed, 131, 135-136; is presented to Bynum Shaw, for The Nazi Hunter, 134.
Sittig, Sadie, becomes wife of William Ithiel Brooks, 311n.
Sketches of Western North Carolina . . . , briefly reviewed, 336.
Skinner, Harry, addresses 1894 Populist convention in Raleigh, 261; wins congressional election in 1894, 269.
Skinner, K. Washington, is overseer on Manigault rice plantation, 401n, 407.
Slave insurrection, in eastern N.C., 1831, described, 345-346; is anticipated, 62n, 344.
Slave patrol system, described, 344n; strengthening of, is sought by easterners, 344-345.
Slavery, N.C. Whigs support extension of, 129; opinions of Samuel H. Perkins concerning, described, 54-85, passim.
Slavery and the Emigration of North Carolina Friends, reviewed, 416.

Slaves, advertisements for runaways, reproduced, 63; are ministered to by S.P.G. missionaries, 235; are owned by Margaret Carpenter Miller, 203; cruelty to, on Roanoke Island, 1817, described by Samuel H. Perkins, 59, 75; N.C. laws concerning freeing of, described, 60-61n; of Charles Manigault, work on Savannah fortifications in Civil War, 411; provisions for, on rice plantations discussed, 398n, 401-402; quarters of, on a rice plantation, pictured, 409; runaways, find haven in Dismal Swamp, 56, 62; treatment of, by Charles Manigault, discussed, 398, 401-406, 409-410; use of, by Archibald Monk, described, 345-346; use of, in obtaining Dismal Swamp lumber, 1817, described, 56, 58; use of, on rice plantations, discussed, 388-415, passim.

Smiley, David L., reviews The New South Creed: A Study in Southern Mythmaking, 423.

Smith, Alfred E., defeat of, is attributed to anti-Catholicism, by W. J. Cash, 40, 42, 48; is 1928 Democratic presidential candidate, 40-50, passim.

Smith, Betty, is student of Frederick H. Koch, 157, 158.

Smith, Harry E., his Secularization and the University, briefly noted, 150.

Smith, Isaac H., repudiates Republican-Populist fusion, 267.

Smith, Michael, activities of, as S.P.G. missionary in N.C., discussed, 239-243, in S. C., discussed, 238-240; brief sketch of, 238; defense of, against dismissal by S.P.G., described, 241-243; preaches sermon before governor and assembly, 1756, 240; serves as chaplain on man of war, 243; S.P.G. description of career of, quoted, 243n; title page of sermon of, preached in New Bern, 1755, reproduced, 239; report of, to S.P.G., on religion in N.C., 1758, described, 240.

Smith, Mr., Lutheran minister, Moravian campers stop near home of, 1874, 301.

Smith, Robert, is father of missionary Michael Smith, 238.

Smith, W. B., makes loan to Louis Manigault, 413.

Smith Grove, Moravian campers pass through, 1874, 302.

Smithville, 13.

Smyth, Gertrude, marries Franz Grunert, 282n.

Snake Creek, Va., Moravians camp on, 1880, 313.

Snead, Franklin, serves Whig party in Sampson County, 351.

Snyder, Joel, Moravian campers stop at home of, 303.

Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, purpose in organizing of, described, 234; seal of, reproduced, cover, summer issue; sends missionaries to North Carolina, 233-243.

Solid South, anti-Catholicism of, defeats Al Smith, 42; voting pattern of, is broken in 1928, 48-49.

Somerset, Henry, Duke of Beaufort, pictured, 372; town of Beaufort is named in honor of, 372.

Sours, Mrs., Moravian campers stop at home of, 1874, 283.

South Carolina, calls for nullification convention, 117; Dunker settlements there, are destroyed by Universalist doctrines, 191, 199; nullification views of, are lampooned by Griffith J. McRee, 10; receives favored treatment by Lords Proprietors and Church of England, 235; rice cultivation is established there, 388; rice production in, declines, 389n, 415.

South Carolinians, reactionary attitudes of, are ridiculed, 43.

South Fork, Muddy Creek, is called Ens Creek, by Moravians, 176.

South, Old and New Frontiers: Selected Essays of Frank Lawrence Owsley, The, reviewed, 421.

South Washington, N.C., free mulatto there, divulges insurrection plan, 345.

South Yadkin Creek, is crossed by Moravian campers, 301.

Southern confederacy, development of, is predicted by William Gaston, 118n.

Southern Literary Messenger, ignores publication of Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 21.

Southern Part of Heaven, The, republication of, briefly noted, 111.

Southerners, indolent characteristics of, described by Yankee tutor, 60, 61.

Spaight, Richard Dobbs, death of, in duel, mentioned, 54.

Spalding, Phinizy, his The Merit and Reward of a Good Intention: A Sermon Preached Before the Trustees of the Colony of Georgia on March 18, 1742, reviewed, 224.

Spanish-American War, North Carolina's role in, is to be subject of pamphlet, 278n.

Spanish privateer, Nuestra Senora de Cavadonga, pictured, 380.

Spanish privateers, activities of, on N.C. coast, described, 379-381; capture schooner off Bogue Inlet, 379; invade Beaufort, 380-381.

Sparks, Jared, historical work of, is compared to that of Griffith J. McRee, 17.

Sparks Creek, land on, is part of estate of John Miller, Sr., 184, 202; and transactions on, by Jehu Burkhart, described, 185, 186.

Sparrow, Thomas, advertises for runaway slave, 63.

XUM

Spencer, Samuel, unfavorable opinion of, by Griffith J. McRee, noted, 19.
Spencer, Warren F., his The United States and France: Civil War Diplomacy, reviewed, 423.
Spirit of the South (Rockingham), comments on Republican-Populist fusion issue, 250.
Spring Vale Academy, Sampson County, is attended by Archibald Monk's children, 366n.
Sprunt, James, influence of Griffith J. McRee on career of, suggested, 23.
Squibs, by Griffith J. McRee, critique of, 9-10; page of, reproduced, 11.
Squirrel Gap Road, Va., is traveled over, by Moravian campers, 1880, 313.
Stanly, Edward, marries Julia Jones, 69n, 83n.
Stanly, John, brief sketch of, 53-54; courtroom manner of, described by Samuel H. Perkins, 68-69; his description of William Gaston, quoted, 68n.
Stanly, Mrs. John, briefly described, 69n.
Stanly (Stanley) Family and the Historic John Wright Stanly House, The, briefly reviewed, 231.
Stanton, Edwin, reluctantly approves Union naval attack on Wilmington, 25.
Star (Raleigh) attacks Andrew Jackson over closing of Second Bank of U.S., 119.
Starbuck, Clarkson, is brother of Grace Starbuck, 282n.
Starbuck, Grace, brief sketch of, 282n; owns slides of Salem camping parties, 281n.
Starbuck, Junius, brief sketch of, 282n.
State funds, use of, by commissioners of public works, is subject of legislation, 346.
State lands, sale of, for benefit of Literary Fund, is sought by Archibald Monk, 348-349.
State v. Nicey Goslin, alias Nicey Merret, trial in New Bern, 1818, summarized, 68n.
States' rights, national convention to discuss, is sought by Archibald Monk, 1832, 346-347; supported by Nathaniel Macon and Bedford Brown, 117.
Statesville, is described by Moravian diarist, 1874, 301; is home of John James Mott, 252n, 254.
Stauber, Sam, Moravian campers stop at home of, 1875, 303, 309, 1880, 311.
Steamboats, are acquired by Wilmington, 12-13.
Steelman, Joseph F., his "Republican Party Strategists and the Issue of Fusion with Populists in North Carolina, 1893-1894," 244-269; reviews What the University of North Carolina Meant to Me . . . , 318.
Steele, Max, makes contributions to literature of N.C., 159.
Steiner, Abraham, visits Ashe County Dunkers, 201.
Stem, Thad, his A Flagstone Walk, briefly discussed, 136; his PTA Impact: 50 Years in North Carolina, 1919-1969, is candidate for Mayflower Award, 151, reviewed, 90.
Stevens, William Oliver, his An Affair of Honor, reviewed, 222.
Still, William N., Jr., reviews Confederate Supply, 98.
Stillingfleet, Bishop, works of, on Anabaptists, are sent to Carolinas by S.P.G., 236n.
Stitt, Susan, her Museum of Early Southern Decorative Arts, briefly reviewed, 430.
Stockton, Henry, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Stokes County, land transactions there, among Dunkers, described, 176-204, passim; Moravian campers travel through, 1878, 309, 1880, 315.
Stoltz, William Alexander, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Strachey, William, his For the Colony in Virginea Britannia Laws Divine, Morall and Martiall, etc., reviewed, 91.
Strey, Robert, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Strong, George V., addresses Whig rally, 355n.
Strowd, William F., wins congressional election in 1894, 269.
Strupe, Lavinia, participates in Moravian mountain excursion, 1875, 302-309, passim.
Study of Negro Folksongs . . . , A, 151.
Sturgill, Claude C., his "Shock and Assault in the First Battle of Fort Fisher," 24-39.
Stutzman, Brother, reports on preaching of Universalist doctrines among N.C. Dunkers, 194.
Stutzman, Jacob, is leader of Ewarrie (Uwharrie) Dunker congregation, 203; purchases land from Christian Leatherman, 190.
Styron, William, is student of William M. Blackburn, 158, 159.
Suggs, Simon, literary character, is created by Johnson Jones Hooper, 6.
Suicide, among slaves, described, 64, 406.
Superior Court, sessions of, in New Bern (1818), described, 68-69.
Supreme Court of N.C., William Gaston serves as justice on, 53.
Surgical instruments, property of Hugh Jones, are sold at auction, 84.
Surry County, land purchases there, by Dunkers, described, 176-204, passim; Moravian campers travel through, 1875, 304, 1878, 309, 1880, 312.
Swain, David Lowry, blames legislature for backwardness of N.C., 122; Griffith J. McRee collects North Caroliniana for, 14; is antebellum historian, 1; is friend and adviser of Griffith J. McRee, 6-22, passim.
Swamps, scene in, in Tidewater N.C., pictured, 65; use of, in cultivation of rice, discussed, 388-415, passim.

Swannanoa Gap, is crossed by Moravian campers, 1874, 299.
Swannanoa River, is described by Moravian diarist, 1874, 291, 294, 296.
Swindell, Rebecca, supplies information concerning Hyde County history, 71n, 72, 73.

T

Taney, Roger Brooke, sanctions withdrawals from Second Bank of U. S., 119.
Tanner, George, Dunker heritage of, traced, 177; land of, adjoins tract of Jacob Schott, 177; Moravians survey land for, 176; sells Stokes County land to Jonathan Miller, 202.
Tanner, Henry, is member of Little Conewago, Pa., Dunker congregation, 177.
Tanner, Jacob, is a leader in Frederick County, Md., Dunker congregation, 177.
Tanner, James, owns land on Town Fork, 192.
Tanner, John, establishes Dunker settlements in Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky, Missouri, 177; owns land in Muddy Creek area, 177; preaches in N.C., 177; sells land to Jehu Burkhart, 177, 185, 187.
Tanner, Michael, is Pennsylvania Dunker, 177.
Tariff, is acceptable in N.C., on basis of surplus distribution, 127; legislation for, is consistently opposed by N.C. delegates, 117n.
Tarlton, W. S., reviews Longrifles of North Carolina, 214.
Taxes, levying of, in colonial Beaufort, described, 379, 380; levying of, in Sampson County, for common schools, discussed, 357-369, passim; levying of, on religious dissenters, during American Revolution, discussed, 180-181.
Taylor, John Louis, acknowledges deed of John Jones, 53; presides at New Bern trials, 1818, 68n.
Taylor, Nathaniel, purchases Beaufort lots from Richard Rustull, 376; sells Beaufort property to Thomas Martin, 378; success of, in developing colonial Beaufort, discussed, 376-378.
Taylor, Peter, makes contribution to literature of N.C., 159.
Taylor, Raymond M., his History of the North Carolina Supreme Court Library, briefly reviewed, 335.
Taylor, Zachary, loses Sampson County vote, 354n; wins Whig vote in N.C., in 1848, 128.
Teach, Edward, visits Beaufort harbor, 1718, 371.
Teachers, examining committees established for, 359-360; salaries of, in antebellum period, discussed, 362, 364; shortage of, in Sampson County, described, 359-360.
Tennessee: A Short History, reviewed, 318.
Texas, briefly discussed, 135.
Textbooks, diversity of, in common school system, discussed, 360.
Textile Industry in Antebellum South Carolina, The, reviewed, 93.
Thalian Society, Wilmington, described, 5.
Their Tattered Flags, reviewed, 324.
Theus, Jeremiah, his portrait of Gabriel Manigault, reproduced, 397.
They Came to Louisiana: Letters of a Catholic Mission, 1854-1882, reviewed, 322.
This Snake is Good, briefly discussed, 132.
Thomas, Cynthia, becomes second wife of Francis Jacob Shore, 281, 283n; is supposed author of Moravian excursion diaries, 281; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-316, passim.
Thomas Jefferson and the New Nation: A Biography, reviewed, 426.
Thomas, John Wesley, joins Moravian campers, on visit to Natural Bridge, Va., 1878, 309-311.
Thomas Wolfe Literary Award, 1969, is presented to Harley E. Jolley for The Blue Ridge Parkway, 151.
Thompson, William, serves as Beaufort commissioner, 385.
Tillett, Lowell, his The Great Friendship: Soviet Historians of the Non-Russian Nationalities, 148.
Tilley, Nannie M., reviews William Tatham and the Culture of Tobacco, 221.
Tillman, "Pitchfork Ben," 43n.
Time to Speak, A, 151.
Toni's Tale, briefly discussed, 132.
Tooze, Ruth, her The Dragon Tree, briefly discussed, 133; her True Tales of Turtle, briefly discussed, 131.
Topsail Inlet, settlement within, at Beaufort, is significant in N.C. history, 386-387.
Tories Den, is visited by Moravian campers, 1880, 315.
Transportation, in eastern N.C., 1817, described, 55-85, passim.
Trelease, Allen W., reviews The Facts of Reconstruction, 327.
Trinton, Mr., 75.
Trott, Nicholas, appeals for tracts against Anabaptists, 235n.
Trover, trial over capture of, 1814, described, 68n.
True Tales of Turtle, briefly discussed, 131.
Tubb, Edward, deleterious effect of Michael Smith on life of, described, 240.
Tucker, Glenn, his The War of 1812: A Compact History, reviewed, 107.
Tucker, W. R., purchases Henry Clay portrait, 126.
Tuning fork, used by Dunkers, pictured, 189.
Turner, Nat, news of insurrection of, reaches N.C., 345.

XUM

Turner, Robert, is founder of Beaufort, 370; moves to Pamlico River area, 371; sells Beaufort land to Richard Rustull, 371; success of, in development of Beaufort, discussed, 370-371.
Tuscarora Language, The, publication of, briefly noted, 109.
Tuscarora War, brings religious chaos in N.C., 236.
Twentieth Century, The, briefly noted, 151.
"Two Eighteenth Century Dunker Congregations in North Carolina," 176-204.
Tyler, John, vice-presidential candidacy of, is supported by Sampson County Whigs, 352.
Tysor, Grace Green, her History of Pleasant Hill Methodist Church, briefly reviewed, 336.

U

U.S.S. Kansas, is used in powder-boat operation at Fort Fisher, 34.
U.S.S. Malvern, is flagship of Admiral Porter, 36; is formerly Ella and Annie, 36; pictured, 36.
U.S.S. Niphon, captures blockade-runner Ella and Annie, 36.
U.S.S. Wilderness, is escort vessel, in powder-boat operation, 32-36.
Udry, Janice May, her Glenda, briefly discussed, 133.
Underwood, Timothy, receives Whig party nomination, Sampson County, 353.
Union Presbyterian Church, Moore County, Archibald Monk becomes member of, 366; is served by Samuel Paisley, 366n; is served by William D. Paisley, 340; portion of cemetery there, pictured, 368.
Union Republican (Winston), opposes fusion with Populists, 250; supports anti-fusionist stance of John B. Eaves, 257n.
United States and France: Civil War Diplomacy, The, reviewed, 423.
United States Supreme Court, conservative decisions of, in 1890s, described, 253.
Universalism, doctrines of, threaten Dunker congregations, 190-199.
University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, Angus Currie McNeill is graduate of, 366n; importance of, in literary productivity of North Carolinians, briefly discussed, 157-159.
University of North Carolina Magazine, comments on McRee's Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 18.
Urmston, John, brief sketch of, 236n; is only Anglican missionary in N.C. in 1717, 236.
Urner, Martin, is advised of preaching of Universalist doctrines in N.C., 194.
Urofsky, Melvin I., his Big Steel and the Wilson Administration: A Study in Business-Government Relations, reviewed, 108.
Uwharrie River, Dunker congregation on, is led by Jacob Stutzman, 203; Dunkers from settlement on, buy land in Wachovia, 176.

V

Van Buren, Martin, candidacy of, is supported in Sampson County, 351; criticism of, by Sampson County Whigs, quoted, 352; is opposed by John Branch faction, 117; is subject of cartoon, on ministerial appointment, 121.
Vance, James S., editor of Fellowship Forum, is attacked by W. J. Cash, 47.
Vance, Joseph Addison, brief sketch of, 282n.
Vance, Zebulon B., death of, noted, 269; his feud with Matt W. Ransom, is publicized, 247; pictured, 246.
Vanderwood, Paul J., his Night Riders of Reelfoot Lake, reviewed, 223.
Vandiver, Frank E., his Their Tattered Flags, reviewed, 324.
Van Etten, Samuel, testifies against John Ham, at 1798 Dunker meeting, 198.
Veach, Sam, joins Moravian campers, on visit to Natural Bridge, Va., 1878, 309-311.
Venters, Leonard, criticism of, by Charles Manigault, quoted, 408; is overseer on Manigault rice plantation, 408.
Vestry acts, passed by North Carolina's colonial assembly, described, 233n.
Vick, Samuel H., repudiates Republican-Populist fusion strategy, 267.
Virginia, Confederate army there, is supplied through port of Wilmington, 24; Dunker settlements there, mentioned, 177-204, passim; Giles Rainsford flees to safety there, 235, 236; Methodist bishop there, distributes anti-Catholic pamphlet, 48; rice cultivation is unsuccessful there, 388; traveling conditions in, following Reconstruction era, described, 281, 302-316, passim.
Vogler, Maria E., brief sketch of, 282n; participates in Moravian mountain excursions, 282-309, passim.

W

Wachovia, Moravians sell land to Dunkers there, 176.
Wachovia Loan and Trust Company, 302n.
Wachovia National Bank, 302n.
Waddell, Alfred Moore, influence of Griffith J. McRee on career of, suggested, 23; map from his A History of New Hanover County, reproduced, 4.
Wake County, Edward A. Johnson heads Republican committee there, 267.
Waldenses of Burke County, The, briefly reviewed, 110.
Walker, L., is rejected as cashier of Cape Fear Bank, 13.
Wallace, David, adventures of, on Lake Mattamuskeet, 1818, described, 71-72; is a neighbor and friend of Hugh Jones, 61; is father of Harriet Wallace, 53.

Wallace, Harriet, becomes friend of Samuel H. Perkins, 79; flirtations of, described by Yankee tutor, 53.
Walser, F. T., supports straight Republican ticket, 250.
Walser, Richard, reviews Witches and Demons in Folklore and History, 90.
Walser, Zebulon Vance, refuses to endorse Republican fusionists' tactics, 259.
Walter Hines Page: Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, reviewed, 428.
Walters, Dennis, Jr., reviews Artillery and Ammunition of the Civil War, 419.
Walton, Brian G., reviews The Papers of John C. Calhoun, Vol. IV. 1819-1820, 217.
Walton, brothers, residences of, at Morganton, described by Moravian diarist, 1874, 300.
Walton House, Morganton, Moravian campers rest there, 1874, 288.
War in the South: The Carolinas and Georgia in the American Revolution, The, briefly reviewed, 112.
War of 1812, is not supported by Federalist party, 115, North Carolina's role in, is to be subject of pamphlet, 278n; use of Dismal Swamp Canal during, described, 56.
War of 1812: A Compact History, The, reviewed, 107.
War of Independence, effect of, on pacifist religious groups in N.C., discussed, 179-181, 194.
War of Jenkins' Ear, effect of, on N.C., described, 379.
War of Regulation, grievances of, compared to situation in 1830s, 122.
Ward, Ed., is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Ward, Enoch, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373, justice, 372; leads militia against Spanish privateers, 380-381; superintends building of Beaufort prison, 379.
Ward Swamp, Sampson County, Archibald Monk owns plantation on, 343.
Waring, Joseph I., his The first Voyage and Settlement at Charles Town, 1670-1680, briefly noted, 336.
Warm Springs. See Hot Springs.
Warmbrodt, Sue, her Records of the Socialist Labor Party of America: Guide to a Microfilm Edition, briefly noted, 432.
Warren County, Nathaniel Macon is native of, 115.
Washington, George, conservative ideas of, in his Farewell Address, discussed, 172-173; letters of, are censored before publication, 17.
Washington Quadrille: The Dance Beside the Documents, briefly discussed, 147.
Watson, Rachel, is named in will of Joseph Ham, 191.
Watson, Richard L., Jr., reviews Big Steel and the Wilson Administration: A Study in Business-Government Relations, 109.
Wayne County, Whigs from, meet at Newton Grove, 355.
Waynesville, is home of James M. Moody, 263.
Weathers, Lee B., is publisher of Cleveland Star (Shelby), 45.
Weaver, is Dunker name listed on N.C. 1790 census, 200.
Weaver, Herbert, his Correspondence of James K. Polk. Volume I, 1817-1832, reviewed, 321.
Webb, James W., reviews They Came to Louisiana: Letters of a Catholic Mission, 1854-1882, 323.
Webster, John, purchases Beaufort land, 377.
Wehlitz, Lou Rogers, her Memory is a Star, briefly discussed, 137.
Weigley, Russell F., his The Partisan War: The South Carolina Campaign of 1780-1782, briefly noted, 336.
Weir, Robert M., his "A Most Important Epocha": The Coming of the Revolution in South Carolina, briefly noted, 336; reviews Empire and Interest: The American Colonies and the Politics of Mercantilism, 333.
Weiser, Conrad, is party to Dunker controversy at Ephrata, Pa., 191.
Weitzel, Godfrey, authority of, is undermined by General Butler, 32; discusses powder-boat scheme with Admiral Porter, 28; is assigned to army command, in support of Union naval assault on Fort Fisher, 26; is ordered to move troops into Fort Fisher area, 31.
Welch, D. P., is a descendant of Jonathan Miller, 203.
Welch, Fred, acquires Flat Rock land of Jonathan Miller, 203.
Welles, Gideon, is unenthusiastic about powder-boat scheme, 28; receives report on powder-boat operation, 37; seeks army support, for Union naval attack on Wilmington, 25-26.
Wellman, Manly Wade, his Mountain Feud and Carolina Pirate, briefly discussed, 133.
West Bend, Moravian travelers visit, 1784, 283.
West Indies, trade of, with Wilmington, mentioned, 5.
Westbrook, Captain, is in charge of Sampson County militia company, 342.
Westbrooks District, Sampson County, Archibald Monk owns plantations in, 342-369, passim; Archibald Monk's school there, described, 358; schoolhouse in, is donated to, by Archibald Monk, 357; supports Whig party, 351-356.

XUM

Western Carolinian (Salisbury), attacks Andrew Jackson over closing of Second Bank of U. S., 119.
Western counties, are politically underrepresented under Constitution of 1776, 122.
Western land policy, is source of political controversy, 125, 126, 127.
Western North Carolina Railroad, briefly described, 288n-300, passim; portion of, pictured, 289.
Westin, Richard B., reviews Howard University: The First Hundred Years, 1867-1967, 329.
Whalers' camps, are located on Cape Lookout Bay, 385n.
What the University of North Carolina Meant to Me: A Report to the Chancellors and Presidents and to the People with Whom I Have Lived and Worked from 1914 to 1969, reviewed, 317.
Wheat, harvesting of, on Lake Mattamuskeet, 1818, described, 77.
Wheeler, John Hill, is antebellum historian, 1.
When Men and Mountains Meet, briefly discussed, 137.
Whig party, Alexander McRae is 1844 General Assembly candidate for, 16; Archibald Monk is influential member of, in Sampson County, 350-356; enacts legislation for common school system, 349; foundations of, in N.C., discussed, 115-129; Griffith J. McRee is active member of, 10, 12, 16; in N.C. in 1840s, needs new appraisal, 127-128; is formed by National Republicans and Branch-Calhoun faction, 120; is founded by opponents of Jacksonian policies, 349; methods of propagandizing its program, described, 124-125; platform of, in N.C., discussed, 121-123.
While the Mock Orange Waits, briefly discussed, 136.
Whistler, Mr., Moravian campers stop at home of, 1875, 304.
Whistler's Mill, Va., 304.
White, George H., brief sketch of, 265; loses races for congressional nomination, 266; pictured, 265; supports Negro fusionists, 254n; withdrawal of, from Republican candidacy, recommended by Marion Butler, 266n.
White, Hugh L., presidential candidacy of, is supported by Whig party, 351-352.
White Oak River, road to connect with Newport River, is completed, 374.
White Stallion, The, briefly discussed, 136-137; receives Roanoke-Chowan Poetry Award, 134.
Whitehouse, Richard, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373, justice, 372.
Wild cats, presence of, in Dismal Swamp in 1817, mentioned, 56, 66.
Wild game, find refuge in Hyde County, 65-66.
Wild Horses of the Red Desert, briefly discussed, 132.
Wild Spur Gap, Va., Moravian campers travel through, 1880, 314.
Wiley, Calvin Henderson, blames citizens for backwardness of N.C., 122; difficulties encountered by, in superintending common school system, discussed, 359-366; educational philosophy of, described, 366; office of, is abolished in 1866, 369; questionaire from, reproduced, 361; report to, from Archibald Monk, quoted, 359-360.
Wilkes County, Dunker settlements there, discussed, 187, 200-201; Moravian campers travel through, 1874, 285-287.
Wilkesboro, Moravian excursionists camp there, 1874, 285.
Wilkinson, Sylvia, makes contribution to literature of N.C., 160.
Willebrandt, Mabel Walker, is criticized by W. J. Cash, 46.
William Byrd's Histories of the Dividing Line Betwixt Virginia and North Carolina, briefly reviewed, 337.
William Tatham and the Culture of Tobacco, reviewed, 220.
William III, grants charter for formation of S.P.G., 234.
Williams, Benjamin Forrest, reviews American Printmaking: The First 150 Years, 230.
Williams, Jonathan, his An Ear in Bartram's Tree, briefly discussed, 137.
Williams, John C., is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Williams, Martha R., participates in Whig party rally, 355n.
Williams, Max R., his "The Foundations of the Whig Party in North Carolina: A Synthesis and a Modest Proposal," 115-129.
Williamson, Hugh, comment of Griffith J. McRee about, noted, 19.
Williamson, Richard, is churchwarden for St. John's Parish, 373; is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373; purchases Beaufort land for courthouse, 373.
Wills, William, is named Carteret Precinct juryman, 373.
Wilmington, acquires steamboats, 12-13; activities of Whigs there, described, 353, 354; Confederate troops there, are withdrawn by Braxton Bragg, 31; cultural aspects of, in antebellum era, described, 3, 5; history of, by Griffith J. McRee, discussed, 19; is favorite port, for Confederate blockade-runners, 24-39, passim; is home of Griffith John McRee family, 2-23, passim; is target of Union navy throughout Civil War, 24-39, passim; is without clergyman in 1762, 243; railroads from, supply Confederate armies, 24; residents of, subscribe for Life and Correspondence of James Iredell, 21.

Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad, stock in, is owned by Griffith J. McRee, 3.
Wilmington Herald, is edited by J. Sam Sharpe, 267; predicts Negroes will vote straight Republican ticket, 267.
Wilmington Library Association, directors of, mentioned, 5.
Wilson, Clyde, his "Griffith John McRee: An Unromantic Historian of the Old South," 1-23.
Wilson County, Samuel H. Vick represents Negro Republicans in, 267.
Winchester, Elhanan, opinion of, concerning Dunkers, quoted, 193; preaches in N.C., 193; spreads Universalist doctrines among Dunkers, 193-194.
Winchester, Va., is temporary home of Jacob Pfau family, 182.
Windham, Conn., is home of Samuel H. Perkins, 54-80, passim.
Winkler, Jessie, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 311-316.
Winslow, John, is named elector for Whig party, 355.
Winston, Moravian campers travel through, 303.
Winston-Salem, Fraternity Church of the Brethren there, pictured, 196; is site of Dunker settlements, 176-204, passim.
Winwright, James, acquires Beaufort property, 378n; moves from Pasquotank Precinct to Beaufort, 376; will of, described, 378n.
Wirt, William, republication of his The Letters of the British Spy, briefly noted, 431.
Wise, Henry Augustus, comment of, on powder-boat scheme, quoted, 28.
Witches and Demons in History and Folklore, mentioned, 151, reviewed, 89.
Wolfe, Thomas, literary career of, briefly discussed, 157; pictured, 158.
Wolfe, Thomas, Literary Award, 1969, is received by Harley E. Jolley, for The Blue Ridge Parkway, 151.
Wolfenden, Mr., guides Moravian visitors through lead mines, 1875, 305, 307.
Wood, Gordon S., his The Creation of the American Republic, 1776-1787, reviewed, 106.
Woodmason, Charles, makes charges to S.P.G. against Michael Smith, 242.
Wooster, Ralph A., his The People in Power: Courthouse and Statehouse in the Lower South, 1850-1860, reviewed, 99.
Words and Days . . . , briefly noted, 150.
World War I, pamphlet on North Carolina's role in, is available, 278n.
World War II, pamphlet on North Carolina's role in, is available, 278n.
Worth, Cora, joins Moravian camping trip to Virginia, 1880, 282n, 311-316.
Worth, Emily, marries Thaddeus Butner, 282n, 311n.
Worth, William H., is endorsed by Republicans, for nomination as state treasurer, 264; is nominated for state treasurer by Populists, 262; wins election in 1894, 269.
Worthington, Eliza, is third wife of William Gaston, 69n.
Wright, Charles David, his Early Rising, briefly discussed, 136-137.
Wright, Isaac C., is named to Sampson County school districting committee, 356.
Wytheville, Va., Moravian campers stop there, in 1875, 307, 308, 1878, 309, 1880, 313.
Wysocking Canal, described, 64n.
Wysocking Creek, plantation on, is willed to Harriet Jones, 82.

Y

Yadkin County, is home of Alfred Eugene Holton, 263; Moravian campers travel through, 1874, 283-286.
Yadkin River, Dunker congregation on, is led by Conrad and John Kern, 203; Dunker settlements in area of, discussed, 176-204, passim; is crossed by Moravian excursionists, 1874, 283, 285.
Yale University, alumnus of, serves as tutor in N.C., 1817-1818, 51-85, passim; library of, owns journal of Samuel H. Perkins, 55n.
Yancey County, votes consistently Democratic in Whig era, 129.
"Yankee Tutor in the Old South, A," 51-85.
Yankees, are criticized by Griffith J. McRee, 12-13.
Yarborough House, Raleigh, 1894 Republican state convention headquarters there, 260-262; pictured, 261.
Yeamans, Sir John, description of, by Griffith J. McRee, quoted, 19.
Yearns, Wilfred Buck, his The Papers of Thomas Jordan Jarvis. Vol. I. 1869-1882, reviewed, 88; reviews Their Tattered Flags, 325.
York County, Pa., Dunker Annual Meeting, 1798, held there, 197-198.
Young, Armand DeRosset, receives encouragement from Griffith J. McRee, 14.
Young, Charles R., his Hubert Walter, Lord of Canterbury and Lord of England, briefly discussed, 149.
Young, James H., is editor of Signal (Raleigh), 267; pictured, 268; supports Republican-Populist fusion, 267.
Young Fortune, Manigault slave, is sold, 406.
Younger, Richard D., reviews Reconstruction

XUM

in Retrospect: Views from the Turn of the Century, 101.
Yount, Anna Magdalena, is second wife of Jacob Pfau, 182.

Z

Zachary, Hugh, his A Feast of Fat Things, briefly discussed, 136.
Zimmerman. See Carpenter.
Zinzendorf, Nicholas, attempt of, to unite German sects, is opposed by Dunkers, 194.
Zoltvany, Yves F., his The French Tradition in America, reviewed, 226.

The North Carolina Historical Review

ISSUED QUARTERLY

VOLUME XLVII NUMBERS 1-4

Winter-Spring-Summer-Autumn
1970

XUM

THE NORTH CAROLINA HISTORICAL REVIEW

H. G. JONES
Editor in Chief

MRS. MEMORY F. MITCHELL
Editor

MISS MARIE D. MOORE
Editorial Associate

ADVISORY EDITORIAL BOARD

JOHN FRIES BLAIR
WILLIAM S. POWELL
MISS SARAH M. LEMMON
JOSEPH F. STEELMAN
MAX R. WILLIAMS

STATE DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

EXECUTIVE BOARD

JOSH L. HORNE, Chairman

MISS GERTRUDE SPRAGUE CARRAWAY
FLETCHER M. GREEN
GORDON S. DUGGER
HUGH T. LEFLER
T. HARRY GATTON
EDWARD W. PHIFER

H. G. JONES, Director

This review was established in January, 1924, as a medium of publication and discussion of history in North Carolina. It is issued to other institutions by exchange, but to the general public by subscription only. The regular price is $5.00 per year. Members of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association, Inc., for which the annual dues are $5.00, receive this publication without further payment. Back numbers still in print are available for $1.25 per number. Out-of-print numbers may be obtained from Kraus Reprint Corporation, 16 East 46th Street, New York, New York, 10017, or on microfilm from University Microfilms, 313 North First Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Persons desiring to quote from this publication may do so without special permission from the editors provided full credit is given to the North Carolina Historical Review. The Review is published quarterly by the State Department of Archives and History-State Library Building, 109 East Jones Street, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27601. Mailing address is Box 1881, Raleigh, North Carolina, 27602. Second class postage paid at Raleigh, North Carolina, 27611.

The North Carolina Historical Review

VOLUME XLVII

NUMBER 1, WINTER, 1970

GRIFFITH JOHN McREE: AN UNROMANTIC HISTORIAN OF THE OLD SOUTH 1
CLYDE WILSON

SHOCK AND ASSAULT IN THE FIRST BATTLE OF FORT FISHER 24
CHARLES L. PRICE AND CLAUDE C. STURGILL

FOUND: THE MISSING EDITORSHIP OF W. J. CASH 40
JOSEPH L. MORRISON

A YANKEE TUTOR IN THE OLD SOUTH 51
ROBERT G. MCLEAN

BOOK REVIEWS 86

MORRILL, The Practice and Politics of Fiat Finance: North Carolina in the Confederation, 1783-1789, by Victor Sapio 86

HAMILTON, Records of the Moravians in North Carolina, Volume XI, 1852-1879, by Michael L. Bowen 86

YEARNS, The Papers of Thomas Jordan Jarvis, Volume I, 1869-1882, by Paul Murray 88

JOHNSON, Witches and Demons in Folklore and History, by Richard Walser 89

XUM

STEM, PTA Impact: 50 Years in North Carolina, 1919-1969, by Mary Peacock Douglas 90

STRACHEY, For the Colony in Virginea Britannia Laws Divine, Morall and Martiall, etc., by William S. Powell 91

BREWER, The Confederate Negro: Virginia's Craftsmen and Military Laborers, 1861-1865, by Marvin L. Schlegel 92

LANDER, The Textile Industry in Antebellum South Carolina, by Marie D. Moore 93

BLESER, The Promised Land: The History of the South Carolina Land Commission, 1869-1890, by Daniel M. McFarland 95

JOLLEY, The Blue Ridge Parkway, by Edward W. Phifer 96

GOFF, Confederate Supply, by William N. Still, Jr. 97

CULLOP, Confederate Propaganda in Europe, 1861-1865, by W. Magruder Drake 98

WOOSTER, The People in Power: Courthouse and Statehouse in the Lower South, 1850-1860, by William S. Hoffmann 99

CURRENT, Reconstruction in Retrospect: Views from the Turn of the Century, by Richard D. Younger 100

COPELAND, Democracy in the Old South and Other Essays by Fletcher Melvin Green, by James W. Silver 101

RUBIN, A Bibliographical Guide to the Study of Southern Literature, by Ray M. Atchison 103

RANKIN, The Golden Age of Piracy, by Richard Beale Davis 104

WOOD, The Creation of the American Republic, 1776-1787, by Don Higginbotham 106

JACOBS and TUCKER, The War of 1812: A Compact History, by Sarah McCulloh Lemmon 107

UROFSKY, Big Steel and the Wilson Administration: A Study in Business-Government Relations, by Richard L. Watson, Jr. 108

Other Recent Publications 109

NUMBER 2, SPRING, 1970

THE FOUNDATIONS OF THE WHIG PARTY IN NORTH CAROLINA 115

MAX R. WILLIAMS

PAPERS FROM THE SIXTY-NINTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA LITERARY AND HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION, RALEIGH, DECEMBER 5, 1969
INTRODUCTION 130

REVIEW OF NORTH CAROLINA FICTION, 1968-1969 131
ELEANOR BIZZELL POWELL

IN QUEST OF A SPIRITUAL RENAISSANCE 138
RICHARD F. GIBBS

REVIEW OF NORTH CAROLINA NONFICTION, 1968-1969 145
RICHARD BARDOLPH

BEYOND THE MOON 152
HOLT MCPHERSON

A PEOPLE DIVIDED 161
JULIAN P. BOYD

TWO EIGHTEENTH CENTURY DUNKER CONGREGATIONS IN NORTH CAROLINA 176
ROGER E. SAPPINGTON

NORTH CAROLINA BIBLIOGRAPHY, 1968-1969 205
WILLIAM S. POWELL

BOOK REVIEWS 214

BIVINS, Longrifles of North Carolina, by W. S. Tarlton 214

PARRAMORE, The Ancient Maritime Village of Murfreesborough: 1787-1825, by Charles L. Paul 215

BERKELEY and BERKELEY, Dr. Alexander Garden of Charles Town, by Thomas C. Parramore 216

HEMPHILL, The Papers of John C. Calhoun. Vol. IV. 1818-1820, by Brian G. Walton 216

BARBOUR, The Jamestown Voyages Under the First Charter, 1606-1609, Vols. I and II, by Mattie Erma E. Parker 218

MEADE, Patrick Henry: Practical Revolutionary, by Edward P. Alexander 219

HERNDON, William Tatham and the Culture of Tobacco, by Nannie M. Tilley 220

STEVENS, An Affair of Honor, by A. M. Patterson 222

VANDERWOOD, Night Riders of Reelfoot Lake, by Robert E. Corlew 223

XUM

BEST, The Merit and Reward of a Good Intention: A Sermon Preached Before the Trustees of the Colony of Georgia on March 18, 1742, by David T. Morgan, Jr. 224

ZOLTVANY, The French Tradition in America; and LAND, Bases of the Plantation Society, by John L. Bell, Jr. 226

RUBIN, George W. Cable, The Life and Times of a Southern Heretic, by Henderson Kincheloe 227

SHADWELL, American Printmaking: The First 150 Years, by Ben Forrest Williams 228

BROOKS, Research in Archives: The Use of Unpublished Primary Sources, by C. F. W. Coker 230

Other Recent Publications 230

NUMBER 3, SUMMER, 1970

SCANDAL IN CAROLINA: THE STORY OF A CAPRICIOUS MISSIONARY 233
DAVID T. MORGAN, JR.

REPUBLICAN PARTY STRATEGISTS AND THE ISSUE OF FUSION WITH POPULISTS IN NORTH CAROLINA, 1893-1894 244
JOSEPH F. STEELMAN

REPORT TO THE READERS 270
MEMORY F. MITCHELL

ACCOUNTS OF MORAVIAN MOUNTAIN EXCURSIONS OF A HUNDRED YEARS AGO 281
HORACE W. RAPER

BOOK REVIEWS 317

COATES, What the University of North Carolina Meant to Me: A Report to the Chancellors and President and to the People with Whom I Have Lived and Worked from 1914 to 1969, by Joseph F. Steelman 317

FOLMSBEE, CORLEW, and MITCHELL, Tennessee: A Short History, by James W. Patton 318

MCBRIDE, More Landmarks of Tennessee History, by James K. Huhta 319

WEAVER and BERGERON, Correspondence of James K. Polk. Volume I, 1817-1832, by Herbert J. Doherty, Jr. 321

McCants, They Came to Louisiana: Letters of a Catholic Mission, 1854-1882, by James W. Webb 322

Jackson, New Orleans in the Gilded Age: Politics and Urban Progress, 1880-1896, by John W. Blassingame 323

Vandiver, Their Tattered Flags, by Buck Yearns 324

Lynch, The Facts of Reconstruction, by Allen W. Trelease 325

Anderson, Lutheranism in the Southeastern States, 1860-1886: A Social History, by W. Harrison Daniel 327

Logan, Howard University: The First Hundred Years, 1867-1967, by Richard B. Westin 328

Bartley, The Rise of Massive Resistance: Race and Politics in the South During the 1950's, by Robert Moats Miller 329

McFerrin, Caldwell and Company: A Southern Financial Empire, by Ernest Hooper 331

Kammen, Empire and Interest: The American Colonies and the Politics of Mercantilism, by Robert M. Weir 332

Rundell, In Pursuit of American History: Research and Training in the United States, by H. G. Jones 333

Catton, Prefaces to History, by William W. Hassler 334

Other Recent Publications 335

NUMBER 4, AUTUMN, 1970

ARCHIBALD MONK: PUBLIC SERVANT OF SAMPSON COUNTY 339
Charles H. Bowman, Jr.

BEAUFORT, NORTH CAROLINA: ITS DEVELOPMENT AS A COLONIAL TOWN 370
Charles L. Paul

A HALF-CENTURY OF A GEORGIA RICE PLANTATION 388
James M. Clifton

BOOK REVIEWS 416

McKiever, Slavery and the Emigration of North Carolina Friends, by Herbert Poole 416

Royall, Letters from Alabama, 1817-1882, by Edwin A. Miles 417

XUM

BRADEN, AUER, and BRADLEY, Oratory in the Old South, 1828-1860, by Richard H. Haunton 417

RIPLEY, Artillery and Ammunition of the Civil War, by Dennis Walters, Jr. 418

CURRY, Radicalism, Racism, and Party Realignment: The Border States During Reconstruction, by Horace W. Raper 419

OWSLEY, The South, Old and New Frontiers: Selected Essays of Frank Lawrence Owsley, by John Hebron Moore 421

GASTON, The New South Creed: A Study in Southern Mythmaking, by David L. Smiley 422

CASE and SPENCER, The United States and France: Civil War Diplomacy, by Roger D. Bridges 423

MALONE, Jefferson the President: First Term, 1801-1805, by Philip F. Detweiler 425

PETERSON, Thomas Jefferson and the New Nation: A Biography, by Lawrence F. Brewster 426

ABRAMS, The Issues of the Populist and Progressive Eras, 1892-1912, by H. Larry Ingle 427

GREGORY, Walter Hines Page: Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, by Dewey W. Grantham 428

Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States: Lyndon B. Johnson, Containing the Public Messages, Speeches, and Statements of the President, 1968-69, by Frank L. Grubbs, Jr. 429

Other Recent Publications 430

INDEX TO VOLUME XLVII—1970 435

XUM